END OF A BITTER FIGHT

Reed and the Speaker Savagely Attack One Another.

THE REPUBLICANS FOUGHT HARD

But the Opposition Forces Were Too Strong and by a Gag Ruling Shut Off Any Hopes of Delay.

Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Morgan of Alabama, presented a petition from the citizens of his state in the senate today, in favor of repeal of the Sherman act. He said it was one of the petitions sent out by the New York bankers and he considered it was a mandate from them, and not from the people of Alabama. Voorhees moved that the repeal bill be immediately taken up. After a sharp passage between him and Platt of New York, who wished to make a motion for the amendment of the rules, providing for cloture, the latter yielded to George of Mississippi, who addressed the senate in opposition to the bill.

In the house the democratic majority acted as a unit against intending filibustering which has blocked legislation for weeks. When the house met, the democratic benches were crowded. The committee on rules had held a meeting at which, over the protest of the republican members, the committee was instructed to report a set of rules that would disarm the filibusters. As soon as the journal was read, Burroughs moved to suspend the action of the committee on rules, presented a report, providing that no other business would be in order until the reports of the committees had been received. Burroughs made a point of order. The report was not in order as it had originated with the committee. After a sharp tilt with Burroughs and Reed on one side, and the speaker on the other, the speaker overruled the point of order, holding that a committee on rules could originate an order of business, just as a committee on appropriations could originate appropriations. (Democratic applause.) The speaker instructed the clerk to read the report of the committee. Reed made a vehement fight against the action of the speaker, and declared that the clerk had no right to read the report, declaring amid democratic cheers, that the action of the speaker was the most surprising in legislative history. The fight continued all the afternoon. At 4:30 it was apparent that the end of the fight would be that the federal election bill would be reported, despite the desperate dilatory tactics of the opposition.

After some further strictures on the chair, Reed said:

"If Herod is to be out-Heroded, Herod intends to witness the transaction."

The question then recurred on ordering the previous question on the report from the committee on rules. Then motions came thick and fast. All were brushed aside by the speaker who held no motion in order except the one motion to adjourn. The democratic side broke into wild cheering when the announcement was made and a wave of applause swept over the galleries. Although realizing they were baffled, the republicans persisted in their stubborn fight. Burrows moved to lay the report of the committee on the table. The speaker ruled the motion out of order and declined to entertain any appeal. Some confusion followed. A dozen members were on their feet and the speaker ordered all to take their seats. Every member instantly seated himself except ex-Speaker Reed who was pale with rage. For a moment he stood eyeing the speaker, and then sank into his seat. There was more democratic applause and the roll call began on the ordering of the previous question. The previous question was ordered by 180 to 3. Under the rule, thirty minutes were then allowed for debate and an exciting time followed. Ex-Speaker Reed first took the floor.

"We have occupied a peculiar coign of vantage in this contest," he said. "You on the other side were between two fires. We stood to win either way. You had to resort to everything you denounced or be beaten, and, with characteristic determination, you chose humiliation. You settled yourself deliberately in the traces against which you stormed and howled. In doing so you not only violated the precedents of 188 years, but all principles of parliamentary law with which you ever come in contact. You refused the system of rules which we offered you, under which you could have done business, and, instead, you chose to accomplish the same ends by special acts of violence. The object of this action, however has been unworthy of the methods employed to accomplish it, for it has been the destruction of the power of the federal government in federal elections, in order that corruption and fraud might have free rein." (Loud applause on the republican side.)

After remarks by several others the vote then recurred on the adoption of the report of the committee on rules and it was carried by 176 to 81. Prolonged applause followed the announcement of the vote. The fight was over. Silently the republicans watched the committee make reports to the house, including the report on the Tucker bill. A resolution was presented asking the committee on rules to make a special order for the consideration of the bill. Then with a sigh of relief the house adjourned.

PIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Several Towns in South Dakota Ravaged and Great Damage Done.

