STRONG AND BITTER WORDS

The Grand Army Veterans Take Sides with the Pensioners.

ILLEGAL GOVERNMENT ACTION

A Charge Is Made that Adams Was Elected Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. on a Snap Ballot.

Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Sept. 7.—At today's session of the Grand Army encampment, the committee on pensions presented a lengthy report regarding the disability act of June 1890, and its recent suspension. The report says: "This act was accepted by the surviving soldiers and by the people in general as a settlement of the question. Within a few months we hear with profound sorrow and regret that all this must be changed. To emphasize the viciousness of the situation and the accusation we learn that it is said as though by authority that it is expected that any of the pensioners so summarily suspended or dropped will be able to prove they are entitled to pensions of which they have been deprived, thus saying in no uncertain voice that the burden is not upon the party alleging fraud, but the government which they have represented shall brand them with infamy by the charge, then sentence them, and after the stigma has been effected it will then concede to them, whose barriers and support of character has thus been undermined, the pitiful privilege of moving for a new trial upon the ground of new evidence. We deny that the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of pensions have any such power. We insist that the adjudicating divisions of the pensions office acting under the supervision of the commissioner of pensions and the secretary of the interior are tribunals established by the authority of law for the settlement of pension claims. Their decisions are entitled to full faith and credit and cannot be legally impeached when a change of administration occurs, except for fraud. We insist when this change is made they must and should be limited in their opinions to the future work of the office and not the past. Be it further resolved that, as the commissioner of pensions by his recent withdrawal of his obnoxious rulings which have been so generally condemned, has virtually acknowledged the incorrectness of such rulings, that we deem it further his duty to at once restore to the rolls the thousands of pensioners now standing illegally suspended."

The report was unanimously adopted and the encampment was instructed by the commander-in-chief to carry the question of the legality of the suspension of pensions up to the supreme court of the United States. The committee on resolutions made many recommendations, several of which were adopted, including a resolution asking that veterans be given preference in public service, and a memorial asking the Grand Army to hold a service on Washington's birthday. The new national officers were then installed and each made a short address. The new commander in chief selected Dr. Geo. R. Graham, of Maryland, as surgeon general; J. F. Leach, of Massachusetts, as adjutant general. Louis Wagner, of Philadelphia, was continued as quartermaster general. The convention then adjourned sine die.

Among the members of the council of administration are: Oregon, S. R. Reeves; Washington and Alaska, A. H. A. Bigelow; Idaho, W. A. Dodge.

Regarding the reports sent out from this city last night that there was a shortage in the quartermaster general's office of the Grand Army of the Republic, General Weissert said this morning that they were untrue. John Taylor, of Philadelphia, who filled that office, resigned last July to give his attention to private business. There was considerable talk in G. A. R. circles about the selection of Commander-in-Chief Adams at yesterday's session. It is claimed that Governor McKinley was on his way to this city for the purpose of placing General Hurst, of Ohio, in nomination for that high office and that Adams' adherents heard of this and rushed through the election of Adams. Governor McKinley, Hurst's friends say, was taken to a "free show" at Armstrong Park while this was going on. It is the first time that the national officers have been chosen on the first day of the convention, and this, it is claimed, tends to show the plausibility of the snap election theory.

MURDER AND BANK ROBBERY

Cashier of a Bank and Two Bandits Died in Their Boots.

A HARDWARE MAN'S PROWESS

He Takes a Winchester and Shoots Two of the Robbers as They Were Flying Away.

Associated Press.

Delta, Col., Sept. 7.—The most daring robbery ever consummated in this part of Colorado, occurred here in broad daylight this morning, the object of attack being the Farmers and Merchants' Bank, and while the sum secured was small, the robbery resulted in the death of three people, the cashier of the bank and two of the highwaymen who made the attack. Four hundred dollars were recovered from the persons of the dead robbers. The escaping robber carried away $100. There is a suspicion that the men implicated in the robbery are the remnants of the famous Dalton gang. They are not known here and their identification has not yet been secured. Blachly the dead cashier, was an old resident of this place and leaves a wife and a large family of young children, the oldest being probably fifteen years of age.

At 1:30 today, three mounted men rode up to the door of the bank and entering quickly, rushed up to A. F. Blachly the cashier, presented their guns and demanded what money he had. The cashier refused to give it up. The robbers then made a grab through the window, securing $500, and opened fire. The cashier fell, being instantly killed. The robbers then fired at N. H. Wolbert the assistant cashier, but missed him. The shooting attracted the attention of the citizens and Ray Simpson a leading hardware merchant, and a dead shot, ran for his Winchester and started for the alley in the rear of the bank, where the robbers had tied their horses. The robbers had started out of town when Simpson got there, but he succeeded in killing two of them by shooting them through the head. The third shot killed one of the robbers' horses, and the man and the animal fell together to the ground. After killing two of the robbers, Simpson continued after the third one, taking several shots at him, but without effect. A posse started at once in pursuit. The robber is thought to have about a mile the start and is mounted on a fine horse, going in the direction of the mountains. If the outlaw is captured he will undoubtedly be lynched.

