THE WIND STILL BLOWS

And Senators Talk While the Public Waits in Suspense.

HILL AND BUTLER ANGRY

Gallery Spectators Applaud the New Yorker and Vice-President Stevenson Threatens them.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The finance committee of the senate today presented a report from the treasury department as to the deficiency in the revenues of the government. The secretary says that a definite forecast for the whole year is impossible, but it is apparent should the present condition continue, the deficit at the end of the year will be about $50,000,000.

An extended conference of the republican senators was held last night to talk over the situation with a view to taking a party advantage of any mistakes which the democrats may make on financial questions. Only the repeal republicans were present. It was practically the unanimous opinion that the best policy was to remain quiet, neither helping the democrats out of the present snarl, nor doing anything to prevent the progress of the repeal bill, but if it becomes evident that the democrats can do nothing, then to prepare a republican measure and ask the senate to pass it. The majority were in favor of amending the rules if necessary, to get the bill through, though there was some objection to any change which might help the democrats in getting the election and tariff bills through. There were some expressions favoring a compromise on the repeal bill.

The democrats of the senate are devoting most of their time to an effort to agree among themselves, and are of the opinion that they are in a fair way to agree on a bill to be introduced at the beginning of next week. It is a fact that the democratic steering committee have almost agreed on a bill, and are now engaged in trying to get the various factions to accept it. The silver democrats accept it rather readily, though they are not fully satisfied with the limited recognition of silver, but some of the repeal democrats are still holding out for absolute repeal. The opinion is expressed that if all these can not be won over, enough republicans can be secured to pass the measure. The proposed bill extends the provisions of the present silver purchase law to January 1st, 1895, with a reduction of the monthly purchase to two and a half millions of silver at the present rate till ninety million ounces are purchased. Vilas is the only member of the committee holding out against a compromise.

Dubois, a republican of Idaho, regarded the present as an unfortunate occasion to attempt to change the rules. In respect to the criticisms on himself for not voting, Dubois said it was his pleasure and delight to sit in the senate, but if his expulsion from the senate would prevent the passage of the repeal bill, he would not hesitate a moment.

Butler, of South Carolina, made an impassioned argument against the propositions of Hill and Mills regarding the rules. A lengthy discussion ensued between Hill, Palmer and Butler as to the rights of the majority. The galleries applauded indirectly, and the president threatened to have them cleared. Butler took umbrage at the demonstration, and said:

"If the friends of the senator from New York are gathered here for the purpose of expressing their approbation of his methods, I should be very glad. Mr. President, to invite that senator out upon some street corner, where he and I can have it out for the benefit of the masses."

Senator Henderson said: "I rise to call the senator to order, and to ask the enforcement of the rule that he shall take his seat. The vice-president directed Butler to take his seat. On motion of Harris, however, Butler was allowed to proceed, and said he had not invited the senator to meet him on a street corner to fight, but for the purpose of a little legitimate stump speaking. Butler then asked Hill if he would be bound by the rules in the proposition to amend.

"I insist that any restriction in the rules whereby the majority is deprived of the power of making the amendment to the rules is not binding upon the senate," said Hill.

Teller finally withdrew his motion to amend the journal, disposing of the question pending before the senate. The journal was approved and the repeal bill was taken up for the first time since Monday. Manderson gave notice of an amendment to the rules providing in case of a quorum voting, that the presiding officer shall count the senators present and not voting, including those announcing their names, who have been excused from voting. Peffer, the populist, of Kansas, then resumed his speech against the bill which he had begun on Friday. At 5:05 o'clock the senate took a recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

ACCIDENT TO THE COLUMBIA.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—Today the tug Fearless went to Martinez after the steamer Oregon which is to take the run of the steamer Columbia to Astoria. The Columbia was twelve hours late in getting in yesterday, owing to her propeller shaft loosening in its sleeve. At least such is supposed to be the cause, but an examination may disclose that the entire sleeve is loose. Whenever the screw was worked up to the accustomed number of revolutions it struck the frame formed by the stern and rudder posts and the skag running out from the keel, and threatened serious disaster.

