HE WAS THE BABY.

The following story was related by the late Governor Harriman, of New Hampshire:

"In closing an address before a great audience in a large town in Indiana I surprised most of my hearers in referring to my own state. 'We have most everything in New Hampshire,' I said, 'except the broad prairies. We once had an awful cyclone, which left death and ruin in its track. Among the incidents connected with it was that of the babe of an humble farmer whose home was near the shore of Sunapee Lake, that was borne in its cradle out onto the lake and afterward rescued unharmed.'

"At the close of my speaking an elderly, fine looking gentleman made his way modestly up to the platform. I presumed he wanted to talk politics, but imagine when he shook me cordially by the hand and said, with considerable emotion:

"I was the little boy baby who was swept out on the Sunapee Lake in the great New Hampshire cyclone."

"After recovering from my surprise I invited the gentleman to the hotel where I was stopping, and we sat up till after midnight talking over the great cyclone and other matters of New Hampshire history."

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. Charles Stewart Parnell still lives in the house where her husband died. She seems to be heart-broken over the loss of her husband. She has no amusements, no diversions, and enters into none of the social pleasures of life.

Senator Pepper, in spite of his silver propensities, believes in gold-rimmed spectacles. One pair he wears all the time. When he reads he straddles his nose with a second pair—a tandem team, as it were. When he mounts the third set, look out for a speech advocating the issue of ten billions of irredeemable paper currency.

Cardinal Gibbons has received acceptance from every archbishop in the country to his invitation to be present at the jubilee services in the cathedral at Baltimore on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the episcopacy. Mrs. Stoll and the archbishop of New Zealand will also be present.

President Cleveland has begun to allow himself a little recreation. He attended the theatre Monday night accompanied by his mother-in-law. Most of the members of the cabinet were also present. Secretary Gresham was alone. Secretaries Carlisle and Lamont were accompanied by their wives and young Logan Carlisle brought up the rear of the party. The play was a new burlesque called "Delmonico's at Six."

SEASHORE ROAD.

A SAFFRON COLORED INDEX.

Of the condition of a bilious stomach and sluggish liver is the human countenance. Not only the skin, but the eyeballs, are tinged with the yellow hue when the bile gets into the blood. Besides this, sick headache ensues, the tongue becomes furred, pains are felt in the liver and through the right shoulder blade, and dizziness is experienced upon rising from a sitting or recumbent posture by the bilious individual. For these and other indications of biliousness, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the sovereign remedy. It is also efficacious in chills and fever, dumb ague, acute catarrh of the kidneys, and bladder, rheumatism and nervousness. It stimulates, restores digestion, and sleep, and tends greatly to mitigate the infirmities of age.

THE FATHER OF MANY ILLS.

Constipation leads to a multitude of physical troubles. It is generally the result of carelessness or indifference to the simplest rule of health. Eugene McKay, of Brantford, Ont., writes:

"I had for several years been a sufferer from constipation, had taken a great many different remedies, some of which did me good for a time, but only for a time, then my trouble came back worse than ever. I was induced by a friend, whom Brandreth's Pills had benefited, to try them. Took two each night for a week, then one every night for about six weeks. Since that time I have not experienced the slightest difficulty whatever, and my bowels move regularly every day. I believe firmly that for sluggishness of the bowels and biliousness Brandreth's Pills are far superior to any other."
