THE PRESIDENT DEFENDED

Voorhees and Palmer make Stewart Look Very Foolish,

WONT BACK UP HIS CHARGES

Republicans do not deem it Necessary to Say a single word in the Defense of Grover Cleveland

Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 26.—When the senate met this morning the repeal men were caught napping by Stewart, who observed that there was no quorum, and questioned the propriety of proceeding. A stay of proceedings was necessary until the members strolled in one by one to a sufficient number to constitute a quorum. Dubois, of Idaho, created a sensation by offering the following, which went over till tomorrow:

"Whereas, several sovereign states are without full representation in the senate, to which they are entitled, be it resolved, that the consideration of legislation relating to the federal election laws, tariff and financial matters, materially affecting the partially unrepresented states be postponed in the senate until Monday, January 15th, 1894, to enable the states of Washington, Montana and Wyoming to have the influence and protection in the senate guaranteed to each sovereign state by the constitution of the United States.

The resolution was laid on the table. Yes, 27, nays 19. The repeal bill was then taken up.

Perkins addressed the senate in opposition to repeal, after which Stewart took the floor. He read from a paper articles on the president's alleged rebuke to the senate. Palmer, democrat of Illinois, asked whether it was consistent with the proper relations between the senate and the president to read in the senate grave charges against the executive for which he (Stewart) would not be responsible. Stewart said it was consistent for him as a senator to defend the senate when the press said the president was rebuking the senate and calling senators criminals. "Let his friends deny he has used patronage to control legislation," said Stewart. "Let them make it clear how the sentiment of congress has been changed, and how an overwhelming majority in favor of free coinage has been changed to a gold monometallic majority."

Palmer wanted Stewart to indicate a single instance in which the president had employed patronage to control a senator or member of the house.

"Why, my dear sir," said Senator Stewart, in a patronizing way, "these charges have been made in the public press. They have been brought home here, and before I indicate any one, will you deny that patronage has been given to those who will support the administration measures?"

"I will tell you so."

"Will the senator name a single senator whom he knows or believes to have been influenced by the patronage of the president?" asked Palmer.

"Does the senator want me to make a personal matter of this, and dwell on this down in this way?" asked Stewart, and then, as if disgusted, he said, "Oh, shaw." He then asked Palmer if he would vote for a resolution authorizing an investigation into the question. Palmer said he would, when Stewart would make charges against any senator or member of the house.

"I do not want to confine it to one senator or member," said Stewart, amid laughter. "Investigate them if you dare."

"I will," replied Palmer, "whenever the senator brings forward charges against any individual in the senate, I will vote for an investigation."

"When I make a criminal charge against any particular individual," said Stewart, "the senator from Illinois will allow it to be investigated, but he will not protect the honor of his executive in denying these wholesale charges; he wants me to make a criminal charge against a senator." Stewart then read a long article from the San Francisco Examiner commenting upon the course of the president. Stewart closed his speech with a passionate indictment of England as a monster that stalked through this country breaking down the interests of states and territories; that claimed the direct legislation of congress; and whose voice had been heard during last week on the east front of the capitol rebuking senators.

Morgan rose to a personal explanation referring to the article in the New York Times today that no honorable democrat could listen to that part of Senator Stewart's speech criticizing the president and continue to act with him in the obstruction to repeal unless he was an enemy of the president. Morgan said he was very happy to state that between the president and himself there existed the most cordial personal relations. He thought he differed with him in no question vital to the country or to the democratic party.

Mr. Voorhees then arose and said: "I am very glad to hear the remarks of the senator from Alabama in regard to the assaults that have been made upon the president of the United States for the last two days. I desire simply to account for the total silence on this side of the chamber by stating that it has not been thought necessary to say a single word in defense of Grover Cleveland. I have reason to believe that on the other side of the chamber, and all over the country his defense has been fully made by the American people themselves. We will not feel called upon to enter into any defense of the president of the United States unless something far more important may be charged against him than has been up to the present time."

After a short executive session the senate adjourned.

GIGANTIC LUMBER TRUST.

