EXCLUSIVE TELEGRAPHIC PRESS REPORT.

VOL. XL, NO. 271.

ASTORIA, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 26, 1893.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

Preparing for Thanksgiving and 1894.

As every good housewife prepares for Thanksgiving so must a good business man prepare for a future trade. I have just returned from New York, where I placed my order for Men's and Boys' Clothing, for spring and summer of 1894 with manufacturers that sponge and shrink every yard of cloth with the best and most improved methods before it is placed upon the cutting tables, where the knives are manipulated with the latest improved patents, and the garments are cut exactly like the patterns. The latest machine that fastens and finishes the button holes, is adopted by this factory that has for the past five years made my fine lines of men's clothing that have given such universal satisfaction in fit finish and workmanship.

HIS TROUBLES ENDED

A Once Noted Speculator Dies from Exposure.

THE FATE OF A. J. HUBLER

The Story of His Life Was One of Fortunes Won and Lost.

Associated Press.

Walla Walla, Nov. 25.—J. A. Hubler, in the early days one of the most successful grain speculators of the Northwest, died at Milton last night, aged 70. He went into the Willamette Valley from the Caribou mines in the early sixties, taking with him about $10,000. He was a natural born speculator, and soon began doubling his money dealing in bacon and hogs. Afterward engaging in the grain business in Portland, he was a remarkably shrewd buyer, and made a fortune. Four or five seasons he bought all the oats raised in the Willamette Valley. During his career, whenever grain dealings proved unfortunate, he recovered his lost ground by speculating in hogs. About ten years ago he had large holdings in wheat, when the market commenced declining. He held on until closed out and his fortune was completely lost. He soon lost his mind and was taken to the Oregon Insane asylum. He was afterwards released as cured. A year ago last summer, still adhering to his old theory that he could retrieve his fortunes by dealing in hogs, he picked up a band of hogs and took them west to Oregon, where he fattened them. He slaughtered them himself and made them into bacon, which he disposed of at a handsome profit. This season he bought 100 head of hogs and drove them to Milton, where he made a corral for them under a bridge. He lived in a tent among his hogs, feeding them damaged grain. About three weeks ago he became sick from exposure and consented to be taken to the house of A. Church, where he died.

POWDERLY RESIGNS.

Disgruntled Because He Could not do All the Thinking.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—General Master Workman Powderly tendered his resignation to the general assembly of the Knights of Labor this afternoon. He was unable to keep the delegates in the line he had marked out for them, and this decisive move seemed the only thing left for him to do. Immediately after the resignation was offered he left the hall, as he said, to attend to some personal business. The step was a surprise to all the delegates.

The causes which led up to the resignation were as follows: "After Powderly had been repeatedly urged by the assembly to substitute a new list of names for membership in the executive committee, he acquiesced in the demands, but the second list was not much more favorably received than the first one. Today new life seemed to have been instilled into the anti-Powderly faction, and they began to elect a board that would best suit them. Powderly was also fruitless in his endeavors to impress upon the assembly that he was only exercising the powers the office gave him. His opponents told him he had misconstrued the meaning of the constitution. This only added fuel to the flames. Powderly would not adopt the compromise the delegates had elected. He declared their elections illegal. Then the climax came. The defeated leader spoke with remarkable clearness as he said: "Gentlemen, you must either obey the spirit of the constitution or declare the office of general master workman vacant. I now tender my resignation." With that he left the hall. Powderly was asked tonight if he had really resigned. He replied: "I told the delegates they must either declare my office vacant or accept my resignation, as I would not any longer serve. In a day or two I will make a statement."

BADLY DISAPPOINTED.

St. Paul, Nov. 25.—Albert Wolf, until recently editor of the St. Louis Daily Volks Zeitung, and a promising German democrat, threw himself in front of an engine at the union depot this afternoon. The body was so badly mangled that it was some time before it was identified. Despondency over his failure to secure a government appointment was given as the probable cause.

SCHAEFFER WINS.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—The great billiard match between Schaeffer and Ives terminated this evening in Schaeffer's favor. At the commencement of tonight's play, Ives was 506 in the lead, but by brilliant work Schaeffer in the thirty-eighth inning took the lead. Ives made a great fight, but finally in the forty-fifth inning Schaeffer ran out the game, Ives being 55 behind. The result was a great surprise, as the odds were 500 to 50 on Ives this morning. Tonight's score was: Ives, 745; Schaeffer, 1205. Grand total, Schaeffer, 4000; Ives, 3,945.

IS STEVENS TO BLAME?

