GLADSTONE'S GREAT SPEECH

He Tells the Edinburgh People His Opinion of the Lords.

HOME RULE BILL FOR SCOTLAND

The Grand old Man Elies to some Superb Flights of Oratory and makes his Hearers Enthusiastic.

Associated Press.

Edinburgh, September 27.—Mr. Gladstone met with a rousing reception at Albert Hall this afternoon. He began his speech by expressing the hope for Scotch legislation before the end of the year. "The Irish question," continued Gladstone, "has barred progress in that direction and it is only just to say that the lords are responsible for the fact that this barrier is still remaining."

Gladstone expressed the hope that a home rule bill of some description Scotland might become law within the near future. (Cheers.) "Home rule for Ireland," said Gladstone, his form seeming to grow taller and more powerful, as he touched upon his favorite subject, "might by some be regarded as a failure; but," cried the veteran statesman, raising his hand aloft, his eyes flashing with fire and intense feeling, "depend upon it, home rule is not a failure." The statesman then traced the course of the house of lords in defeating good measures since the time of the reform bill, after which he remarked that it was grossly unconstitutional and monstrous innovation to suggest that the peers could force a dissolution of parliament. "To allow such a prerogative," said Gladstone, indignantly, "would be high treason to a nation with a title of being a self-governing country." (Loud cheering.) Gladstone spoke for an hour and a half. At the conclusion of his remarks he said:

"If the house of lords ever means forcing a dissolution of parliament, it might depend upon it that the Irish question would not be the only question considered, but its own independent irresponsible existence would be taken into consideration." Gladstone added that the nation had given the liberals the authority and that with the help of the Almighty they would find a means to reach their goal. (Tremendous applause.)

MAYBE FOUR NEW STATES.

Washington, Sept. 27.—It is highly probable that the committee on territories will report the bill for the admission of Utah to statehood within a few days. Joseph, a member of that committee, said that such a bill would be reported, and added that before the close of the present session bills for the admission of Arizona, New Mexico, and Oklahoma would be reported favorably from his committee. He expressed great confidence that all four bills would become laws.

ANOTHER OF HILL'S DEALS.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 27.—News has been received here of the sale in New York of the controlling interest in the Sioux City and Northern and Sioux City, one of the Illinois and Western roads, which means that J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern, has bought all the properties of the collapsed railroads, formed a syndicate, and having completed his line to the Pacific coast, is ready to extend it to the southwest.

WEST IS ON TRIAL.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—The preliminary examination of Dr. Eugene F. West, charged with causing the death of Addie Gilmour, commenced in the police court today. The dead woman's father was the first witness. West's confession to the father was not admitted in evidence.

WILL NOT BE CONFIRMED.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The general impression here is that Van Allen cannot be confirmed. Several members of the senate committee on foreign relations have intimated as much. It would even appear that there was a strong probability of the nomination being pigeon-holed in committee. Senator Dolph, of Oregon, is a member of the committee, and a very warm personal friend of Senator Hill. Great surprise is expressed on all hands that the president should have sent VanAllen's name to the senate, being fully informed as to the $50,000 contribution made by Van Allen to the democratic campaign fund.

HARRISON AT THE FAIR.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—Indiana's day at the fair was nearly marred by a serious accident. Gen. Harrison's presence at the state building drew an enormous crowd to hear his remarks, and suddenly there was a scream from the center of the crowd which almost caused a panic. Women screamed and men pushed. The ex-president ceased speaking and urged the crowd to remain quiet. The fainting women were assisted by Mr. Harrison to the platform and there revived. Two other women were carried out in a fainting condition before the crowd became quiet. The ex-president devoted most of his speech to Indiana, eulogizing her eloquently. He took occasion to denounce in a most emphatic manner the lynching of men in several of the states.

LOOKING MORE SERIOUS.

London, Sept. 27.—A private message received here by an important bank from Rio Janeiro says that the bombardment of that city is so serious that the banks of Rio after consulting together have decided that they will probably close altogether until the fate of the capital of Brazil is settled one way or the other. The bombardment yesterday is said to have ceased only when the foreign war vessels threatened to turn their guns on the rebels if the city was not spared. Negotiations are resumed between the government and the rebels at intervals with apparently no better chance of a peaceful termination of the struggle than there was some weeks ago.

TERROR AMONG THE BROKERS

Chicago, Sept. 27.—A fusillade of bullets was fired into the wheat pit on the board of trade at about noon today. The traders scattered in a hurry, and business came to a standstill. The wildest excitement ensued. A. N. Bennett, a broker, received a frightful wound in the neck. Chas. Roswell, a telegraph operator, was shot in the leg. A woman in the spectators' gallery is also said to be wounded. The gallery. He was quickly overpowered. He is supposed to be insane. Both wounded men will die.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE FIRE.

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—A special to the Republic from Guthrie, Oklahoma, says: "A disastrous prairie fire occurred in the western part of the Cherokee strip yesterday and scores of settlers narrowly escaped with their lives. Mrs. J. S. Kennedy and two children were badly burned and John Baker and Mr. Thomas and family were burned to death. Two children of Mrs. George Harrison are missing. Mrs. Thompson and two children are fatally burned."

TRACED HOME TO HIM.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—Axel Sorensen, the man whose name was on the valise containing dynamite which was left at a lodging house last Saturday night, is now generally believed to be the fiend who fired the fatal bomb last night. It is stated that Sorensen was always talking of dynamite and anarchism in the forecastle. He is a member of the Sailors' Union.

HEAVY DAMAGES AWARDED.

