TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. DAILY. Sent by Carrier, per week... 15 cts Sent by Mail, per month... 60 cts Sent by Mail, per year... $7.00 WEEKLY. Sent by Mail, per year, $2.00 in advance. Postage free to subscribers.

The Astorian guarantees to its advertisers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager. This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the lower Columbia that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is five times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has, next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to The Astorian are requested to notify this office, without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour. By doing this they will enable the management to place the blame on the proper parties, and to ensure a speedy remedy.

Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of The Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland, Nov. 20.—For Oregon and Washington, occasional light rain, followed by fair weather, cooler.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the U. S. Department of Agriculture weather bureau.

Maximum temperature, 48 degrees. Minimum temperature, 40 degrees. Precipitation, .78 inch. Total precipitation from July 1st, 1893 to date, 25.28 inches. Excess of precipitation from July 1st, 1893, to date, 6.59 inches.

The present general depression throughout the country has been brought about chiefly by the workingmen, who have been animated principally by a desire to damage the owners of the great manufacturing industries, without knowing in what manner they would be themselves benefitted.

They have thrown themselves out of good wages, and as much as admitted it at the recent elections in the East, where they placed themselves upon the stool of repentance and made what amends they could by giving such rousing republican majorities. It is now an interesting question, who is to support these men, who, by their votes, decided the question of protection to themselves as against the cheap labor of England, Germany, and other countries.

The Irishman comes over here for higher wages and full of wrath against the English. He gets his naturalization papers, and ever after he votes against his own interest and for the English manufactures. No wages are ever high enough, yet he votes for low wages. Low tariff means low wages. There has never been a time when money would buy as much as at this time, yet the foreigners who have overturned our protection to all industries and turned themselves out of work have been deluded into the notion they were paying too much to support the government, whereas only a small fraction of their earnings was in any way affected by the tariff.

Now, as the democratic managers have dragged the workingmen into a hole and into poverty, it is their place to support them till they can find work for them at permanent low wages.

Concerning the question of allowing Brazil to fit out ships of war in our ports, it should be remembered that she is a sister republic, and her president, so far as we know, her legally constituted and legitimately employed executive. We do not know about his dictatorship, touching which his enemies are ceaselessly crying. We suspect those gentlemen of being of the monarchal persuasion; but their chatter over the dictatorship of Brazil is a noise it pleases them to make to divert attention. The admiral representing the party of Insurrection has possession of the fleet and uses it to make war upon his country. His has not, by the act of mutiny and the bombardment of Rio Janeiro, acquired belligerent rights. It is not the policy of nations to hastily confer upon Insurgents the privilege of belligerency.

In the case of the Southern confederacy, which had a thoroughly organized government and immense armies, there was a failure to break down the conservatism of Europe, though France and England were sympathetic with the confederacy. There is no reason why we should not deal with the government of Brazil as an entirely independent and friendly and responsible power.

In commenting on a curious and rare book, originally a paper on the 8th Regiment by one of its members, which was put into type by the author's adopted daughter, who was an amateur printer, and entirely untaught, a New York paper makes a strange literary error in saying that in place of the letter "a," the letter "t" was used, and that it was customary at that time. We have not seen the odd book, and the young lady may have used an "t," but that was not the fashion with professional printers, then, or at any time. The letter in question is the "long s," so called, and resembled an "f" except for the cross bar.

In the condition that the democratic party is, it is a solemn thing for the "Boston Herald" to discuss the decadence of the republican party and to lament its loss of principle. "Still Further Decadence," is the Boston Herald headline, and the article reads:

"The chief reliance of the republicans is not upon principle at all, and here they take a step further in decadence. It is upon deception and an appeal to the prejudice of the more ignorant."

Now, that from an enlightened Bostonian "Independent" sheet is wonderful. It gives out a light equal to a fog bank. The democratic party, as represented in congress, was only recently divided on the policy of the president. In the senate the party paired off with itself, and left the republicans to give the president essential support. The same thing happened in the house at first, but when it was established that there was to be silver repeal, there was a slight accession of democratic members of the house to the majority side—they saw the way the thing was going and went that way—though ninety-four of the democracy stood out against the president. The national election that it was said turned on the tariff happened a year ago, and a tariff bill until after the election this month was impossible. The democratic party has been outgrown by the country.

There is a sinister story, that we trust is without foundation, that the president's trouble in the mouth which caused the operation on the Onida, has reappeared. It was said at the time of the publicity of this matter, last summer, that the danger was further developments of the difficulty, whatever it was, would occur in about three or four months. The rumor that is now on the wires may originate in the President's habits of seclusion, and the recollection that if there was a malignant growth in the upper jaw not wholly removed by the knife, it would manifest itself about this time.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, as administrator of the estate of Thomas Shay, deceased, has filed his final account, in said estate, in the county court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Clatsop, and that Monday, the fourth day of December, 1893, at ten o'clock of said day, is the time fixed by said court for the time of hearing said final account. All persons having objections to said final account, must present the same to said county court on or before said date. This notice is published pursuant to an order of the aforesaid county court, made and entered on the 7th day of November, 1893. Dated November 7th, 1893. F. L. PARKER, Administrator of said estate.

America's Great Danger. AN ENGLISH COMMENTARY. Said an eminent English scientist recently: "The danger that confronts the great American people today is not the possible adoption of a wrong financial policy for the nation, or the spread of socialism, or the increase of corruption among public men. All these are bad enough, to be sure, but they are as nothing compared to the terrible moral disease—I had almost said national crime—of overwork. The mad rush for wealth is set at a killing pace, and thousands die by the way every year."

You are likely to be one of the victims! How do we know? Because it is the exception to find a man or woman of adult age in perfect health. Nervous Disorders are spreading with fearful rapidity. Among the symptoms are—Backache, Biliousness, Cold Hands and Feet, Dizziness, Hot Flashes, Fluttering Sensation, Fainting, Headache, Hysteria, Irritability of the Heart, Melancholy, Falling Memory, Palpitation, Rheumatism, Short Breath, Sleeplessness, Nervous Dyspepsia, Sexual Debility, Fits, etc. Rev. C. A. Cameron, pastor of First Baptist Church, Yellow Springs, writes as follows: "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve for the past six months. I find it acts like a charm on the whole nervous system. I have not found its equal in giving immediate relief. Dr. Miles' Little Nerve and Liver Pills only need a trial and they will recommend themselves to be the best pills in the market."

"For five years I have suffered from Nervous Prostration, I was unable to work or sleep. The first dose of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve gave me relief, and one thousand dollars would not cover the good it has done me."—JOHN MINGCHEE, Youngstown, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is unequalled in curing Nervous Diseases. It contains no opiates or dangerous drugs. Sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE BEST. Is the best Blood Medicine, because it assists nature to throw off the impurities of the blood, and at the same time tones up the entire organism. This is just contrary to the effect of the various poisons, mercury, arsenic, strychnine, which bottle up the impurities in the system, thus producing much sickness and suffering. Therefore, for a BLOOD MEDICINE you cannot do better than take S. S. S. As a physician, I have prescribed and used S. S. S. in my practice as a tonic, and for blood troubles, and I have been very successful. I never used a remedy which gave such general satisfaction to myself and patients. "L. B. IRVING, M.