Interesting Testimony on which Blount Based His Report.

Washington, Nov. 25.—The fourth volume of papers accompanying Blount's report was given out by the state department, consisting of the full disclosures made by Blount in the dispatches and with his report from Honolulu. It was the testimony on which he bases his report. Numerous affidavits bearing on the day the provisional government was proclaimed go to show that Minister Stevens recognized the provisional government and that the troops landed from the Boston before the queen's forces surrendered to the provisional government.

The statement that Liloikalani addressed to Blount is of special interest and importance. The queen details her endeavor to promulgate the new constitution, and her failure through the perjury of some of her cabinet, and says that although everything was quiet, about 5 o'clock on Monday, the troops from the United States ship Boston were landed by order of Minister Stevens, in secret understanding with the revolutionary party. After detailing her subsequent appeals to the government of the United States, she says: "President Harrison's term of office expired and President Cleveland was inaugurated, and I hailed it as a good omen, having met him in 1857 while he occupied the presidential chair, and I have not been disappointed. Your arrival brought relief to our people, and your presence safety. No doubt the provisional government would have carried out extreme measures towards myself and my people, as many already have seen by their unjust actions. If the president had been indifferent to my petitions, I am certain it would have brought a serious result to myself and tyranny to my subjects. In this I recognize a high sense of justice and honor in the person who is ruler of the American nation."

CLEVELAND'S LATEST.

Washington, Nov. 25.—A choice political secret came to the surface which will cause uneasiness in the minds of congressmen who have not followed the will of the president since his inauguration. It is that he proposes to take a hand in selecting members of the 54th congress. The national democratic executive committee propose, if possible, to secure absolute control of the management of the next democratic national campaign committee, and also of the committee designated by the national democratic league clubs.

GONE TO PIECES.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The wrecked steamer City of New York, which was abandoned yesterday, has gone to pieces. At sunrise this morning the waves were breaking over the doomed ship. Soon afterward, with a crash that could be heard for miles, the vessel broke in two and all about the mizzen mast sank in twenty fathoms of water. The deck houses followed soon after. The forward portion of the hull still hangs on a spur of rock. At sundown $50,000 worth of pumps and other wrecking apparatus were lost.

BANK OFFICIALS INDICTED.

Indianapolis, Nov. 25.—The United States grand jury indicted T. P. Haughey, president of the Indianapolis National bank; S. C. Houghy, president of the Indianapolis Glue Company and of the Indianapolis Curled Hair Works; G. A. Coffin, President of the Indianapolis Cabinet Company; P. R. Coffin, secretary of the same, and A. S. Reed, treasurer of the same. These are the men who are already under bonds for wrecking the Indianapolis National bank.

THE CARLIN PARTY FOUND.

Portland, Or., Nov. 25.—Brigadier General W. P. Carlin sends the Associated Press the following: "A dispatch has just been received from Lieutenant Charles P. Elliott, Fourth Cavalry, dated November 23, as follows: "Falls of the North Fork of the Middle Fork of Clearwater—The Carlin party was found on the river today. Carlin, Spencer, Pierce, and Himmelswright are well. Colgate was lost. Kelley joined them in the mountains. Will work down the river by boat."

ANOTHER GUNNING ACCIDENT.

La Grande, Or., Nov. 25.—While a party of school boys were shooting at a mark this afternoon, a gun in the hands of Will Plumb exploded, the contents lodging in the body of Sherman Kent, aged 12. Young Kent died almost instantly. When the news of the accident was conveyed to the dead boy's mother she was prostrated and still continues in a precarious condition.

YALE TRIUMPHS AGAIN

The Crimson Colors Lowered Again on the Oval.

YALE'S SEVENTEENTH VICTORY

Harvard Outplayed Throughout the Game—Eight Men Were Injured.

Associated Press.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 25.—The Yale and Harvard eleven met today to contest for foot-ball supremacy in the presence of a large crowd. Among the distinguished spectators were Governor McKinley and Governor Russell. A bet of $2500 to $2000 on Harvard found no takers. Anton and Waters, of Harvard, and Thorne, of Yale, were disabled. Yale won by a score of 6 to 0.

At the end of the first half Harvard had the ball on her 25-yard line. In the second half Yale got a try, the first in the game, and kicked the goal. Score—Yale 6, Harvard 0.

