

ABOUT THE CITY.

Rescue Club tonight. "The rain ye have always with you." New version. Rev. W. S. Short is visiting the condemned murderers at the county jail. Ah Lung was sentenced by Judge McBride yesterday to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary at Salem for burglary. An $80 lot for $2. Groceries cheap for cash at Howell & Ward's. The Belmont cigar can be had at Chas. Olsen's. Men of small means can buy real estate in Hill's first addition. Remember McGuire's Hotel at Seaside is open the year around. All groceries sold at bottom prices for cash at Howell & Ward's. For fine wines and liquors call at August Danielson's Sample Rooms. The rain is making things lively on the heights and blocks of acreage property are merrily falling into roadways. C. H. Jones, Carey Bros. bookkeeper, with his wife and relatives left here on the Columbia yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. W. H. Wattis accompanied them. They will remain away till the spring. The police are looking for Mr. Frank Foster, a gentleman who is missing under peculiar circumstances from the Occident Hotel. He registered at the hotel from Cleveland, Ohio, and on Wednesday night disappeared. He has not been seen since, and it is feared that he has met with a fatal accident. Only the purest wines and liquors are sold at Alex. Campbell's Gem. For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's first addition. Meany is the leading tailor and puts the highest cash price for fur skins. For all kinds of job printing, go to Del. Ferguson, upstairs, Astorian building. For Sale—Three good lots at Smith's Point. A bargain. Address A. B., this office. Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's. Sewing machine and general repairing, lock-fitting, etc. C. A. May, 132 Main. Hill's first addition is located in the centre of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2. It seems as if the railroad subsidy is beginning to break up. Yesterday C. W. Shively who gave ten acres consisting of 50 lots to the Remington guarantee, received his deed to the property back from the Commercial National Bank in Portland where it had been placed in escrow. The Ciceronian Literary Society of the High School yesterday afternoon elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, John McCue; vice president, Bessie Ross; secretary, Maud Stockton; treasurer, Violet Rowley; censor, Dora Badollet; marshal, Hall Barclay; chorister, Frances Holden. Call at the Astoria Real Estate Exchange and get a lot in Hill's first addition for $2. Lots 70x100, all cleared, in block 68, Adair's, for sale by W. B. Adair, at from $300 to $450 per lot. The office liquors and mixed drinks are unexcelled. Genevieve street, between Second and Third. There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money. Get your hemlock wood for $3.25 per cord delivered, at the Astoria Wood Yard. Satisfaction guaranteed. Del. Ferguson, general job printer, Astorian building, upstairs. First-class work at reasonable rates. Water colors, crayons, and sepia crayons, copying and enlarging, a specialty at Crow's gallery, Third street. Wing Lee has just received a full line of Japanese curiosities and fancy goods. Will sell at cost, 523 Third street. From the office of the lighthouse inspector at San Francisco, comes the following notice to mariners: "Notice is hereby given that on and after this date the fog-bell at Alcatraz Island, San Francisco bay, California, will run regularly during thick and foggy weather, the necessary repairs having been completed." Yesterday it transpired that the members and congregation of the First Presbyterian church of this city had virtually dismissed Rev. R. B. Dilworth from the pastorate and had appealed to the Presbytery of Oregon to send them another minister. This result was the outcome of a meeting on Wednesday night at the Presbyterian church when Mr. John Bryce moved the resolution to the effect stated above. It is unnecessary to dwell on the details leading up to this split between Mr. Dilworth and his flock. They are known to everybody in the city, and the only surprising thing about the whole business is that such action was not taken by the members of the church many months ago. Rare bargains in jewelry are being offered daily by H. Ekstrom. Any article in the store can be had at cost price. The finest hemlock wood ever sold in Astoria can be had from C. W. Everest, Alderbrook. Only $3.25 per cord delivered. Elegant bath tubs, first class shaving and neat and artistic hair cutting at the Astoria Baths. Gillet & Corbett, proprietors. The Coffee House, 522 Third street; best place for chops and steaks; oysters by the quart; received daily and always fresh. There is no place in Astoria where John Kopp's famous beer is kept in such good condition as at Utzinger's popular resort. Wagner & Co. have a new line of souvenir spoons, watch, clock and jewelry repairing a specialty. Opposite the Astorian office.