Omaha, Sept. 20.—A special from Deadwood, S. D., to the Bee, says: "At 6:30 the forest fire had burned to Lead City. The Homestake saw mills and lumber yards were the first to go. Help was called from all the other towns, and 1500 men battled with the flames. At 9:30 the wind changed and there appeared to be hopes of saving the city. The fire on the east has reached the foot hills five miles from here and is threatening the ranch property of Henry Stearns and also that of Chas. Trevers. Stearns' family drove two miles through flames to this city. The condition of old Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. Henry Stearns, two boys, a baby, and Frank Stearns is serious, as the flesh of all was burned to a crisp. They will probably die. The fire is gaining headway on the top of Black Tail divide and is threatening the central city and the county poorhouse. The inhabitants of Terry left the town to the flames. Everything will be a total loss and the damage will amount to $6000. The Buxton mill and dwelling house valued at $12,000, are destroyed. The damage on Centennial prairie is as follows: Henry Frawley, Centennial Hotel, $12,000; Chas. Treper, Cliff House, $8000; Chas. Pfunde, $6000; Henry Stearns, $6000; Charles Thompson, $5000. Deadwood is not seriously threatened although two hundred men are patrolling the hills and putting out incipient fires. The Uncle Sam sixty-stamp mill and the town of Perry have been destroyed. Communication is shut off and the full extent of the damage cannot be learned. A fire is burning at the fair grounds and the stables, root track and other buildings will probably be destroyed. A special train left here at 10 o'clock for Fort Meade to bring up three companies of soldiers to aid the citizens in controlling the flames. A report has reached Lead that Runkel, a little town twenty-five miles from here, is destroyed by fire. One hundred and fifty homeless people from the burned section are now at Piedmont on Centennial prairie.

RIO JANEIRO UNDER FIRE

The Rebel Ships Preparing to Bombard the Whole City.

RESIDENTS FLY TO THE HILLS

Foreign Officials Are Attempting in Vain to Prevent a Scene of Carnage and Desolation.

Associated Press.

London, Sept. 20.—Admiral Demellera has sent an ultimatum to the authorities at Rio Janeiro, announcing his intention of immediately and thoroughly bombarding the city with all his ships unless it promptly surrendered. The dispatch adds that in Rio the utmost consternation and dismay prevail. The citizens are fleeing the country. Merchants are packing goods in cellars preparatory to following them. The consular representatives of the various powers are using their utmost efforts to dissuade the rebel commander from carrying out his threat, but so far without avail. Heavy pressure is being brought to bear on the local authorities to induce them to surrender, as it is considered folly to resist in the meantime, three rebel vessels have reached Santos, and after a sharp fight have succeeded in landing a strong force of marines who are endeavoring to take the city.

The Brazilian minister received telegrams last night which made no mention of the success of the rebels, hence he is of the opinion that the government officers at Rio have not been interfered with and that President Peixoto has not left Rio Janeiro. The minister does not believe the news in regard to the ultimatum said to have been delivered by Admiral Demello. He received a telegram today that the Bank of Brazil and other banks at Rio were open and transacting business.

RIOTING IN ROANOKE.

The Militia Shot Down Men Who Attempt to Lynch a Negro.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 20.—One of the most dastardly outrages in the history of this city occurred at about 10 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Henry Bishop was enticed by a negro named Thomas Smith into an empty saloon basement beaten into insensibility, and robbed of her pocketbook containing less than $2. The fiend was captured and lodged in jail. A crowd gathered around the jail and kept increasing as the night approached. At 5 o'clock the Roanoke Light Infantry marched to the jail by orders of Mayor Trout. Guards were posted and the streets in the immediate vicinity cleared. At about dark the crowd was increased by one hundred men from the vicinity of the woman's home, headed by Mrs. Bishop's son. At 8 o'clock a portion of the mob battered at the side door of the jail where the militia and Mayor Trout resided. The shooting was commenced by the mob, and the mayor was shot in the foot. The militia were then ordered to return the fire, and a volley from about twenty-five rifles was poured into the mob. It is thought about five men were killed by the fire and as many more wounded, some fatally. During the excitement caused by the volley the negro was taken from the jail by officers and secreted. The dead and wounded were removed to a drug store and to the offices of near by physicians. The militia then dispersed and left the scene as quietly as possible.
