About II o'clock last Wednesday night, Mr. E. C. Carson, who lives at Bear Creek, near Creswell, was awak ened by smoke, and found his house being destroyed by flames. The family were nearly suffocated and barely had time to save themselves by getting out of the burning building, without saving any of their personal effects. A small storehouse and barn also caught from the flames of the house and were destroyed. Besides the ordinary house hold effects, there were in the house and destroyed, two watches of considerable value and several hundred dotlars worth of diamonds. The storehouse contained quite an amount of supplies and the barn contained wagon, carriage, barness, twenty tons of hay and other articles, all of which were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $3,600, and it was covered with insurance for $1,600. A defective flue is sup posed to have been the cause of the
