

MR. PETERS OF SCHOHARIE ON MODERN RACING CRAFT.

I don't know much about racin' craft, but those of them I've seed...

I wouldn't trust my life aboard a thing that looks like that. Not even if you'd offer me a thousand dollars flat...

She's got it 'pears to me, about two million yards of sail. A-fuzgened onto masts and spars that look so very frail...

I wouldn't care a shillin' if she'd go a thousand knots. An' beat a cable message like she does then other yachts...

An' when I takes up racin' it'll be on solid ground. So long as boats like them's the kind that folks consider sound...

Though if the boys up my way want a aquatic I'll consent. I always believed in lettin' boys go follow up their bent...
