

STILL ANOTHER NAME FOR IT.

Every World's Fair visitor has probably had his individual whack at the pronunciation of the name of that charming melody, the Midway Plaisance writes a Blade patron. When I was there I kept track for a while of the different versions I heard given by my fellow sight-seers. The list reached some twenty-six before I stopped counting, and I know that there were a good many more. But the premium was taken by one which I overheard on a rainy morning, as a party who had come in by an Illinois Central train were leaning against a railing on the platform and gazing toward the Ferris wheel and the German village. "John," exclaimed one of the female members of the group, "there's a place we haven't been to yet."

"Oh yes, you have," answered John soberly; "you were there last Thursday—don't you know—that's the Midway Appliance."

GUilty OF IMMORAL CONDUCT. Portland, Oct. 26. "John," exclaimed one of the female members of the group, "there's a place we haven't been to yet."

MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED. Portland, Oct. 26.—A China woman was found dead here this morning under circumstances which render it a question whether it was suicide or the work of the highlanders.

PECULIARLY MADE. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are made of refined and concentrated botanical extracts. They're different from the large old-fashioned pills for these Pellets are as tiny as mustard seeds, and are sugar-coated. They're made in an improved chemical laboratory under the direct supervision of scientific men. Everything else being equal, the smaller the size of a liver pill, the more comfort. They do not shock the system, but regulate, cleanse and tone up, the liver, stomach, and bowels, in nature's own way. They're put up in sealed glass vials, easily carried in the vest-pocket. In Bilious Disorders, Sick Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Dizziness, or for breaking up sudden attacks of Colds, Fevers, and Inflammation, "Pleasant Pellets" are prompt and effective in action.
