ABOUT THE CITY.

Church bells today.
The steamer Augusta is still bar-bound.

The Elmore came in from Tillamook at 3:15 p. m.

There were 1245 votes cast at the city election in December, 1893.

Why do sailors put on a sou'wester when the wind blows a sou'easter?

Vigilant Camp, No. 1, Friends of Labor, hold their regular meeting tomorrow night.

A ship was reported outside yesterday morning by the Iredale. She was running north of the lights.

There will be a general meeting of the Astoria Football Club tomorrow night at 7:30 sharp. Business of importance is to be transacted and a full attendance is requested.

Rev. C. F. Clapp, of Portland, and Rev. D. V. Poling, of Independence, are conducting a series of gospel meetings at Rescue hall, beginning every evening at 7:30 p. m.

Hugh McCormack was in town yesterday. If Hugh would change his name to Allen and wear a Prince Albert coat, he could readily pose as the junior senator from Nebraska.

The bark Iredale, 148 days from Antwerp, with a general cargo, arrived in port yesterday afternoon. Pilot Staples brought her in. She will go right up the river as she only draws 19 1/2 ft.

Tonight Rev. C. F. Clapp, of Portland, and Rev. D. V. Poling, of Independence, will begin their series of gospel meetings in Rescue Hall. The latter gentleman's well known excellence as a singer, and Mr. Clapp's reputation as a speaker throughout the state will no doubt draw many hundreds of people to hear the combined services.

Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

Monday evening a Union Pacific freight train ran into a band of valuable horses, the property of Dr. W. E. Clowe, killing two fillies outright and injuring two others so badly that it was necessary to shoot them. The doctor had just brought 21 head of horses from Oregon and turned them into his pasture near the city, when the train passing through the place stamped them with the above result. —Wallis Wallis Union.

The Astorian understands that the following ticket is the one that will in all probability be put forward by the "citizens" party at the coming city election: For mayor, M. C. Crosby; for auditor and police judge, K. Osburn; for treasurer, J. H. D. Gray; for city attorney, C. J. Curtis; for surveyor, Richard Harry; for street superintendent, Wm. Chadwick; for police commissioner, John Kopp; for councilmen, Ist ward, I. Bergman; 2d ward, Wm. E. Joplin; 3d ward, Fred Wright.

The finest and most extensive line of blue and white steel enameled ware ever displayed in Astoria, has been received at Beard & Stokes.

Anything in the line of gent's furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equalled.

Rare bargains in jewelry are being offered daily by H. Ekstrom. Any article in the store can be had at cost price.

J. S. Dellinger's new city directory was issued yesterday and fully bore out the promises made for it by the proprietor. It is a neat and strongly bound book, splendidly printed and containing a list of residents of the city compiled carefully and with great thoroughness. In the end of the book is a transcript of the Clatsop county tax roll, giving the name and amount of tax paid by every property holder. This in itself, is a convenience worth the full price of the volume. Altogether the directory is a credit to the promoter, and a credit to the city. It should have a ready sale among all business men.

Last week, says the Statesman, so far as reported Salem dealers in fruit have received inquiries from three different parties in the states farther east relative to the prices at which car load lots of Oregon apples can be obtained. One inquiry comes from Salt Lake City, another from Des Moines, and a third from Dubuque. There are also numerous inquiries concerning prunes and fruit and farming lands. The people who write concerning lands say they have it on their program to pay a visit to the West at an early day with a view to selecting locations for permanent homes.

The Coffee House, 522 Third street, best place for chops and steaks; oysters by the quart; received daily and always fresh.
Wagner & Co. have a new line of souvenir spoons. Watch, clock and jewelry repairing a specialty. Opposite the Astorian office.

The most handsome and highest grade Wall Paper ever seen in the city. I will furnish paper gratis to anyone finding this statement not true. Call and see for yourselves, at B. F. Allen's 571 Third street.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Rescue Hall was crowded to the doors last night, and the excellent program that was presented left no room for improvement. President Estes as usual, occupied the chair, and Miss Pearl Holden was again kind enough to give her services at the piano. The following performers helped to make up a fine evening's entertainment: Misses Nettie Sorenson, Maud Belcher, Beale Sorenson, Emma Johnson, Bertha Simpson, Edith Conn, Bessie Rutter, Elsie Parker, Katie Wirt, and Bertha Welch, and Messrs. Duncan Taylor, and Freeman Parker. The program committee for this week consists of Misses Christenson and Kate Burns, and Mr. Fox.

Theo. Bracker keeps a varied and choice assortment of cigars, tobaccos, playing cards, cutlery, stationery, pipes, amber goods, etc.

Those desirous of furnishing houses can find as good bargains at G. V. Porter's as at any other store in the Northwest. Give him a trial and prove it.

With the wet weather comes an increasing demand for reasonable shoes, and the best place to get a fine pair made to order at Fred Olsen's Olney street.

Mr. W. H. Barker relates an incident at the World's Fair which shows that at least one more medal could have been secured for Oregon if an Astoria manufacturer had had enough confidence in his goods to exhibit them in the Oregon building. In the shoe and leather department of the Fair one of the finest exhibits, marked "from California," was some splendid leather skirting for saddles. On enquiring where it came from Mr. Barker to his astonishment ascertained that it was from the tannery of Mr. Chas. Olvis, of this city, but passed as California leather "for the sake of the name." Mr. Olvis regularly sends his goods to a big Chicago firm to be made up, and this firm declares that his skirting is the best made in the United States.