HE WAS RIGHT.

An Old Man Expresses His Contempt and Disgust for the Senate.

Washington, Oct. 19.—When the vice-president warned the galleries today that if they repeated their applause he would have the galleries cleared, a middle aged man arose in his seat and said: "As one of the American people I will go out," and he began to make for the door. Immediately there was a considerable stir on the floors and in the galleries. Officers escorted the man from the building. He offered no resistance, but went under protest. He said he was satisfied that the people were determined the Sherman law should be repealed, and that the protest made from the gallery was only the beginning of a demonstration which would be made against the senate if there was not speedy action on the repeal bill.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A Woman Enveloped in Flames in Sight of Many People.

Spokane, Oct. 19.—About 9 o'clock this evening, a terrific explosion of gas occurred in the dye works of C. L. Trotter, setting fire to the building and the adjoining book store. There were a number of people in the book store, and so quickly did the flames envelop the building that Mrs. William Beam was burned to death in full view of those who tried to rescue her. Miss Ruth Turner, two men and a boy were injured. It is feared that other lives were lost in the dye works though this cannot be determined until the debris is cleared away. Albert S. Smith made a desperate attempt to save Mrs. Beam, but he was driven back by the flames. The property loss is about $10,000.

TROUBLE AMONG THEM.

Whisky and the Braves Are Raising Trouble with the Indians.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Great uneasiness is felt at Pine Ridge Indian agency on account of the presence of a number of renegade Indians from other agencies. It is believed that the troops will have to be called on to suppress these lawless fellows. The Indian agent at Rapid, Wash., has submitted a report to the interior department. He says that intoxication is the predominant evil among the Indians. The evil will grow, he thinks, because of the decision of the courts that an Indian holding a patent to land is a citizen. He recommended, on account of this, that a law be passed holding that when a patent is given, it shall not confer citizenship upon Indians.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Something About Taxes that Will Interest All Astorians.

Portland, Or., Oct. 19.—The sheriff's sale of property for the payment of delinquent taxes which was to have occurred today has been suspended by temporary injunction granted by the United States district court to outside mortgage holders who claim that the assessment was unconstitutional in so far as the real estate was assessed at fifty per cent. of its actual value while mortgages were assessed at their full face value. This movement of the mortgage holders will cause considerable complication as the case will doubtless be carried to the United States supreme court.

ADOPTED THE REPORT.

Rochester, Oct. 19.—The Presbyterian synod had a hot session today, the result of the consideration of the report of the judiciary committee, the main portion of which dwelt on the Briggs case. The majority of the committee favored in all the points raised that final judgment was rendered by the general assembly, clearly disposing of all interlocutory questions, no matter when pending. No minority report was presented. After a heated discussion the committee report was adopted by a large majority.

RESCUED FROM A SINKING SHIP.

Galveston, Oct. 19.—The Mallery liner Lampass has just arrived. She has on board Jos. E. Soranco and Pedro Antegreva, survivors of the Spanish vessel Juan Jotamula, Captain Jose Llanan, from Mobile for Seville, stove laden. The vessel became water logged on October 5th, and sank till only the forecastle remained above water. A crew of twelve and the captain were one by one drowned as they dropped off the forecastle exhausted. When rescued the survivors had been five days without food or water.

GIBBONS MAKES A SPEECH.

Baltimore, Oct. 19.—A banquet was given to Cardinal Gibbons by the Catholic Club here this evening. Among those present were Vice-President Stevenson, Senator Gorman, and a number of Catholic dignitaries. Cardinal Gibbons in responding to the toast of his health, said that he was glad of the harmony existing between the church and state, as represented by the leading representatives there, and he would be sorry to see religion and the state any closer than they were now in this country.

A SURPRISE TO ANDERSON.

Tacoma, Oct. 19.—Isaac W. Anderson was officially notified this afternoon of his election as a member of the Northern Pacific board of directors. The election was a complete surprise to him. ## NO FIGHT AT CONEY ISLAND

Mitchell and Corbett Will Have to Go Somewhere Else.

