A STRANGE WORLD,

The remarkable credulity of some people, who are swindled by the shallowest tricks, even in this age of newspapers, is frequently a cause of mirth but occasionally their folly has a tragic end. The story of an Eastern woman Mrs. Fries, who gave up the earning of a lifetime of herself and two members of her family for a lot of worthless brass filings mixed with sand, in the belief that she was buying gold-dust, and who fell dead when she learned how she had been swindled, is a case in point. The sum she parted with was $13,000. The transastion was managed, it is charged by her family, by a peddler named Schacfer, who introduced the Fries family to the "gold-dust" owners, two Polish Jews who claimed to have come from Russia, where they had purchased the stuff from mine owners, "cheap."

It seems strange that a woman shrewd enough to accumulate $6,500 (her share of the loss) by the time sh and her sons made money, and were happy while they stuck to the busibusiness they understood, that of fatrendering. When they entered into the money metal speculation they lost their heads, just as some of our learned statesmen seem to have done.

LAUNCH OF THE OREGON.

The battleship Oregon will glide into the water this morning in San Francis tally on the fast growing list of America's naval defenders. The Oregon is a magnificent specimen of the shipbuilders' art, and a fit representative of the wonderful and progressive state whose name she bears. We welcome her maiden plunge today for many the terrible power of herself and vestions; her construction proves how excellently the resources of this young Pacific Coast have been fostered and developed; and more than all she is a stately ship that will be for all time one more object round which can be circled that patriotic spirit and pride

That is why we hall the Oregon. All luck attend her future, and may she carry the name of the Webfoot rtate with honors unbounded to whatever ports she makes her way.

THE PENNOYER.

Governor Sylvester Pardoner Jeffer sonian Pennoyer is laying his little trich that hides its head in the sand and believes itself safe from sight, L'ennoyer wants to be the next United States senator from the commonwealth of which he is at present king. But there is going to be an imposing po-Hitical funeral in the near future, and our minted ruler is destined for the will throw up its hat for this demoeratic-populistic enigma; Rork will scream and orate on his behalf; the "peoples' party" organs will slobber oceans of adulation over his head; and the great unwashed will join in the chorus and work like beavers for the promotion of their mundane Jupiter.

But still the funeral obsequies will transpire, and Sylvester will go back through the piles of spruce and fir onto the darkly flowing waters of the Willamette, he will be able to reflect on that sterling truism laid down by ur old friend Spagoletti:

"You can fool alla da people soma da time, and soma da people alla da time. But you santa fool alla da peo ole alla da time. Not-a much."

Nothing but free coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 will put a stop to the silver agitation.-Denver News.

It does not matter about the agitation. The fact is, the country is not going to go on buying silver because there is a silver trust, represented by senators and others. This trust can be made more odious than any other monopoly in the country. It is atrocious and preposterous. As the Sherman law has been construed and is worked, it is one of the most remarkable cases of injustice to the people at large to bu found in human records. The game of changing the silver of a trust into gold, at the general expense, is played Total precipitation from July 1st, 1893 out; and if those engaged in it agitate to date, 13.42 inches.

of the seasons will move on.

The Czar of Russia is on the way in a steamboat from Copenhagen to St Petersburg, avoiding travel through the empire of Germany. It is said that he still submits with reluctance to the embraces of William, and prefers to be let alone by his imperial cousin. There must be a good deal of the good fellow the Czar, or he would not be so fond of vacations in Denmark, where he has a jolly time with the large and he is the guest of his royal father-inlaw and mother-in-law, all persons who are unknown are kept at a distance, and there are no terrors from dynamite.

The Salem Statesman says: "We must take what the Astorian says as and Salem, with several grains of al-in will receive greater benefits, perhaps, than any city in Oregon by the uilding of a line of rail from the valy to the sea, for we expect to be on ie main line-if not that we will build a branch to a connection with the main line. The operation of a railroad from the valley to the sea is a consummation devoutly to be wished for by Salem as well as Astoria."

All of which is very nice and very true, with the exception of the "grains of allowance." We hope that the Statesman has been brought to see that edtorial witticisms at the expense of the Astoria rallroad propositions are both bad form and bad policy.

Attempt at Suicide.

It Might Have Been Prevented.

[From the Boston Post.] While the walks in the Public Garden were crowded yesterday afternoon about 4.30 o'clock, people near the entrance gates at the corner of Beacon and Charles streets were horrified to see a man suddenly plunge a knife repeatedly into his throat and fall to

While waiting for a conveyance an officer questioned the would-be suicide, who was about 50 years of age, as to his name, address, and reason for wishing to end his life, but the man steadfastly refused to give any information regarding himself. He was taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital and surgical attendance given him. Although weak from loss of blood it is probable he will recover. About 9 o'clock last night a hospital attendant got a little information from him. He said his name was Samuel -, and that he came some weeks ago from New Brunswick. The last few days his head has felt queer, and he has been wandering about the city, not knowing which way to turn. What impelled him to commit his rash act he was unable to say.

Tirabove is the familiar but terrible story of the results of mental derangement caused by overstrain of the nervous system. People who have diminess, headache or back-ache, or who are troubled with a trackedy or despondent feelings, are already well on the road which leads to insanity and suicide.

"Dr. Miles Medical Co.: I cannot fir language in which to express my apprecia tion of the great benefit I have derived from the use of your Restorative Nervine.