WOMEN MAKE A DECLARATION

Indianapolis, Sept. 7.—The convention of the Woman's Relief Corps elected and installed the following officers this afternoon: President, Mrs. Amanda J. Waters of Minnesota; senior vice president, Mrs. N. B. Anderson of Kansas; treasurer, Mrs. Gordon of Pennsylvania. The convention adopted resolutions denouncing Hoke Smith for dropping pensioners from the rolls and declared the administration was justified in putting every federal soldier who served the government in putting down the rebellion, on the pension roll, rather than to find some frivolous excuse for rejecting claims for pension.

ANOTHER FATAL CYCLONE

Raceland, La., Sept. 7.—A severe cyclone struck the pretty little town of Lockport on Bayou la Fourche, at about 9 a. m., today, and left a mass of ruins and desolation. Among the buildings destroyed was the convent of the Immaculate Conception. The killed are: Sister Putechario, Sister Lucie, Miss Mabel Gauthreaux, Oliver Revet, and Barbour, a servant of the convent. An unknown man had his ribs injured, one of whom is not expected to recover. Oliver Lapovise was killed near Raceland. The property loss of this city approximates $100,000.

DISTRESS IN YONKERS.

New York, Sept. 7.—A thousand people are starving in the city of Yonkers. Tonight in response to a call from Mayor Wells of this city, immediate steps were taken to relieve the general distress. At the present time more than 10,000 men and women are unemployed and without means of livelihood, most of them are haters and carpetmakers.

for the use of federal patronage to secure the destruction of all legislation that pointed to silver. I do not charge him with it," said Stewart, drawing himself to his full height and speaking with much warmth, "but if it is not true he should exclaim, 'Oh God! deliver me from my friends.'"

MAY ACT WITHOUT CONGRESS.

Washington, Sept. 7.—An extraordinary report is current here that Secretary Carlisle contemplates coining seigniorage without any authority from congress, under the general power which he claims is conferred upon him to coin gold and silver. The seigniorage in the treasury amount to about $35,000,000. The secretary needs money because the customs receipts are falling off and because importers in the expectation of reduced duties are making no importations.

A dispatch has been received from General Wheaton commanding the department of Texas, saying that the 4000 sheep seized by the Mexican authorities on an island of the Rio Grande, where the ownership was disputed, belong to Thomas Sallinas, an American citizen. The Mexican government will probably be called upon to pay damages.

ANOTHER ROW IN THE SOUTH.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 7.—The latest news from Rio Janeiro reports that a revolution has broken out under the leadership of Admiral Custodio de Melioli. The insurgents seized the war ship Aquidaban, and the cruisers Republica and Trajant, and four torpedo boats. It is reported that President Peixoto has proclaimed himself dictator.

HARD ON SOME OF THEM.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The sessions of the Pan-American Medical Congress were continued today. Ernest Hart, editor of the British Medical Journal, delivered an address on the ethics of the medical profession, in which he classed homeopaths as "quacks," as men not to be recognized as doctors, or to be consulted with.

A SUICIDE IN TACOMA.

Tacoma, Sept. 7.—Dennis O'Brien, a workman in the city sewer department, the father of a large family, committed suicide by drowning himself in the bay today. No cause is assigned for the suicide. He had work and received his wages regularly.

ANOTHER BAD WRECK.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The north bound accommodation train on the Ft. Wayne road and the south bound fast Louisville express on the Pan-Handle road collided near Colehour this morning. It is known that twelve were killed and as many more injured.

COULDN'T STAND THE DISGRACE.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 7.—Cashier M. J. Boffording, of the Bank of Minneapolis, shot himself dead this morning. It is supposed that this is the result of brooding over the action of Teller Scheig, who absconded on Saturday with $15,000.

HAMILTON FISH DEAD.

New York, Sept. 7.—Ex-Secretary of State Hamilton Fish died this morning at his country home in Garrison, N. Y. He was aged 85. The decease was entirely unexpected.

THE VIGILANT IS CHOSEN.

New York, Sept. 7.—As a result of today's race, the yacht Vigilant will defend the America's cup in the international race against the English yacht Valkyrie.

QUINCY HAS RESIGNED.