Clinton, Iowa, Sept. 26.—Articles of incorporation have been filed here for the Mississippi Lumber Co., with a capital stock of $1,500,000. Chauncey Lamb, Artemus Lamb, Lafayette Lamb, W. J. Young, W. J. Young Jr., and Courtland Young, all of this city, are the incorporators. The names include the most prominent loggers and lumbermen in the Mississippi valley, and it is generally believed that it means the formation of the most gigantic trust ever known in the lumbering business.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

New York, Sept. 26.—An extensive counterfeiting plant was raided at Livingston last night and Angelo Delnoco and his alleged wife were arrested. The police secured over a million dollars in counterfeit bills. There were four in the gang altogether, two men and two women. Delnoco had arranged with a man named Ferris to make counterfeit bills of Argentine currency and a woman to dispose of it for good American specie and bills. Ferris weakened and gave information to the police.

A STUBBORN TRAVELER.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 26.—An American named T. R. Polley, late of Seattle, has been imprisoned by the United States consul at Yokohama. The accused was called before the court to show why he did not satisfy a judgment for Chinese tailors' debts of $27. He refused to answer the questions and so was committed for contempt. When brought up again he still refused and went on until he was committed ten times. He was then fined $50 and imprisoned until the fine was paid.

RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 26.—The testimony before the jury investigating the Burlington train robbery on Sunday night shows that the robbers were shot down in cold blood and that the police made no attempt to capture them. The post mortem examination of the bodies of Kohler and Hogglithe showed that they were literally riddled with bullets.

A TRICK FOR THE DEFENCE.

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—The sensational Gilmour murder case took a new turn today when the marriage contract between Dr. O. F. West and Annie Staley, who the police say was West's accomplice in the murder of Miss Gilmour, was recorded. The marriage, it is evident, was contracted so that Annie Staley could not be compelled to testify.

DEPENDS ON THE SENATE.

London, Sept. 26.—The Times, in a financial article, says: "Several American Sterling loans will shortly mature, and although European lenders would ordinarily be glad to renew them, it is feared that if the United States senate persists in its present course, several of these loans will have to be paid by shipments of gold to this side."

NO HOPES FOR HER SAFETY.

New York, Sept. 26.—The agents of the Atlas steamship company have received a cablegram from Kingston, Jamaica, which says that the steamer Jason picked up at sea a life boat marked "Alvo." No other particulars are given, but it is considered a proof that the unfortunate vessel is lost.

ALL TO BE JAILED.

Indianapolis, Sept. 26.—Governor Matthews today issued a requisition on the governor of New York for the arrest of Folly Smith, Johnnie Griffin, Joe Chonyski, and Dan Creedon, who are wanted at Crown Point for having participated in prize fights at Roby.

FOR ADMISSION OF NEW MEXICO.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Senator Faulkner today introduced a bill providing for the admission of the territory of New Mexico as a state.

TO GO ARMED.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Owing to repeated robberies the railroad companies have decided to arm their men on all trains hauling mail or express.

TOPSY TURVY IN BRAZIL

Conflicting Reports Leave Doubt as to the Situation.

REBELS CLAIM TO BE VICTORIOUS

But other Messages Indicate that the Constitutional Government is Holding Its Own.

Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 26.—A Buenos Ayres dispatch to the World says: "The bombardment of Rio de Janeiro which began on Saturday was suspended soon after the bombardment began. The foreign warships in harbor hoisted signals signifying their desire that the firing should cease. The signals were recognized by Admiral Mello and the latest news is that the firing upon the city has been suspended pending negotiations."

The Herald's Montevideo dispatch says: "News comes from Rio Janeiro that Fort Santa Cruz is still holding out against the attack of the rebel fleet under Admiral Mello. The report that Desterro on Santa Catarina Island has been captured by the rebels is confirmed."

Another Buenos Ayres dispatch says: "Ge. Pelligrini, at the head of the government troops has captured the city of Tucuman. Pelligrini and his staff and 1500 infantry marched to the building where the Junta was sitting. All the members were taken prisoners and locked up."

