MEMORIES.

The fellers over Yunder in the town have gut a band,
An' once a week they practice up with all the boys on hand;
An' out on my plazzy I can set an' hear 'em play
As, creepin' up the valley come the notes from far away.
There ain't no high-toned players on the band—just common men;
There ain't no science in 'em, but you orter hear 'em when
They'll start off together an' run up 'an down the scale,
An' play "The Swance River," "Home, Sweet Home" or "Lilly Dale."
That barmony comes creepin' up the valley with the wind,
The tune biled out by distance an' the stale notes left behind.
I jest set here an' listen, with my long-forgotten visions into bein' An' youth an' hope, ambition hold a hand out once again. An' gone is all the trouble an' sorrow an' the pain.

With that sweet music drippin on yer heart like healin' dew.

An' faith an' love a-breakin' all yer soul's big prison through.

ALONG THE WHARVES.

An answer in the libel suit brought by the master of the steamer Chebalis against the steamer Ellis to recover $68 damages by a collision occurring on July 19th, was filed yesterday, says the P.-I., in the United States district court, It is denied that the Ellis was at fault, and that she in fact had the right of way when the two crafts collided while trying to land simultaneously at the same dock near Charleston

The American tug boats which were working about the San Pedro in Victoria Harbor on Tuesday returned to the Sound and the raising of the vessel will necessarily have to be postponed, for although a strengous effort was made on the last attempt, the vessel still lies on Brotchie ledge. Whether or not further attempts will be made to remove her from the rock on which she lies is as yet unknown, but at present operations are suspended,

The American ship Agenor, says the Ledger, will ship a crew here today.

The new steamer Echo has been officially added to the Puget Sound fleet, She belongs at Snohomish and is owned by H. T. McMillan. She is 70.2 feet long, 10.2 feet beam, and 2 feet deep, and has no deck. Her tonnage is 30.2

Gentlemen:-I had occasion to use several boxes of Krause's Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. Have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable. Yours, respectfully.