Portland, Or., Sept. 27.—Florence Eathe today obtained judgment for $25,000 against Thomas Welch for breach of promise. Both parties to the suit are residents of East Portland. Welch made no defense. Under promise of marriage Welch seduced the plaintiff eight years ago.

ALL FINED $1,000.

Portland, Or., Sept. 27.—Seven persons including the principals in the recent Evans-Mahan prize fight pleaded guilty to the charge of prize fighting today. All were sentenced to a fine of $1,000 each. The cases will be carried to the supreme court.

PART OF THE BODY FOUND.

San Francisco, Sept. 27.—Part of the remains of Addie Gilmour, the girl who is supposed to have been murdered and cut up by Dr. West, were found in an oil can floating in the bay near the Berkeley shore today.

THE HOP MARKET.

New York, Sept. 27.—Hops are quiet and operators are uncertain what course the market is likely to take. Sales are mainly for current consumption. The best Pacifics are quoted at 2 1/2 @ 2 1/4.

RUSSELL CHOSEN AGAIN.

Boston, Sept. 27.—John E. Russell was nominated for governor by the democratic convention today.

GROVER WRITES A LETTER

He Defines himself on the Silver Question very Clearly.

ASTONISHED AT THE SENATE

You can not Cure a Fright by Calling it Foolish and Unreasonable. I want Good, Stable Money.

Associated Press.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 27.—In reply to a letter from Governor Northen asking the president for his position on financial matters, Mr. Cleveland has sent the following:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., Sept. 25th.

My Dear Sir:

"I hardly know how to reply to your letter of the 15th inst. It seems to me that I am plainly on record concerning the financial question. My letter accepting the nomination to the presidency when read in connection with the message lately sent to congress in extraordinary session seems to me to be very explicit. I want a currency that is stable and safe in the hands of our people. I will not knowingly be implicated in a condition that will justly make me in the least degree answerable to any laborer or farmer in the United States for another shrinkage in the purchasing power of the dollar he has received for a full dollar's worth of the product of his toil. I not only want our currency to be of such a character that all kinds of dollars will be of equal purchasing power at home, but I want it to be of such a character as will demonstrate abroad our wisdom and good faith, thus placing us upon a firm foundation among the nations of the earth. I want our financial conditions and the laws relating to our currency so safe and reassuring that those who have money will spend and invest it in business and new enterprises instead of hoarding it. You cannot cure a fright by calling it foolish and unreasonable, and you cannot prevent a frightened man from hoarding his money. I want good, sound, and stable money and a condition of confidence that will keep it in use.

"I have written that I am a friend of silver, but I believe its proper place in our currency can only be fixed by a readjustment of our currency legislation and the inauguration of a consistent and comprehensive financial scheme. I think such a thing can only be entered profitably and hopefully after the repeal of the law which is charged with all our financial woes. In the present state of the public mind this law cannot be built upon nor patched in such a way as to relieve the situation. I am therefore opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver by this country alone and independently, and I am in favor of immediate and unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the so-called Sherman law. I confess I am astonished by the opposition in the senate to such prompt action as would relieve the present unfortunate situation. My daily prayer is that the delay occasioned by such opposition may not be the cause of plunging the country into deeper depression than it has yet known, and that the democratic party may not be justly held responsible for such a catastrophe. Yours very truly

GROVER CLEVELAND.

AFFAIRS IN THE SENATE.

Some More Hot Words and Angry Passages at Arms.

Washington, Sept. 27.—In the senate the resolution offered yesterday by Dubois, republican, of Ohio, to postpone legislation respecting election laws, finance, and tariff until January 15th, because of vacancies in the senatorial representation of Washington, Montana, and Wyoming, was taken up. Dubois addressed the senate in advocacy of its adoption. Mitchell, of Oregon, said he would oppose the resolution to the bitter end.

Gorman, of Maryland, said he perfectly understood that the resolution of Dubois was one of a series introduced for the purpose of consuming the morning hours. The silver senators were doing more to belittle the senate in the eyes of the people of the country than any body of men had ever done before. Coming to reference to himself, Gorman said he did not believe the senator from Colorado would stand upon the statement he had made that he (Gorman), and Aldrich, (of Rhode Island) had been consulting to devise a means to force a vote on repeal. "I have been a member of this body for twelve years," said Gorman, "and this is the first occasion in that time that I have ever known a senator through himself or his agents to listen at commiteeroom doors, or from information received from eavesdroppers to tell the senate if the private conferences of senators upon any subject. It is not necessary," continued Gorman, contemptuously, "to say more of such an incident." Referring to Stewart's criticism of the president, Gorman said that he was not the mouthpiece of the president. "His patronage I know nothing of. I care nothing for it. I neither have it nor wish it. But there is no man who has been more careful in using the great power of his office than the present president. If he may be criticised at all, it would be proper to say that he has been so careful of it that he has scarcely done his party justice." (Applause in the gallery.)

Aldrich denied that at any time he had undertaken in any conference to represent anybody but himself.

Wolcott said he had carefully abstained from the slightest reflection by innuendo or otherwise upon the senator from Maryland. "I would not rise to reply to his insinuations were it not that he has seen fit to suggest that I listened at his committee room doors." "I did not say that," said Gorman. "I said that if he had taken his information from eavesdroppers who were at the committee room doors."

Wolcott said the senator from Maryland knew he would scorn dishonorable methods which he characterized as untruthful statements. The resolution had been introduced to consume time.

The repeal bill was then taken up and Pasco, democrat, of Florida, addressed the senate in favor of repeal, followed by Teller. Before Teller concluded, the senate went into executive session and adjourned.

A PECULIAR DECISION.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 27.—Judge Reed today declared the eight-hour law contrary to both state and federal constitutions and a restraint on liberty of action.