MAYBE A POLITICAL DODGE

The Englishman Says that the Coney Island Club Will Have to Stand to the Contract.

New York, Oct. 19.—Mayor Boody, of Brooklyn, today gave it out that he would not permit the prize fight between Jim Corbett and Charley Mitchell to take place at Coney Island. District Attorney Ridgeway has also reported that the prize fight would never be considered. The sporting men of New York don't actually laugh aloud at these "campaign documents," but some of them do say that it is a bluff on the part of the politicians. Sheriff Courtney, when asked regarding the matter, said: "No, there will be no fight. What Mayor Boody says is perfectly true, and the fight can't come off."

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—Charley Mitchell, who is now in the city, was very angry when informed by an Associated Press reporter that Mayor Boody, of Brooklyn, had decided that the fight between Corbett and himself could not take place at Coney Island. He at once launched out into a bitter denunciation of the New York ministers, who, he claimed, were responsible for Mayor Boody's action. Mitchell then declared that the fight would have to come off. The money was up, and if they could not fight in this country, he would insist upon settling the matter in Mexico or Cuba, under London prize ring rules on the turf for the original stakes. In conclusion he said that if the fight was prevented by the Brooklyn mayor he would be in pocket $5,000, as the officials of the Coney Island Club had put up a $10,000 guarantee that the affair will come off under their auspices.

AN OREGON SAILOR ROBBED.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—John Crane, a sailor who came from Portland, Or., on Wednesday night, was knocked down and robbed of $270. ### RECOVERED THE TREASURE.

San Francisco, Oct. 19.—The Pacific Coast Steamship Company received information today that the last of the treasure that went down in the wreck of the steamer Newburn had been recovered by divers, and would be forwarded to this city on the Cook Bay, in connection with the wreck of the Newburn the customary investigation premises to endeaunor Captain Von Helms' certificate and license.

NO FAIR NEXT YEAR.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The South Park commissioners and the World's Fair council of administration held a prolonged conference tonight. Two things were positively and irrevocably decided. There will be no fair next summer, and the park commissioners will hold the World's Fair directors strictly to the requirements of their $100,000 bond for restoring the grounds to their original condition.

A HOAX OR A ROMANCE.

Denver, Oct. 19.—The News publishes a sensational story to the effect that Dr. T. Thatcher Graves, the famous poisoner, who was supposed to have committed suicide in jail, is not dead. It is maintained that a pine log occupied the coffin instead of the body, and that the supposed dead doctor is now enjoying his freedom in a foreign court.

IVES IS THE PRESIDENT.

New York, Oct. 19.—The annual report of the Northern Pacific railroad submitted to a meeting of the stockholders today shows a total net income of $12,924,690, and a deficit for the year of $889,256. The new directors will choose Brayton Ives for president and Robert Harris for vice-president.

CONDEMNED THE SENATE.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The bankers' convention today unanimously passed a resolution condemning the United States senate for not passing the bill repealing the Sherman silver purchase law.

AN ENORMOUS REVENUE.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The annual meeting of the Pullman Palace Car Company was held today. All the directors were re-elected, and the usual quarterly dividend of $2 per share from the net earnings was declared. The net revenue of the company for the year ending July 31, was $11,569,896, and the total disbursements, $7,383,447, leaving an excess of revenue carried to the credit of the income accounts—$4,006,449.

SET HIM RIGHT.

Geo. Augustus Sala, the well known English writer, on his last Australian trip, wrote as follows to the London Daily Telegraph: "I especially have a pleasant remembrance of the ship's doctor—a very experienced maritime medic indeed, who tended me most kindly during a heavy spell of bronchitis and spasmodic asthma, provoked by sea fog which had swooped down on us just after we left San Francisco. But the doctor's prescriptions and the increasing warmth of the temperature as we neared the tropics, and in particular, a couple of Allocock's Porous Plasters clapped on—one on the chest and another between the shoulder blades—soon set me right."

SPECIMEN CASES.

Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength.
