THE DAILY ASTORIAN, ASTORIA, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1893.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Grand concert tonight.

In the words of the small boy-"De deluge is came."

The absurd statement that it rains in Oregon should be contradicted officially.

Ah Lung was found guilty of burglary, in the circuit court yesterday. He will be sentenced today.

Miss Mason expects to open her private kindergarten on Monday, the 16th inst., in rooms at the Hotel Tighe.

It is not generally known that the British yacht Valkyrie will be given a time allowance of 1 min., 28 sec., over her opponent in every contest, on account of her deficiency in beam.

All day yesterday the mouth of the river was the scene of a raging storm. The wind blew sixty miles an hour nearly all day, and the bar was rougher than it has been for six months.

The results of every race of the America cup series will be bulletined in front of the Astorian office as soon as the news is received in the Associated Press dispatches. The announcements may be looked for at about 3:30 p. m., on the afternoons of racing days.

Groceries cheap for cash at Howell & Ward's.

The Belmont cigar can be had at Chas. Olsen's.

Elegant bath tubs, first class shav-ing and neat and artistic hair cutting at the Astoria Baths. Gillet & Corbett, proprietors.

The investigation now being held at No. 3's engine house is causing a good deal of friction among the boys, and many of them are talking of severing their connection with the department, A few cool heads at the Uppertown engine house, however, are at work, and a way out of the difficulty will no doubt present itself at an early date.

Remember McGuire's Hotel at Sea side is open the year around.

All groceries sold at bottom prices for cash at Howell & Ward's.

For fine wines and liquors call at August Danielson's Sample Rooms. Only the purest wines and liquors are sold at Alex. Campbell's Gem.
