Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager. This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the lower Columbia that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is five times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to The Astorian are requested to notify this office without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour, by doing this they will enable the management to place the blame on the proper parties, and to ensure a speedy remedy.

Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of The Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

WILL SOON RESUME.

In another column will be found a statement prepared by Mr. I. W. Case, and a declaration of his intentions with regard to his depositors. It is an honest, clean-cut proposal, and one that we are sure will be gladly accepted as being the best way out of the difficulty. Since the suspension of this bank the Astorian has withheld any comment on the situation, trusting to the unsullied record of Mr. Case and his well-known sense of honor. We have been continually appealed to by dozens of business men to reply to the filthy slurs of the evening paper, but have consistently refused to do so, well knowing that Mr. Case was capable of working out his own salvation, and of replying in a more forcible manner than we could to the attacks of men who never had a nickel in his or any other bank.

Mr. Case will resume business the moment he obtains the signatures of 98 per cent of his depositors to the document now being circulated. He will, in addition to paying his creditors one hundred cents on the dollar, give them five per cent interest on their money—a higher rate than that offered by either the Commercial National or the Oregon National in Portland, after they suspended.

Only Astoria's business men will know what Mr. Case has done to conserve their personal interests by taking this action. We wish him success with his plan, and a quick resumption of payments and deposits.

HIS GOOD SENSE.

In our telegrams this morning will be found another evidence, if any were needed, of the clear-headed policy of Grover Cleveland. In the centennial foundation stone ceremonies at the capitol at Washington yesterday he said:

"If the representatives who assemble here to make laws for their fellow countrymen forget the duty of broad, disinterested patriotism, and legislate in prejudice or passion, or on behalf of sectional, selfish interests, the time when the corner stone of our capitol was laid, will not be worth commemorating."

And it is because a man who utters sentiments like these is broad-minded and honorable enough to practice what he preaches, and to save the country from ruin even though he antagonizes his own partisans in doing so, that the Portland Telegram, the San Francisco Examiner, and a few more sheets of like nature try to howl him down, and sneer at his sincerity. Well done, Cleveland.

Seriously, Moffatt ought to know better. He is getting very angry and very silly. After calling Cleveland "treacherous" he says:

"If the senators stand firm, as we are inclined to think they will, and hold the silver question in abeyance until it can be brought before the people in next fall's election, they will have performed a grand public duty, and will be entitled to the gratitude of the whole nation."

Hold on, Pfeffer, dear. Tie your whiskers on to a ring in the curbstone and keep yourself back. Easy, all. Stand, don't move, Hill. What matters it that sixty millions of people wait anxiously for you to do something else but splutter out your surplus nonsense? The great Pandemonium of the Portland Evening Telegram says you must go slow, and that settles it.

Where on earth is Moffatt going to pull up? If we didn't know that he had once been sensible, we would believe that he had ambitions for a Moody and Sankey political preaching tour, with Jerry Simpson and Pfeffer dear, as the other part of the combination.

The Toledo Blade says on the tomb of an old man in Willow Cemetery, high that city, should be inscribed:

ALEXANDER CAVASHERE

Killed by

HOKE SMITH.

September 3, 1893.

The old man was of Company H, Second Ohio Heavy Artillery, and was 82 years of age, and had a wife. His sole dependence was his pension, and that was cut off. He is said to have been worried to death by the loss. He could not work any more. The Blade remarks:

"Before he could get his pension again, he must take weeks, perhaps months, or even years, to go over and collect all the evidence possible from scattered comrades, and prove his innocence, the High Court of the Confederacy having pronounced him guilty, and that was cut off. He is said to have been worried to death by the loss. He could not work any more. The Blade remarks:

"Before he could get his pension again, he must take weeks, perhaps months, or even years, to go over and collect all the evidence possible from scattered comrades, and prove his innocence, the High Court of the Confederacy having pronounced him guilty, and that was cut off. He is said to have been worried to death by the loss. He could not work any more. The Blade remarks:

The rains are beginning again, and there is a dreary prospect for winter ahead of us. Letter carriers in this city are an obliging and courteous lot of men and tramping long distances over the sloppy up-town roads back to town after delivering letters is not a pleasant job at best. Why doesn't the tram-car company offer the letter carriers free transportation over its lines? Such an act would be worthy of the directorate, and would please many more people than those immediately benefited. This graceful bit of consideration is accorded in Portland, San Francisco, and almost every western town that boasts an electric road. We hope the officers of the A. S. R. Co. will think the matter over.