Washington, Sept. 26.—The cruiser Charleston, left Montevideo, Uruguay for Rio de Janeiro on September 25. It is probable she is now at Rio.

Santos, Sept. 26.—Ex-President Pelligrini, who was recently captured by the insurgents and came near being shot, has again fallen into their hands. It is said he will be tried and executed.

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 26.—The announcement that ex-President Pelligrini had been again captured by the rebels and imprisoned at Tucuman by the orders of the revolutionary general, and that he was in danger of being tried by court martial and shot, caused an almost unprecedented sensation here. The capture of Pelligrini may be said to have brought the revolution almost to a close, for he was the chief supporter of President Pena, who, it is claimed, is little more than a puppet in his hands.

London, Sept. 26.—A cablegram from Rio dated 10 o'clock this morning says: "The rebel squadron resumed the bombardment of the capitol of Brazil this morning. The forts replied to the fire, the ships ceased firing and retired out of range. The damage to Rio de Janeiro is said to be heavy. The warships are also reported to have suffered from the fire of the forts, but full particulars are not obtainable."

Buenos Ayres, Sept. 26.—An exciting skirmish took place today in the outer roads of this harbor between some torpedo boats which have joined the revolutionists and vessels of the Argentine fleet. The loyal men of war captured the rebel boats and crews. The fighting between the two fleets was very sharp for a time, and many men were killed including several officers. The national guards, who have been mobilized, were trooping today in large numbers to the various barracks. General Roca is directing operations against the rebels. Colonel Espina, who instigated the attack, has been arrested. He will probably be shot.

THE CHINESE EVICTIONS.

An Important Finding in California Yesterday by Judge Ross.

La Grande, Or., Sept. 26.—A delegation of anti-Chinese agitators visited Cove last night and secured about fourteen Chinamen who were picking hops in the yard of Mr. H. J. Geer. The other Chinamen living in that section had been apprised of the intention to raid, and succeeded in evading the mob. The Chinamen were loaded into wagons and carried to the mountains west of La Grande where they were liberated and told to leave the county. In this city since Sunday night no open demonstration has been indulged in.

At a citizens' meeting last evening fifty men volunteered to assist the sheriff in preserving order and patrolled the streets all night. Prosecuting Attorney Hyde arrived this morning and issued warrants for fifty-five of the leading rioters. The sheriff with his deputies is now making arrests. No further trouble is anticipated. The store of Kwong On Ti, in China town, was burned this morning. The loss is $1000.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 26.—Judge Ross this afternoon ordered the deportation of five Chinamen. Four of them were highlanders. Judge Ross held that the Chinamen who held an interest in a mercantile firm were not merchants within the meaning of the law. They must be actively engaged in business. United States District Attorney Denis received a dispatch from Attorney General Olney this afternoon in which it was stated that the money would be forthcoming for Marshal Gard to carry out the orders of the court in the Chinese cases.

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

Washington, Sept. 26.—The senate in executive session today made public the following confirmations:

E. H. JONES, of Illinois, first assistant postmaster general.
KERR CRAGE, of North Carolina, third assistant postmaster general.
R. C. RUSSELL, of Oregon, Williamette, district appraiser of merchandise.

SUED FOR DAMAGES.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—The president of the World's Fair congress auxiliary, Hon. C. C. Bonny, was sued for $5,000 today for ordering the expulsion of a free thinker, E. C. Betts, from the parliament of religion.

YELLOW FEVER IN GEORGIA.

Brunswick, Ga., Sept. 26.—There was one death from yellow fever here today and six patients were discharged. There are now under treatment forty-seven cases, the smallest number since the epidemic was declared.

ANOTHER RAILROAD WRECK.

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 26.—Meagre reports were received here tonight of a wreck on the Missouri Pacific and Texas railway near Hillsboro. Nine men are reported killed.

BURNED TO THE GROUND.

Spokane, Sept. 26.—The American Resort, a three story brick, occupied by a variety theatre, was burned this morning. The loss is $15,000, and the place was fully insured.