All groceries sold at bottom prices for cash at Howell & Ward's.

For Sale—Three good lots at Smith's Point. A bargain. Address A. B. this office.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

By reason of the refusal of a few of the depositors to sign agreements for extension on their deposits, the bank of I. W. Case could not be opened on the 1st, for business as was hoped. Some of those refusing to sign are holding out hoping that there will be enough names secured to enable the bank to open, and then those not signing will be able to rush and get their money in full at once. It must be understood that such is not the case. All must sign, and when the bank is again opened the time expressed in the agreements will be anticipated as fast as collections can be made. Collections are coming in very fairly, and a concerted action on the part of the depositors in signing the agreements will enable the bank to open in a few days.

The newspaper for which intelligent men are crying out will not be illustrated, except for a few cuts or diagrams, sketch maps, and other necessary adjuncts to the text. The experiment of making daily picture papers has been fairly tried, and it has proved a failure. The illustrations do not illustrate, and they are unsightly in the extreme. It is not probable that any satisfactory practice of illustration will ever be adapted to the rapid methods of newspaper printing. The sensational headlines of the current newspapers, defiant of both taste and grammar, will depart with the pictures to the limbo wherein are to be gathered all the unshowered devices of the barbarous age of journalism. The offensive type of interviewer will have to go, and he who violates the privacies of life in less frank and unblushing ways, and with them will go the jargon called "reportorial" English—thus itty styled in its own base dialect. The man indeed, who writes for the reformed newspaper will be a scholar—which now he is not often—and a gentleman—which now he is frequently not permitted to be.—The Forum.

The Telephone Register says: It now appears that "Expert Simmons" is a forger. He left here without paying his bills and went to Portland. Last Saturday a note came to the First National Bank of this city signed by F. M. Nighswander and H. C. Perkins, promising to pay O. B. H. Simmons the sum of $157. It was endorsed on the back by A. C. Jennings, W. H. Spough, J. M. Stafford, and O. B. H. Simmons. It had been taken up by a firm in Portland and sent up here for collection. The note is a promise to pay the sum stated on August 30, 1893, with interest after maturity. The bank here notified the gentlemen that the note was here for collection, but they at once pronounced it a forgery, claiming they had never given this man a note for any amount. It is understood that Simmons has left the country, and if he has not it will be best to do so. He was about as much of an expert on county records as a ten-year-old boy, and all he could do was to go over the books and tell what figures had been entered. It was understood that he came here highly recommended, but probably no one could be found now who recommended him.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard, of West Eighth street, were celebrating their tin wedding very happily last night with a small family circle, when they were surprised by the appearance of about thirty of their friends who had conspired to make the occasion an enjoyable surprise party. Mrs. Bayard and her husband were delighted with the arrival of the troop, and at once proceeded to make them comfortable. After several very excellent musical and vocal selections the rooms were cleared and dancing was kept up to a late hour. When the art of Terpsichore had been paid homage to for a considerable time, the visitors brought out their hampers and a splendid repast was spread. Speeches of congratulation were made, and everybody joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bayard many happy returns of the day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. August Danielson, Misses Olive Olson, Mabel Olsen, Sina Hanson, Clara Ellingson, Annie Peterson, and Hanna Lubeck; Messrs. Chas. Ring, Chas. Brown, Victor Peterson, C. Palmberg, F. Hildebrand, C. Norberg, Wm. Anderson, Chas. Anderson, Ole Anderson, Fred. Olsen, John Nelson, Alex. Larson, Victor Larsen, Frederick Olsen, Chas. Lindstrom, S. G. Peterson, and John Swenson.

"A TALENTED EDITOR."
Gentlemen:—I had occasion to use several boxes of Krause's Headache Capsules while traveling to Chicago to attend the National Democratic Convention. They acted like a charm in preventing headaches and dizziness. Have had very little headache since my return, which is remarkable.
Yours, respectfully,
JOHN U. SHAFER,
Ed. Renovo (Pa.) Record.

For sale by Chas. Rogers, Astoria, Or., sole agent.

A GOOD WORD.
Mr. J. J. Keil, Sharpshurg, Pa.
Dear Sir:—I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia (which seemed to baffie the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules.
Gratefully Yours,
MRS. E. R. HOLMES,
Montrose, Pa.

For sale by Chas. Rogers, Astoria, Or., sole agent.

BROKEN DOWN
—by disease is the natural result if you allow your liver to become inactive, your blood impure, and your system run down. The germ of Consumption, Grip, or Malaria, wait for this time of weakness—this is their opportunity. If you rouse the liver to activity, so it will throw off these germs, purify the blood so there will be no weak spots; build up healthy weight where there is a falling off, you will rest secure from disease, for you'll be germ-proof.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery does this as nothing else can. That's the reason it can be guaranteed. In convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it's an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. For all diseases of the liver or blood if "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

No matter how bad your case, Dr. Egan's Remedy will permanently cure your Catarrh.