The New York World should have a care in its way of appealing to people or it will get into trouble. For instance, it tells congress "the repeal of the silver-purchasing clause of the Sherman law is the only business for which congress was called together."

This is a narrow and untenable view of the extra session of congress—the object was to relieve the country by the application to the situation of the Chicago platform. All good democrats should know that.

An Ohio widow has just married a Turk in the Midway Palace of the World's Fair. Mrs. Audie, for that was her name, knew what she was about. She wanted a Turk and got him. Many a woman gets one without knowing it until afterwards.

The mercury lingers about the fifties. Ye that have thicker flannels, prepare to wear them now.

Pfeffer is what you might call a financial spiritualist.

SET HIM RIGHT.

Geo. Augustus Sala, the well known English writer, on his last Astorian trip, wrote as follows to the London Daily Telegraph:

"I especially have a pleasant remembrance of the ship's doctor—a very experienced maritime medicine indeed, who tended me most kindly during a horrible spell of bronchitis and spasmodic asthma, provoked by sea fog which had swooped down on us just after we left San Francisco. But the doctor's prescriptions and the increasing warmth of the temperature as we neared the tropics, and in particular, a couple of Alcock's Porous Plasters clapped on—one on the chest and another between the shoulder blades—soon set me right."

A SAFFRON COLORED INDEX.

Of the condition of a bilious stomach and sluggish liver is the human countenance. Not only the skin, but the eyeballs, are tinged with the yellow hue when the bile gets into the blood. Besides this, sick headache ensues, the tongue becomes furred, pains are felt in the liver and through the right shoulder blade, and dizziness is experienced upon rising from a sitting or recumbent posture by the bilious individual. For these and other indications of biliousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the sovereign remedy. It is also efficacious in chills and fever, dumb ague, acute catarrh, inactivity of the kidneys, and bladder, rheumatism and nervousness. It stimulates, restores digestion, and sleep, and tends greatly to mitigate the infirmities of age.

TOO OFTEN THE CASE. INTERESTING PROOFS.

A young society lady, after a round of gaiety, becomes suddenly conscious of an unusual sensation. She has frequent attacks of dizziness, her back aches, and she feels blue and generally run down.

Mothers, look well to your daughters! Daughters, look well to yourselves!

Let the first symptom denoting the approach of disease receive your instant attention. Healthy women are the hope of the race, and it is well-nigh criminal to neglect anything which promises relief.

There is hope for all sufferers from Nervous Diseases. Read what follows:

Mrs. Jennie C. Davis, a fine artist and an accomplished authoress, of Westfield, Wis., had been subject to headache ever since she could remember. So severe were her attacks as to cause at times temporary delirium. All treatment had failed to relieve her, but after using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine she writes: "My record is to me, at least, satisfactory. No headache, constantly increasing appetite, and a consequent gain in weight of two and a half pounds in just one week."

Six weeks later she writes: "Have read and sewed immoderately of late, but my headaches do not return."

Mrs. John R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., was attacked three years ago with turn of life in its worst form. It finally went to her head, and all indications were that it would result either in insanity or softening of the brain. Her husband thus writes: "It would be impossible for me to attempt a description of her suffering during all this time. She was treated by our very best local physicians, with but temporary benefit. She has taken four bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and is cured. She has gained twenty pounds in weight. I tell you, she often blesses you for what you have done for her."

Recollect that for the cure of all Nervous Diseases there is no remedy which approaches Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It is free from dangerous drugs and opiates. Sold by all druggists, on a positive guarantee, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
