Last Friday morning Robert G. Cochran committed suicide at Brownsville by shooting himself in the head with a 8-calibre revolver. The deceased, who has had bad health for some time, was mentally depressed, and it is presumed ne contemplated suicide for a number of days past. A coroner's jury was summoned, who rendered a verdict of suicide. The deceased was well known and respected, and was a wealthy and influential farmer. It is supposed that his suicide was caused by mental depression. He was a son of William Cochran, of Brownsville, and leaves a wife and three children, one a son grown. He was 54 years of age. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the Baptist church in Brownsville.
