TODAY'S WEATHER.
Portland, Or., Aug. 23.—For Oregon and Washington: Continued fair weather; slightly warmer.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m., yesterday, furnished by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, weather bureau.
Maximum temperature, 70 degrees.
Minimum temperature, 53 degrees.
Total precipitation from July 1st, 1893, to date, 1.18 inches.

In the position of the questions before congress Senator Vest, of Missouri, becomes important. He is a senator of more than usual vivacity of mind, and his information would be large if it were not limited to his prejudices. He denies that the overproduction of silver caused its fall, and charges the whole responsibility on Germany and the United States, who demonetized it.

The senator should have called in his reserve of good sense and considered that the discoveries of gold in California and Australia cheapened that metal and that it oiled the machinery of the world. Then followed discoveries of silver that, with the improved processes caused such yields that silver, from being the dearer metal under the ratio, speedily became the cheaper and then opened a gap between the market value of the metals that became a gulf we have vainly attempted to fill.

Senator Vest complains that Germany established the gold standard and threw her surplus silver on the market. Has he ever heard of any complaint by the Germans? Has not the wealth of Germany rapidly increased under the gold standard, in spite of the dreadful weight of her army, and the monstrous oppression of her militarism? The gold standard and national money are the greatest benefits Germany has realized from her victory over France and the first rank among the military nations. German industry has been helped, not harmed. German pride has been gratified.

We have done more to protect the silver industry than any other nation and have thus aided in the very overproduction that has tumbled the market and caused a restriction of silver. As a fierce free trader, Senator Vest should cease his absurd and demoralizing outcry for silver, unless he is frankly for repudiation through the shortening of the money measure and the destruction of securities, to the amount of one-half of the savings of the people.

Why does not Senator Vest, as the friend of silver, urge that the government shall cease to bull the silver market against itself; shall cease to magnify the privileges of the silver monopolists; shall limit silver for the betterment of the money on hand as is done in France; shall declare to the world that we are entitled to, and must and will have the best money in the world? That would precisely become a bimetalist.

Peffer is the person with a plan. The silver lunatics should survey Peffer as he stands and behold the world under his mighty eyebrow and over his cataract of hair. Peffer wants to coin paper or aluminum, and pay all the debts of the country at once. With moderation itself he calls for the immediate issue of $600,000,000. Why not $10,000,000,000 and pay all debts and taxes and clear up everything? Our old Oregonian financier, General Applegate, can take a back seat. He is startling enough, but placed against the mighty Peffer for comparison, he fades into absolute insignificance.

However loudly Mrs. Leise may yell "calamity," she is taking good care of number one. Since she started in with the populist movement she is said to have cleared off considerable mortgages on the farm and her husband's drug store, purchased a city home in Wichita, and sent her children to expensive schools. Her husband, by the way, is a sad-eyed man, who speaks in a low voice and acts as if some great calamity were hanging over him. We should say so.

The twin of the Campana, the Lucciana, seems to have got herself rammed by a dredger and had her plates bent and twisted. She has been detained some time, apparently to remedy the defects discovered at high speed in the Campana, and now there is further delay. There is not, however, any vast crowd of Americans in Europe waiting to run home and see the World's Fair on a record breaking and making trip.

A number of Western banks which were obliged to close their doors as a consequence of the prevailing financial stress, are reported this morning to have reopened for business. This is encouraging, and shows that the suspension of a bank does not always mean total failure.

A VIOLENT COMMOTION.
In the stomach and bowels produced by a violent purgative and its consequent draining action, never are, because it is impossible they should be, followed by permanent good effects. No specific which weakens and convulses the organs for whose relief it is used can do good. Blue pills, calomel, podophyllin, salts and senna, vegetable or mineral pills, are drastic remedies generally void of benefit. A reliable and effective substitute for them is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which effects a change both natural and thorough in the bowels when they are constipated. A sufficient and regular secretion of bile by the liver and sound digestion are also promoted by its use. Malaria in all its forms, rheumatism and kidney trouble are obviated by this fine reformer of disordered conditions of the system. A wineglassful three times a day is about the dose.

America's Great Danger

Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people to-day is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible national disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands fall by the way every year.

You are likely to be one of the victims! How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms, are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold Hands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Shorting Memory, Palpitation, Nervousness, Sexual Debility, Etc., etc.
Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unequalled in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me.—JOHN MINCHER, Youngstown, Ohio.

Those who have a Good Digestion have little sympathy for the dyspeptic. They can eat everything that comes along. While they can eat rich food without fear of the dyspeptic's bad experiences, they nevertheless greatly appreciate a delicate flavor in their pastry.

CATARRH IN CHILDREN
For over two years my little girl's life was made miserable by a case of Catarrh. The discharge from the nose was large, constant and very offensive. Her eyes became inflamed, the lids swollen and very painful. After trying various remedies, I gave her S.S.S. The first bottle seemed to aggravate the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured.
