GLADSTONE'S CROWNING ACT

The Home Rule Bill Passed the Commons Last Night.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC SCENE

Great Britain's Prime Minister Received an Ovation, and the Crowds Cheered Till They Were Wild.

Associated Press.
London, Sept. 2.—Gladstone's long home rule fight in the house of commons is ended. The bill was passed at 1 o'clock this (Saturday) morning, by a majority of 301 to 267. It was then hurried to the house of lords, which gave it its first reading and then adjourned.
There was unusual animation along the route from Gladstone's residence to the house of commons this afternoon. The streets were crowded with people who wished to catch a glimpse of the great champion of home rule, and though there was no organized demonstration, he was cheered all along the route. He was accompanied by his wife and was evidently much pleased with the heartiness of the greeting he received from the people, bowing constantly to the crowds. The galleries of the house were filled long before the sitting opened. A large number of ladies were present. The premier was loudly cheered by his followers as he walked to his seat. The galleries, also gave him a warm greeting. Justin McCarthy opened the debate, speaking on the same lines as Dillon did last night. Chamberlain followed. He said the bill struck a deadly blow at the honor and interests of the country, but he could not avoid being filled with admiration at the courage, resolution, and eloquence of the prime minister. Chamberlain spoke for over an hour and his address was a brilliant one. Balfour spoke for more than an hour. He said the government's insane action had done more than one hundred Tory governments had done to demonstrate the necessity for a house of lords as a bulwark of the greatness and interests of the empire. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, spoke bitterly of the tactics of the opposition. He said there was a great party in Great Britain determined that Ireland should no longer be the cockpit of England's factions. After many other speeches a division was had on Courtney's amendment to reject the bill, and it was defeated. The bill was then put on third reading and passed. The full import of the occasion was felt by all and the culmination was accompanied by frantic cheers from the galleries and upon the floor. Gladstone received a fresh ovation as he left the house. The scenes in front of the house after midnight were exciting. The knowledge that a vote was to be taken attracted a large crowd. Many Irishmen were in the throng, and the sentiment of the crowd generally was for home rule and Gladstone. This was expressed in many ways, by singing "Wearin' of the Green," "God Save Ireland," cheering for Gladstone, and hooting Balfour. When the announcement that the house had passed the bill was received, the crowd went wild. The police were alarmed at the antics, and a cordon was drawn up before the members' exit. The crowd surged around the cabs and carriages, and as each member of any distinction was recognized, he was given a cheer. When Gladstone's carriage came out, a number of mounted police instantly surrounded it, but the crowd, when they learned who was in the carriage, became beyond control and breaking through the cordon, stopped the vehicle, and held it while they cheered the premier to the echo. The carriage which was again stopped at the corner of Downing street and detained while the crowd cheered and sang "Lo, the Conquering Hero Comes." Gladstone bowed right and left to his enthusiastic admirers, and was greatly touched by the fervor of the people.

MORMONS OUT SIGHTSEEING.
Kansas City, Sept. 1.—The Mormon choir from Salt Lake arrived today on its way to Chicago, where it will contest for honors at the World's Fair. Accompanying the 250 members of the choir are about 200 other members of the church headed by Wilford Woodruff, president of the Mormon Church. This afternoon, the entire party made a pilgrimage to Independence, whither the Mormons were driven from Illinois and whence they were driven in 1844, to Utah. A strong Mormon colony is still there, and the visitors were given a warm welcome.

GOGGIN RISES TO EXPLAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Scandal was piled on scandal today in the litigation over the World's Fair Sunday closing. Judge Goggin told his side of the story at length, and tonight it is difficult to see how further can develop that would be the matter a more extraordinary phase. Judge Goggin makes a remarkable explanation concerning his unprecedented decision in favoring the Sunday opening. He said in part: "It is a judge's duty to decide a case without reference to what either German or American or Scandinavian or Irish papers think of it, but simply as to where right and justice lay. I was within my rights when I kicked Judge Brentano off the bench where he was sitting with me. Judge Dunne dissented from me and I respected his dissent. But Judge Brentano after agreeing with me on the proposition of law, shifts his vote because a German newspaper favored closing of the Fair on Sundays. To say this made me mad, is to express my feelings but feebly, so I did what I did."

ROW ON A RACETRACK.

Fleetwood, N. J., Sept. 1.—Three thousand people at the park today, had considerable excitement during the free-for-all pace, in which Manager, Flying Jib, Vitello, Blue Sign, and Roy Wilkes competed. At the lower turn Blue Sign, Roy Wilkes and Vitello got into a scrimmage in which Blue Sign was crippled for life in the forward foot. Budd Doble, and Kelley, driving Manager and Flying Jib, had it out in the fourth heat at the last half mile. Doble tried to go through next to the rail when Kelley drew in on him. Doble ran his pacer up to Kelley's sulky and deliberately slashed Kelley across the face with his whip, causing an ugly wound. Doble then landed Manager a winner by half a length. The judges fined him $100. Manager won the pace, Flying Jib second, Vitello third; best time, 2:07 3/4.

GETTING RID OF THE CHINESE

The California Mobs Still Continue in Their Course.

TWO CITIES UP IN ARMS

An Attempt Will Be Made to Prevent Any Violence to the Foreigners by the Mob.

