The Astoria Federated Trades have again forwarded a petition to congress relative to the immediate enforcement of the Geary law. This is the second petition sent to the capital by that body.

Rev. Dr. Bushong's theme in the Methodist church this morning will be on the sentence "The Journey is too Great." In the evening as previously announced, he will take for his discourse "But."

The millinery displays for the fall season as shown by Mrs McKenzie and Miss McRae, prove not only that winter is coming, but that Astoria is metropolitan enough to possess establishments that keep its lady residents in full touch with the latest European and New York fashions.

An $80 lot for $2.

The Belmont cigar can be had at Chns. Olsen's.

Big discount on all goods at the gents' outfitting store of P. A. Stokes.

The steamer llwaco brought over news last night that at 1:30 yesterday afternoon there had been a small fire in Seaborg's cannery destroying a chimney and a portion of the roofing of one of the buildings, but doing no material damage. It was caused by some sparks from the boller furnace.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. Only the purest wines and liquors are sold at Alex. Campbell's Gem.

For fine wines and liquors call at August Danielson's Sample Rooms.

On Friday the halyard of the flagstaff of the Court street school came out of place and yesterday a sailor from one of the ships was engaged by the school directors to mount the pole and reef it again. He did the job in a very neat manner, and coolly surveyed a large number of people who