Harvard was outplayed and outgeneraled at every point, and the sons of Ellhu Hale won their seventeenth victory from the crimson boys. Not far from 25,000 people witnessed the contest, including Governors Russell, of Massachusetts, McKinley, of Ohio, and Morris, of Connecticut. Butterworth, Yale's full back, was the hero of the hour, as it was he who made the touchdown from which the goal was kicked. From the players' standpoint it was an ideal day, but for spectators it was uncomfortably cold. Yale won the toss and chose the wind, giving Harvard the ball. Harvard's hopes were high when the crimson line was seen to work a flying wedge so successfully against the blue in the first five minutes of the game, but they fell after that, for Harvard was never in it again.

The first half ended without a score being made, but the Harvard men had exhausted themselves, and when the play was resumed, the boys in blue adopted the offensive, and rushed through to a victorious end. Harvard yells grew fainter after Butterworth made the touch-down, and when Captain Waters was injured and obliged to retire, the Harvard cup of sorrow was filled. The game was less interesting than that of last year for the spectators. It was also rougher, eight men being injured, although only one, Captain Waters, of Harvard, was incapacitated for service.

DISASTROUS BLAZE.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 25.—A fire in Hannibal, Missouri, tonight, destroyed a block of the best business buildings in town. It started from the explosion of a lamp in Williams & Son's dry goods store, and a gale which was blowing carried the flames up the street with amazing rapidity. When the fire was gotten under control both sides of Main street, from Lyons to Broadway, were in ruins. All the wires out of Hannibal are in ruins, but a rough estimate places the loss at $350,000.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE.

Albany, Or., Nov. 25.—A special from Detroit says the body of Joseph Hamilton, a settler who was lost in the mountains on the North Santiam, was found this morning by a searching party about two miles from his cabin. He had evidently become exhausted and perished from exposure. Hamilton was being missing since Wednesday. He was aged about thirty and had no family.

MORE INDICTMENTS.

Portland, Nov. 25.—The United States grand jury this afternoon returned three indictments for smuggling, but the officials will not give out the names until the warrants are served.

HOW THEY WERE FOUND.

Spokane, Nov. 25.—A special to the Review from Kendrick, Idaho, says: A courier arrived here this morning with the news that Lieut. Elliott had found the Carlin party in the middle fork of the Clearwater, 130 miles from here, last Wednesday. The lost party were out of provisions and nearly barefoot. They were slowly making their way down the river on a raft. George Colgate, the cook of the party, gave out a few days before the rescue, and had to be left, and it is feared may die. All possible will be done to rescue him. The party is expected here Monday. Lieutenant Elliott went as far as possible with horses, when he made a skiff and had ascended the river 15 miles when he met the lost party.

WHIP AND SPUR.

San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The racing today resulted as follows: Seven eighths of a mile—Middleton, Donohue, Saratoga. Time, 1:31 3/4. Seven eighths of a mile—Cochico, Zampost, Abe P. Time, 1:31 3/4. One mile and a sixteenth—Don Fulano, Nomad, Gascon. Time, 1:52. Steeplechase—Annie Race, Return, First Lap. Five furlongs—Banjo, Red Beard, Amida. Time, 1:33 3/4.

TROUBLE IN THE BANKS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—An effort was made by the Hayes faction in the general assembly of the Knights of Labor this morning to elect their three men—Kenny, McQuirk and Martin—to the executive board, but without result. Powderly left the meeting before it adjourned. There are all sorts of rumors as to the reason. The Knights refuse to talk.

SUICIDE OF A SMUGGLER.

Portland, Nov. 25.—E. Brighton, sentenced yesterday to six months' imprisonment for smuggling opium, committed suicide in jail this morning by cutting his throat. He left a note to the coroner as follows: "I kill myself; do not cut up my body."

The instrument with which the deed was done was a razor which was furnished Brighton this morning by the jailor to shave himself.

REDUCING SALARIES.

Tacoma, Nov. 25.—The Northern Pacific has ordered a cut in the salaries of its employes. All monthly salaries between $50 and $75 will be cut 5 per cent, and those between $75 and $100, 10 per cent. A cut in those above $100 has already been made. The reduction does not include engineers and train men.

WANTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Tacoma, Nov. 25.—Governor McGraw will offer $500 for the arrest of S. H. Hart, president of the State Bank of Buckley, who skipped last week, leaving a shortage of $30,000. It is said Samuel H. Hart is not his real name. It is claimed Hart has wrecked five other banks in the same way previous to starting the bank in Buckley.

WILL NOT PAY INTEREST.

New York, Nov. 25.—The receivers of the Northern Pacific railroad company have decided to default on all interest due December 1st, except on the Duluth and Manitoba bonds, the payment of the interest on which is yet to be considered. The total amount due is about $1,500,000.