Here is an appeal that should meet with a very quick response. It has been left with the Astorian for publication by Messames M. H. Leinenweber, Johanna Kronquist, and Mary Hansen, a committee from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The document speaks for itself: "In view of the approaching winter, and the hard times, the W. C. T. U. have appointed a committee to look after the poor—those actually in need. Mrs. Fred Sherman has kindly consented to have all donations left at her residence for the present, where all charitably disposed ladies are invited to meet on Friday afternoon of each week to make over clothing. The committee respectfully solicit donations of all kinds, not only cast-off garments, but anything that can be spared, and we promise to give judiciously and (so far as possible) only to the deserving poor." Theo. Bracker keeps a varied and choice assortment of cigars, tobaccos, playing cards, cutlery, stationery, pipes, amber goods, etc. Dry hemlock wood delivered at $3.25 per cord by C. W. Everest, Alderbrook. Leave orders with Ben Coe, care of this office. Terms cash. Owners of horses can purchase Campbell's Hoof Remedy, and all the Columbia Veterinary Remedies at Fred. Sals' Saddlery establishment. The finest and most extensive line of blue and white steel enameled ware ever displayed in Astoria, has been received at Foard & Stokes. At the Monogram you can find fragrant Belmont, Wedding Bouquet, Flor de Madrid and all other choice and favorite brands of cigars. Once again it becomes the Astorian's pleasing duty to call attention to the grand entertainment to be given by the Rescue Club on Saturday, the 14th inst. This affair has been got up for the purpose of paying off the debt on the hall and to raise money enough to purchase extra seating accommodation. Last week it may be mentioned, fifty extra chairs were placed in the building and on Saturday night the number of people standing up was as great as ever. To say that the Rescue Club richly deserves that its big entertainment next Saturday should be a financial success, is putting it very mildly. The admission has been placed at fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children. Everybody should take a ticket, and show even in this slight manner his appreciation for the institution that does so much good for the city, and that has assisted to such a great degree in elevating the minds of Astoria's young people. Thor Frederickson, piano tuner, has moved to 1653 Third street, Adair's Astoria, near Eagle cannery. Leave orders at Griffin & Reed's book store. Sportsman intending to purchase their winter's supply of ammunition should communicate with Foard & Stokes before purchasing elsewhere. J. W. Thompson, organist at the M. E. church, gives lessons in music, piano and organ. Organs tuned and repaired. Address 539 Astor St., Astoria. Those desirous of furnishing houses can find as good bargains at G. V. Porter's as at any other store in the Northwest. Give him a trial and prove it. All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident hotel, Astoria. The wonderful runs of salmon in Alaska described by the surveying party just returned, says the S. F. Call, are no doubt familiar to those who are in the canning business. A generation ago the big fish in shoals were quite numerous on the upper waters of the Columbia and its tributaries, and would be as numerous still but that business men have pushed this enterprise fast with a view to supply the markets of the world, and the catch has been indiscriminate and exterminative. Alaska will in time fall off in the productiveness of her fisheries, but at present the seas and rivers teem with magnificent food fishes, and the capitalist thinks less about supplies than prices. On the Siberian and Japanese side of the Pacific, the salmon is also abundant to an astonishing extent. A net cast across some of the rivers, lands several hundreds of grand fish at a haul. Europe was perhaps, equally well supplied in far-off times. Fred Olsen takes the lead in manufacturing boots and shoes. All work is first class and warranted. Repairing a specialty. Corner Second and Olney streets. Anything in the line of gents' furnishings, goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equaled. The annual meeting of the members of the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran Church will be held tomorrow (Sunday) at 2 p. m. at the church. TH. FREDRICKSON, Sec'y. If you have friends in Europe whose passage you wish to prepay to Astoria, call at the Northern Pacific office, Astoria. Telephone dock, and make known your wants. Reduced rates via all the leading steamship lines. Patronize the Northern Pacific railroad if you are going East. Low rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checked to destination. All purchasers of second class tickets can stop over at Portland. Rates of fare same as from Portland. Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

There is a singular appropriateness in the selection of the young lady who is to touch the button that launches the battle-ship Oregon. Miss Shelby is the great-granddaughter of General Joe Lane, the pioneer patriot and soldier whose name is indissolubly associated with Oregon history. General Lane had achieved a national reputation before he crossed to the sunset side of the Rockies. The rugged quality of his courage and statesmanship fitted him for leadership in a frontier settlement, and when he came to Oregon the little band of pioneers were only too glad to put him in the foremost rank. And it was fortunate for the new territory that it had a leader so magnificently equipped for the work before him. Now that our great state is resting on the solid foundations which General Lane helped to lay, it is fortunate that there is a descendant of the third generation to help identify his name with an event that is to signify Oregon's importance. —Telegram. The most handsome and highest grade Wall Paper ever seen in the city. I will furnish paper gratis to anyone finding this statement not true. Call and see for yourselves, at B. F. Allen's 371 Third street. C. R. Higgins wishes to announce that he will meet those interested in the study of the French language, at Rescue Hall, Tuesday evening, October 10th, at 7:30, for the purpose of forming his winter classes. Every girl that buys her school books at the New York Novelty Store will be presented with a manicure set. Every boy that gets his school books at the New York Novelty Store will get a nice memorandum book with mirror attached. The entertainment given last night at the Methodist church by Miss Marie Park, under the auspices of the Young People's Society of the Presbyterian Church, was a very great success. The building was comfortably filled, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. Miss Park was accompanied in all her vocal selections by Mrs. Otto Heilborn, and was assisted by Mrs. J. T. Ross, whose sweet rendition of "The Merman," was loudly encored. Miss Park herself came fully up to expectations. Her songs were all beautifully rendered, particularly in the low notes. Her elocution, too, was of a high order and "Pot Pourri," a ridiculous jumble of favorite recitations, brought down the house. Her first piano solo, "Petit Bolero," was one of the best things of the evening and was loudly applauded. The gem of her vocal selections was undoubtedly de Koven's "Oh, Promise Me." The large audience was liberal in appreciation of the talented young lady who almost unaided, held them amused and interested for nearly two hours. CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS. The following business was done in the circuit court yesterday: C. E. Runyon vs. Ellen Adair Mendell et al.; ordered that C. R. Thomson be appointed guardian ad litem and W. B. Adair in place of B. Van Dusen. Jurors excused for the present until specially notified by the clerk, for the term or other order of the court. C. E. Runyon vs. Ellen Adair Mendell et al.; default and decree for plaintiff. State of Oregon vs. John Hansen; ordered that the court reporter furnish defendant's attorney with copy of testimony at county's expense. August Kynze vs. J. E. Saari et al.; plaintiff entitled to 85 per cent, and his costs and disbursements of this action. L. Lebeck vs. City of Astoria; on trial.
