"SCHOOL KEEPS" AGAIN.

Tomorrow morning the old, familiar sound of school bells will again be heard among us, and three times a day the vicinity of the city schoolhouse will be alive with racing feet and the bustle that attends recess and roll calls. The teachers are back home, very much refreshed by their holidays and ready to pitch in with renewed vigor, and take hold of the work of the coming term. We are glad to note that a spirit of harmony prevails among the principals and the school directorate, and that notwithstanding there have been many changes in rules and regulations affecting many of the schools to a considerable extent, everything has been completed to the perfect satisfaction of all concerned. This result is due a great deal to the tact displayed by the directors themselves. They are all well qualified for the position they fill, and seem to give every question that arises concerning the welfare of the public schools of this city, just as much care and thought as though it were a matter of private business. It is very pleasing to think that the Astoria educational system is in such good hands, and to know that we may expect nothing but harmony in the conduct of school affairs.

The children themselves will no doubt be glad to get into good hard work again, for even a holiday tires sometimes. Many mothers will beam tomorrow morning, and be glad to think that "school keeps" once more. A few of the older scholars have turned their backs forever on teachers and blackboards, and are beginning to mark out their course in life in various directions. Some familiar faces among the teachers themselves will be missed.

But gaps like these fill up, and still the bell rings every morning, and the young idea is taught how to shoot and spell, with a regularity and precision that no minor changes can affect. To both teachers and scholars we wish success, and a busy, profitable year.

In view of yesterday's work in the house of lords, the following from the speech of Mr. Chamberlain in the commons last week against the home rule bill sounds prophetic:

"You will have the Irish coming to parliament demanding more and more, and putting pressure on ministry after ministry, until at last some minister will be found weak enough or base enough to buy the Irish vote by granting final separation. (Hear! Hear!)"

The mischief that the government has done by introducing this policy is irreparable. It has made enormously more difficult the government of Ireland; it has postponed indefinitely the hope of the completion of a better settlement.

"The bill is now about to go to another place. We will probably never see it again. (Cheers.) But whether we see it or not, I am convinced that the British people will give the policy embodied in it a death-blow at the first opportunity."

With the throne and the birds and the majority of the people of England against the bill, there must presently be an appeal to the people, and the chances are that Mr. Gladstone will be beaten; but he is a wonderful old man, and may still have resources beyond our calculations.

An inquiry in Chinatown, San Francisco, shows that there is no material diminution in the number of Chinamen in consequence of the passage of the Geary act. The outgoing coolies upon the Chinese steamships, it is reported, are few in number, and their places are quickly taken by others who have been smuggled over the border from British Columbia. Where the Chinese have diminished in number is in the mining towns, but there is a suspicion that these Chinese miners have selected other occupations. The federal census of 1892, showed that there were 72,472 Chinese in California, a decrease of 2,660 in ten years. But in the course of the same ten years the Chinamen increased in numbers in Oregon, Washington, Utah, New Mexico, Colorado, Montana, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin.

Our lady readers will note with interest the item in our telegraphic columns this morning which brings the news that Mrs. Cleveland has presented her distinguished husband with another daughter. Baby Ruth now fetters into semi-oblivion and the nursery, while the little stranger takes possession of the cradle and the whole household. We only hope for the sake of common humanity that the big Eastern papers are not going to be flooded with illustrated and long drawn out descriptions of the color of the new comer's hair, eyes, and nose. It may be presumed that Cleveland will now overcome some of his prejudices against the silver cranks and agree to take the metal at Pa. (Copyright. All rights reserved.)

A side thought of ethereal origin leads us to say that a common thief who would appeal to charity on behalf of a helpless woman and her children and then deliberately rob them of what money he obtains in this way, is so palpably on the level of the lowest scoundrels that we must refrain from commenting on his habits.

It is for this reason that we refuse to publish the document sent us yesterday, signed by nine citizens, and detailing a disgraceful occurrence last week in a local place of amusement, when the criminal to whom we refer acted as the principal figure.

A great many people have not read this clause in the Wilson bill, which has passed the national house:

"This repeal shall not in any manner affect the legal tender quality of the standard silver dollars heretofore coined, and the faith and credit of the United States are hereby pledged to maintain the parity of the gold and silver coin of the United States at the present legal ratio or such other ratio as may be established by law."

