

ABOUT THE CITY.

Football at Smith's Point. The season is coming close to us. Kate McKenzie will be buried today. Good bye Mr. Landon; welcome Mr. Bushong. There was a hot football practice yesterday. The board of equalization is resuming its labors. Hotel Gearhart will remain open a part of this month. Collectors are reaping a very fair harvest considering the times. Charles Hayburg leaves St. Mary's Hospital today after a long bout with typhoid fever. Among the Elmore's freight for Portland yesterday, was four tons of butter. Farmers down Tillamook way are evidently waking to their opportunities. Thursday evening while waiting for the train at Clatsop City, a young man fell off the platform. His arm struck the iron rail, and was broken at the wrist. At $50 lot for $2. The Belmont cigar can be had at Chas. Olsen's. For $2 a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's first addition. Big discount on all goods at the gent's outfitting store of P. A. Stokes. Martin Olsen will at 11 o'clock today, at his auction room, sell a splendid horse, weighing over 1300 pounds. The animal is the property of Mr. E. C. Hughes, and is docile, powerful and in first class condition. Somebody will get a bargain. Remember McGuire's Hotel at Seaside is open the year around. Groceries cheap for cash at Howell & Ward's. If you want some extra fine photos, Moore's is the place to get them. All groceries sold at bottom prices for cash at Howell & Ward's. Yesterday morning the Mendell picked up a man who had been capsized a few minutes before out of Grant's fishboat on the other side of the sands in front of the Parker House. The boat was recovered without much difficulty, but fifteen dollars worth of stores are now at the bottom of the deep blue sea. Only the purest wines and liquors are sold at Alex. Campbell's Gem. For fine wines and liquors call at August Danielson's Sample Rooms. Wing Lee has just received a full line of Japanese curiosities and fancy goods. Will sell at cost. 529 Third street. A great reduction sale is in progress at P. A. Stokes' gent's outfitting store. For the first time this year the proceeds of the football game at Smith's Point today, will go into the coffers of the Astoria Football Club. This is absolutely necessary on account of a deficit incurred by the Gearhart Park picnic two weeks ago. Everything points to a very large attendance, and the Club's generous donations to worthy institutions ever since its foundation will no doubt be recognized in this substantial manner. Get your hemlock wood for $3.25 per cord delivered, at the Astoria Wood Yard. Satisfaction guaranteed. For bargains in real estate, call on Wm. B. Adair, 44 Third street. Men of first means can buy real estate in Hill's first addition. Sewing machine and general repairing, lock-fitting, etc. C. A. May, 132 Main. Pague, senior partner of the firm of Pague, Puytus & Co., has been away on a holiday for two weeks, and Blatchford his representative has ordered good weather during that time, no doubt for his employers' satisfaction. Now that Pague is back again, we are treated to an old fashioned winter storm, driving pleasure seekers home from the beaches by the hundred. This is mean. The senior partner ought to have a little consideration for other people. Hill's first addition is located in the centre of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2. Del. Ferguson, general job printer, Astorian building, upstairs. First-class work at reasonable rates. Parties visiting in Portland can get The Daily Astorian at Haulley & Haas' news stand, 159 First street. For all kinds of job printing, go to Del. Ferguson, upstairs, Astorian building. The little steamer O. K. made a good find yesterday. For some time past fishermen on the sands have been bothered with an obstruction, the nature of which they could not very well define. Yesterday morning the O. K. went to the spot and a couple of her men proceeded to drag diligently. After about an hour they were rewarded for their pains, hauling up a fine anchor with sixty feet of big chain attached. The find is worth about $340, and it is supposed that it was lost from a ship in harbor fully ten years ago. There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money. The Office liquors and mixed drinks are unexcelled. Genevieve street, between Second and Third. Water colors, crayons and stiples crayons, copying and enlarging, a specialty at Crow's gallery, 638 Third street. Fresh fish received at the Albatross Fish market daily. Salmon 10 cents per pound. Lovers of a good egg can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's. An esteemed friend writes to the editor of The Astorian to know if he can send him a "good republican barber." Here, surely, is a wise move. The writer of the letter, who by the way, is a bit of a republican himself, no doubt recognizes the immense weight a good conversational barber will have in a political campaign. The Astorian intends to send a tonsorial artist who can fill the bill, and will watch with interest the progress of the campaign in our neighboring city. When the battle is over and the republicans are on top, the result will most certainly prove the utility of the employment of this new factor in politics. Sportsmen intending to purchase their winter supply of ammunition should communicate with Foard & Stokes before purchasing elsewhere. Call at the Astoria Real Estate Exchange and get a lot in Hill's first addition for $2. Owners of horses can purchase Campbell's Hoot Remedy, and all the Columbia Veterinary Remedies at Fred. Sair's Saddlery establishment. Wagner & Co. have a line of new souvenir spoons, watch, clock and jewelry repairing a specialty. Opposite The Astorian office. Wanted—Purchasers for general merchandise. Everything at cost price T. F. Laurin, 630 Third street. Postmaster Hare yesterday received a communication from Joseph Kothé, of Bickleton, Klickitat county, Wash., telling him that a horse answering to the name of "Frank" had strayed away from his farm, and thinking that the animal might have reached Astoria, he wrote, offering a reward of $10 to any person who will bring him in to me at Bickleton. Frank must be an equine wonder, or else Mr. Kothé has a marvelous idea of the ability of his noble Arab to make tracks. To reach here the animal would have had to cross Mt. Adams, come over Mt. Baker, shoot the rapids of the Cascades, swim through the Docks, make a portage to the Oregon side, and then trot a couple of hundred miles. But the best of the thing is that Kothé wants any Astorian finding him to take him back to the farm, and get $10 reward. The fare to Bickleton would be $14, and the charges for the horse about $5.50. Add to this the cost of oats during the trip and we have a total of $25. The lucky finder who follows directions will be $15 out on the deal, but then he will have the moral satisfaction of having obliged Kothé. I won't be under sold on wall paper. Always as low as the lowest. The best stock to select from in the city. B. F. Allen, Third street. For delicious ice cream soda go to Colman's Ice Cream Parlors, Choice, fresh candies manufactured daily at Colman's. Dry hemlock wood delivered at $3.25 per cord by C. W. Everest, Alderbrook. Leave orders with Ben Coe, care of this office. Terms cash. Theo. Bracker keeps a varied and choice assortment of cigars, tobaccos, playing cards, cutlery, stationery, pipes, amber goods, etc. Elegant bath tubs, first class shaving and neat and artistic hair cutting at the Astoria Baths, Gillet & Corbett, proprietors. This afternoon at Smith's Point will be played one of the most exciting football games of the season, when the first eleven of the Astoria Football Club, meet the representatives of Fort Canby and vicinity. Both clubs have been practicing hard for the match, and an interesting struggle is bound to result. The Fort Canby boys will be over this morning in good time, and at 2 o'clock a special train will take the teams down to the grounds. At 2:30 the general public will be accommodated with all the cars on the line, and the game will begin sharp at 2:45. The personnel of the representatives of Astoria is as follows: Forwards: Higgins, McLean, Gibson, J. Carruthers, and Bell; Half backs: Tallent (captain) Rathorn, and Ridehalgh; Full Backs: Spittle and Smith; goal—Bradford. The colors of the Astorians will be white shirts and knickerbockers, and black stockings. The soldiers will appear in blue jerseys, with knickers and stockings of the same color. The Astoria ladies who are present will of course wear the club favors, blue and white. Accommodations have been made for a very large attendance, and spectators will find every convenience arranged for their comfort. The price of admission to the grounds has been placed at 25 cents. Mr. Frank Gunn will umpire the game. W. Trullinger, Small, and Euffington have been chosen as substitutes. ONLY RIGHT TO TELL. The Rev. Mark Guy Pease, the eminent English Divine, writes: "Bedford Place, Russell Square, London, Dec. 10, 1892. "I think it only right that I should tell you of how much use I find Allcock's Porous Plasters in my family and among those to whom I have recommended them. I find them a very bracing and effective remedy against colds and coughs." There is no place in Astoria where John Kopp's famous beer is kept in such good condition as at Utzinger's popular resort. Thor Frederickson, piano tuner, has moved to 1053 Third street, Adair's Astoria, near Eagle cannery. Leave orders at Griffin & Reed's book store. The Coffee House, 522 Third street; best place for chops and steaks; oysters by the quart; received daily and always fresh.

