Last evening orders were given that the can factory would be compelled to close down for the year, and that operations would not be resumed until next spring. This decision was reached on account of the big falling off in orders, and the general dullness in trade. About fifteen hands will be thrown out of employment.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

For all kinds of job printing, go to Del. Ferguson, upstairs, Astorian building.

Within the past week seven residents of San Francisco have been poisoned and placed in a precarious condition through eating mussels. Two men at Santa Barbara were killed on Saturday from the same cause. Three young girls at Port Townsend are in bed as a result of mussel poisoning. Astorians should be careful.

There was very little damage done to the signs or gates last night, and innocent skylarking among the young people was about as far as the celebration of Halloween went. A few private parties were held, and no doubt in many homes chestnuts were burned and the customary spirits of future wives and husbands called up to declare their intentions.

A breath of winter came yesterday. Not many cities can boast of rain, hail, bright sun, hail again, rain again, then more sun, topped off with a frosty, cloudless night, and all in 24 hours. It seems to be pretty plain that Pluvius and Purgae have dissolved partnership, and that they are flinging these variegated spats of weather at each other for spite.

Sportsmen intending to purchase their winter's supply of ammunition should communicate with Foad & Stokes before purchasing elsewhere. Owners of homes can purchase Campbell's Roof Remedy, and all the Columbia Veterinary Remedies at Fred. Sals' Saddlery establishment.

John Hansen, the wife murderer, has written a letter to the public asking people to visit him and cheer his few more days of life with their presence. Of course a plea like this will arouse a good deal of muddled sentimentality which it is the duty of the authorities to keep within the bounds of decency. The man committed a foul and dastardly murder, and the greatest favor the public can do to him and to society is to leave him alone and give him time to make his peace with God. When a criminal is condemned to death for a deed that conjures up a shudder when one recalls it, he should pass out of the minds of people and never be recalled till the hangman's work is done. To yank him and his foibles before the people at the slightest provocation, is debasing and ridiculous.

Wist; vice-president, Willie Hill; secretary, Mrs. S. B. Smith; treasurer, Frank Warren; door-keeper, P. F. Hal-ferty. The following program was presented: Quartet, Willie Hill, C. J. Stupp, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Hill; declamation, Eva Parker; declamation, Kob. Abbott; music by Professor Stier's string band. After a short intermission the following question was offered for debate: "Resolved, That the Chinese must be deported." Affirmative, Mrs. O. B. Wist and Thomas Grider; negative, R. A. Abbott and C. J. Stupp. After a most tempestuous argument the judges gave a unanimous decision in favor of the affirmative. These weekly meetings are awakening much enthusiasm, and are attended by most of the people of Clatsop. The music is very good, although there is room for improvement, especially in the singing.

One of the tricks of Halloween last night was neither mischievous nor reprehensible, but it was a trick nevertheless. All was quiet at the Astor House and a good many of the boarders were dreaming sweetly when a small army of young people trooped down on the building, captured the outworks, stormed the interior, and demanded the appearance of Miss Florence Ross. The young lady, with her father, brothers, and sisters, all very much surprised, met the invaders, and after a little parleying, gave herself up. Then the big dining room was thrown open, and twenty-five young ones had a splendid time for several hours. Games of all kinds, romps, and jokes, were rounded off with an elegant supper, and everybody voted it the jolliest Halloween that had ever come round. Those present were: Misses Florence Turner, Olga Noe, Alice Noe, Gertrude Stockton, Ida Shaw, Myrtle Blinn, Minnie Crow, Eertha Fannon, and Winnie Airth. Masters Archie Jones, Ralph Worsley, Charlie Wright, Donald Ross, Tommy Ross, Jamie Babbidge, and Loring Stinson.

The Kearney (Neb.) "Hub," says: "Lieutenant Sydenham was considered as a cool, courageous soldier, an officer with splendid judgment and a bright and promising future before him. During the Indian outbreak at Pine Ridge he was in active service, and while on a scouting expedition was in his saddle for fifty consecutive hours, and achieved results that were officially recognized by his superiors and the office of the war department. But whether on the field or in the camp he was an indefatigable worker, being, at the time of his death, post treasurer, post quartermaster, post commissary, and commander of Battery C. In addition, also to his other duties, he did considerable literary work, and had contributed articles for the Lowell (Mass.) Arena, the St. Paul Press, Youth's Companion, Lippencott's Magazine, Great Weekly, Overland Monthly, Harper's Weekly and Illustrated American. Many of his articles he illustrated himself, as he was a natural artist. At the time of his death he was working on the life of the great military novelist, Captain King, also a treatise on military tactics. Some years ago he furnished a detailed estimate of the cost of a canal from Denver to Omaha, and work was commenced on it."

HIS PERSONAL EXPERIENCE.

Hon. James W. Husted, while serving his sixth term as speaker of the Assembly of the state of New York, writes: "New York Assembly Chamber, Albany, Jan. 16, 1890.

I desire once more to bear my testimony to the value of Alcock's Porous Plasters. I have used them for twenty-five years, and on every occasion they commend them as the best external remedy that I have known. Years ago when thrown from a carriage and seriously injured I gave them a thorough trial. In a very short time the pain that I was suffering disappeared, and within a week I was entirely re-energized, both for external and internal troubles. I never had but one kidney difficulty in my life, and the application of the plasters cured me within a week. I desire, as I said before, to bear my testimony in a public way to their efficacy, and I know of no better way to do it than by giving you my personal experience.

"A TALENTED EDITOR."

A GOOD BUILDING UP of a run-down system can be accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A long procession of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, loss of appetite, dizziness, depression) and you'll save yourself from something serious. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, to repel disease and build up the needed flesh and strength, there's nothing to equal it. It rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, braces up the whole system, and restores health and vigor. For every disease caused by a disordered liver or impure blood, it is the only guaranteed remedy. It doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back.