Associated Press.
Redlands, Cal., Sept. 1.—The town is under arms, and one hundred and fifty police are on duty. The local national guard company is now at the armory, under orders. The forty-eight hours given the Chinese to leave town expires tonight. A law and order meeting held last night condemned the action of the agitators, and the town is so thoroughly guarded that trouble is not anticipated. The laborers are holding meetings tonight, and it is reported that one hundred and fifty Mexicans will arrive late from the surrounding country and San Bernardino to help drive out the Chinese. There is much excitement.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 1.—Sheriff Booth has gone to Redlands, having been called upon by the citizens of that city to aid in suppressing the rioters, who threaten to drive out the Chinese. A large number of deputies have gone with him. The San Bernardino National Guard have been ordered to report at headquarters tonight and will go to Redlands on the evening train to assist in quelling mob violence. The Chinese of this city and Redlands for a number of days have been arming themselves with shot guns and revolvers in anticipation of trouble. Last night the Chinese in this city barricaded themselves in every house in Chinatown and prepared with fire arms to resist any attack. A mass meeting may be held tonight or tomorrow night to notify about two hundred Chinese living in this city to leave at once.

CRIME IN THE SOUTH.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 1.—Geo. S. Turner was hanged at Spartanburg today, ending a most noted case. Turner was a man of wealth and prominence, the owner of the Fingerville Cotton Factory. He seduced his sister-in-law, killed her brother, and then for three years used his wealth in employing the best legal talent in the state in an attempt to defeat the death verdict. On account of threats from his rough mountain friends, the jail was guarded by troops, but there was no disturbance.

At Berkeley, S. C. today, Oscar Johnson was hanged for murdering Mr. and Mrs. Henry Twettman, at Lincolnville, last March. He died a terrible death, being slowly strangled.

Henry Ewing, colored, was hanged for the murder of Tony Fickling, at Laurens, S. C., three negroes were hanged, John Ferguson for murdering his wife, and George Bowers and Wade Cannon, for barn burning.

THE TACOMA TROUBLE.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 1.—Mayor Hudson and D. L. Demorest of the board of public works, were arrested tonight. The trouble grew out of the forcible entering of the Tacoma Light and Water Company's gas works on August 25th taking therefrom certain property consisting of water pipes, fittings, and electrical supplies alleged to have been reserved from the general delivery when the transfer of property was made subsequently to the purchase of the electric light and water plants by the city. President Rydstrom of the board and Superintendent Lloyd of the water works are not yet arrested. The others have gone home under charge of deputy sheriffs as they refuse to give bonds. An attempt will be made tomorrow to get them out on habeas corpus.

PROBABLE ROW WITH MEXICO.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The trouble on the Mexican border over the attempt of Mexican officials to drive a flock of sheep from a tract of land on the Rio Grande, claimed by both the Mexicans and citizens of the United States, owing to a change in the course of the river, has taken a serious aspect. If it is discovered that the sheep belong to the Mexicans, the removal will be allowed. If it is found otherwise, the state department will demand an explanation from Mexico for sending an armed force to make a seizure on United States soil.

DOINGS OF THE PRESIDENT.

Washington, September 1.—President Cleveland and family arrived this morning. The president is in excellent spirits. His eye is bright, his complexion clear, and he looked vigorous and strong. After breakfast the president went to his office and for two hours worked very hard, disposing of the accumulated public business. Then he took part in a cabinet meeting until 1 o'clock. The silver question was discussed with reference to the chances of a repeal by the senate. The president expressed his belief that his recommendations would be carried out.

The president approved the bill in aid of the California Mid-Winter International Exposition.

The president has sent to the senate the name of Beal Gaither of Oregon, as Indian agent at Siletz agency, Oregon.

ALBERT WERLIN TIRED OF LIFE.

Portland, Or., Sept. 1.—Albert Werlin, a well known young man of this city, attempted suicide this afternoon by shooting himself in the breast. He is still alive but it is believed that he will die. He is able to speak at times and the only reason he gives for the deed is "disappointment." He was head bookkeeper for Honeyman, De Hart & Co., up to a short time ago, when he was discharged in order to save expenses. He did not appear to be affected by this, as he is well to do. His friends believe he was temporarily insane. It is said that he was engaged to be married, but recently the engagement was broken.

ORDERED TO CO-OPERATE.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Reports dated Oumalaska, August 14, received at the navy department from Commander Ludlow, commanding the United States naval forces in Bering sea, say that the British war-ship Champion has been directed to co-operate with the United States fleet in carrying out the modus vivendi.

THE HOP MARKET.

New York, Sept. 1.—Hops are quiet steady, and unchanged. There are conflicting advices still regarding the loss to the crop in this state by the recent storms and by mold. Some correspondents reduce the estimates of the yield from 15 to 20 per cent. The cables report an improvement in English and German crops.

AN ARRANGEMENT REACHED.

Washington, Sept. 1.—As a result of the labors of the national government in the case of the nine condemned Choctaws, it has been agreed that Lewis and Wade who were the ringleaders, shall be executed on September 8th, and that the other prisoners shall be allowed to plead guilty of manslaughter.

CAUSED BY AN EXPLODING LAMP

Milton, Cal., Sept. 1.—Last night the explosion of a lamp in Wells, Fargo's office at Copperopolis, set fire to the building. The flames spread rapidly and the whole business portion of the town was destroyed. The damage and insurance are not estimated.

FOREST FIRES NEAR TACOMA.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 1.—Forest fires in this vicinity have caused a dense pall of smoke to hang over the city today. The atmosphere is oppressive. The weather observer reports a storm coming, with its center now over the Columbia river.

FIGURES OF THE CALAMITY.

Springfield, Sept. 1.—Fourteen dead, one dying, two missing, and nearly forty injured is the sum total of the Chester horror of yesterday as far as can be learned. It is believed that several bodies are still under the wreck.

A STRIKE THREATENED.

Louisville, Sept. 1.—The chiefs of the railway men's order, and the officials of the Louisville and Nashville railroad are still in consultation. Having reached no agreement, it looks as if there was to be a general strike.