Hansen will address the members. In answer to several enquiries The Astorian desires to impress upon pastors of every church in the city the necessity of having their notices handed in to this office by 9 o'clock every Friday night. By doing this they will assist their parishioners to a considerable extent. The dressmaking parlors of Mrs. S. A. Ross, at Miss McRae's millinery store, Genevieve street, will be reopened September 1st. Menny is the leading furrier and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. The finest and most extensive line of blue and white steel enamelled ware ever displayed in Astoria has been received at Foard & Stokes. The following is the text of the resolutions accompanying the gift of the Epworth League to Rev. G. A. Landon: Dear Pastor:—We, the members of the Epworth League of our church, learn with regret that it is your intention to sever your connection with our church and League at the ensuing conference. Be it hereby resolved that we express to you our gratitude, first, for your loyal, earnest Christian leadership. Second, for your untiring, zealous labor to strengthen and sustain our League by your wise counsels and Christian guidance. That we appreciate and find greatly helpful your thorough Christian character, personal strength and pulpit solidity and power. That while we shall greatly miss your earnest counsel and guidance, we hope it may be of your good fortune to obtain a field of labor less arduous but more remunerative than this has been. That you will take with you our prayers that health may continue; that your voice for song and sermon may be sustained; that other Leagues may have the same strong hand of a devoted pastor that we have had; that years of strength may be yours to finish nobly the work you are in. In His name given, by committee appointed from Epworth League of First M. E. Church, Astoria, Oregon: W. L. Crawford, Susie E. Roberts, R. N. Wright. At The Monogram you can find fragrant Belmont, Wedding Bouquet, Flor de Madrid and all other choice and favorite brands of cigars. J. W. Thompson, organist at the M. E. church, gives lessons in music, piano and organ. Organs tuned and repaired. Address 589 Astor st., Astoria. Fred Olsen takes the lead in manufacturing boots and shoes. The messenger in this case is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Maidenhood, Womanhood, Wifehood, Motherhood, —all need the best of care, proper regard for hygiene and —the "Prescription." It's a tonic and nerve, a remedy prescribed by an eminent physician and specialist for all the peculiar ills and ailments of women. Some dispositions are sunny even in pain. But, it was not meant that women should suffer so. She need not, while there's a remedy that regulates and promotes all the proper functions, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep and restores health and vigor. In "complaints," weakness, and irregularities of womanhood, it's the only guaranteed remedy. If it fails to benefit or cure, you get your money back.
