A FESTIVE CHINAMAN.

Port Townsend, August 5.-Sing, a Chinaman, who has been employed on the revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott, ten years, as its captain's private steward, was arrested today on board that vensel for smuggling opium into the United States from British Columbia When the chinaman's apartments were searched eighteen five-teal cans of prepared oplum were found concealed beneath his bunk. The cutter was in Victoria yesterday, and, as was custom ary, the steward was permitted to go ashore and return at his pleasure Late in the evening he returned aboard carrying a package, which accidently dropped. He then began to act in a suspicious manner. After the cutter left Victoria for the American side, Captain Roath ordered the cook to search with the above result. For many years Sing, who speaks and The Astorian's Latest writes English fluently, when visiting ports in British Columbia on the cutter always returned aboard with a small package, which was never examined. It is now believed his smuggling operations extended into the tens of thousands of dollars. It is learned that he frequented gambling houses and there lost large sums, OURSELVES AND HAWAII.

NATURE DEMANDS A TONIC.

We ought never to forget, even those of us who possess vigorous health, that we are wearing out—that the vital colock work so to speak, must event unliv run down. This, of course, we cannot prevent, because it is in the ordinary course of nature, but we may retard the too speedy arrival of decay by the use of an invigorant which takes rank of every other—namely. Hostet ter's Stomach Bitters. This century has not witnessed a Bitters. This century has not witnessed a parallel in success to this famous medicine, which not only sustains health by promoting vigor, but overcomes constipation, dyspepsia, and an impoverished conditions of the system fostered by weakness and an impoverished conditions of the system fostered by weakness and an impoverished condition of the blood. The feeble persons convalescing after exhausting disease, and the aged, derive infinite benefit from the use of this helpful and efficient tonic.