Governor Waite wants blood up to the horses' bridles, while Governor Tillman, whose sensibilities are perhaps a little more delicate, prefers hanging. It is the capitalists that both of them are after. It is dreadful to think that the day may come when the governor of South Carolina will complain to the governor of Colorado that it is a long time between capitalists.

FROM THE GOVERNOR OF SOUTH DAKOTA.

Gentlemen:—Enclosed please find postal note for $1.00 for Krause's headache capsules.

Allow me to say that they are splendid; never failed to cure my headaches and save me a world of suffering. I am recommending them everywhere. The druggists of Aberdeen, Hecla and Britton, Marshall counties, all promised me to get them and keep them in stock. I give your address to every sufferer I meet. I am going to Colorado in June, and I shall do you good there among the miners, nearly all of whom suffer from headaches in that high altitude. Yours, etc., J. H. FLETCHER, Lieut. Gov. Santa Clara, South Dakota.

For sale by Chas. Rogers, Astoria, Oregon, Sole Agent.

MADE MISERABLE FOR LIFE.

This you may easily be if you fail to remedy the indigestion and non-assimilation of the food, which are the attendants and originators of nervousness, that ever present ailment which no narcotic, mineral sedative or nerve wine can ever do more than temporarily relieve. Of course these remedies have no effect upon the organs of digestion and assimilation, except to disorder and enfeeble them, thus aggravating the original difficulty. Among the most alarming and dangerous symptoms of chronic nervousness is insomnia, which is the professional term for inability to sleep. Where this exists there is always a tendency to mental overwork, nervousness and even insanity. Begin at the fountain head of all this difficulty with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and avert evil consequences. No sooner does the stomach resume its work, and the system gain in vigor through the aid of this benign tonic, than sleep returns and the nerves grow tranquil. Chills and fever, rheumatism, biliousness, and constipation yield to the bitters.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as Blind, Bleeding or Protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays inflammation and effects a permanent cure. See Druggist or mail. Circulars free. Dr. Bosanko, 229 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by J. W. Conn.

NOTICE!

Handley & Haas, 120 First street, Portland, have on sale the Daily Astorian, so that visitors need not miss their morning paper when they are here.

Attempt at Suicide.

It Might Have Been Prevented.

[From the Boston Post.]

While the walks in the Public Garden were crowded yesterday afternoon about 4.30 o'clock, people near the entrance gates at the corner of Beacon and Charles streets were horrified to see a man suddenly plunge a knife repeatedly into his throat and fall to the ground.

While waiting for a conveyance an officer questioned the would-be suicide, who was about 50 years of age, as to his name, address, and reason for wishing to end his life, but the man steadfastly refused to give any information regarding himself. He was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital and surgical attendance given him. Although weak from loss of blood it is probable he will recover. About 9 o'clock last night a hospital attendant got a little information from him. He said his name was Samuel D., and that he came some weeks ago from New Brunswick. The last few days his head has felt queer, and he has been wandering about the city, not knowing which way to turn. What impelled him to commit his rash act he was unable to say.

The above is the familiar but terrible story of the results of mental derangement caused by overstrain of the nervous system. People who have nervous headaches, or backache, or who are troubled with sleepless or dependent feelings, are already on the road which leads to insanity and suicide.

"Dr. Miles Medical Co. I cannot find language in which to express my appreciation of the great benefit I have derived from the use of your Restorative Nerve. When life became a burden I would use the Nerve to soothe my weakened nerves, and to calm my exhausted and irritable brain."

—Mrs. H. Brown, Rochester, N. Y.
Dr. Miles Restorative Nerve has no equal in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists and Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Kitchen Extension.

University Extension is good, but Kitchen Extension is better. Wider knowledge of better cooking processes means better health and comfort for everybody. Science can never do us better service than by the multiplication of the cooking schools which make healthful means and methods available for even the most modest home.

COTTOLENE

The vegetable substitute for lard, is science's latest gift to the kitchens of the world. Every woman who has ever cooked a meal, knows that lard is disagreeable in use and unhealthy in its effects.
