INVADED BY TRAMPS

A Number of Walking Delegates Visit Ashland.

THEY BREW SOME TROUBLE

Two of the Lazy Fraternity Were Shot and Several Others Arrested.

Associated Press.

Ashland, Or., Dec. 1.—Seventy-four southward-bound hobo's stopped in Ashland last night. A gang of about ten or a dozen of them were intoxicated and up to mischief. They lounged about Roberts & Powell's saloon near the depot until the barker ejected them. It was after midnight when they returned and began breaking the windows and storming the buildings. Bartender Roberts was ready for them, and when they refused to heed his warning to desist, shot at them with a revolver. One man was hit in the abdomen and fell, but got up again and was not seen afterwards. Another was shot in the arm, but only slightly wounded. The latter, with three others of the gang, was arrested and kept in jail last night, but turned loose again this morning. The constable also fired upon a gang that invaded his cellar, but no one was hurt. Another crew of sixty or seventy were arrested on a freight tonight, but are a more orderly set. The chain gang was abolished in Ashland some time ago, but will probably be re-established shortly to meet present emergencies.

TARIFF TINKERING.

The Ways and Means Committee Working Hard.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The meeting of the ways and means committee was brief. The estimates to be submitted showing the probable difference in revenue that would result from the new bill are not complete, and the committee adjourned till Monday to give Clerk Talbot and assistants further time for the labor of estimating the revenue to be derived under the new tariff. The bill has progressed far enough to warrant the statement that on the basis of the imports of 1892, the loss of revenue resulting from the enactment of the new bill would be about $29,000,000 per annum. It is the conclusion of Chairman Wilson and his democratic associates that importations will be stimulated under the new bill that the loss of revenue will not be over $35,000,000. Mr. Tarsney, of the ways and means committee, still clings to the belief that the deficit cannot be supplied without extending the income tax to individuals. Senator Dolph, of Oregon, announces that when the new revenue bill comes up for consideration he will present an historical address for the purpose of proving that the United States never had any prosperity except when there was a protective tariff, and that from the colonial days free trade has meant debased labor. Representative Holman favors the income tax as a just and equitable mode of raising a revenue.

THE CARLIN PARTY.

Their Safe Arrival at Kendrick, Idaho, Yesterday.

Kendrick, Idaho, Dec. 1.—The Carlin party, which was supposed to have been lost in the Bitter Root mountains, arrived here safely with the exception of George Colgate, the cook, who fell sick and was left to die in the mountains. The party consisted of W. E. Carlin, son of Brigadier-General Carlin; J. H. Pierce, brother-in-law of Carlin; A. L. Himmelwright, of New York, and Martin Spencer, the guide. The party started to return home October 10th, but as the snow reached a considerable depth the horses were abandoned and the party started down the river on rafts which they were finally compelled to abandon also. They continued on foot until November 22, when they met Lieutenant Elliott with a relief party from Vancouver Barracks. The party was almost without food when rescued.

DUNBAR'S TRIAL.

Portland, Dec. 1.—The principal witness in the Dunbar smuggling case today was W. B. Jackling, who purchased most of the opium in British Columbia. The evidence was corroborative of that already adduced. The prosecution will probably occupy the whole day.

HIS ANNUAL REPORT.

The Secretary of the Interior Deals with Various Matters.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The secretary of the interior in his annual report, reviews the work of the department during the past year. He comments upon the utter inadequacy of the question thus far enacted to provide for the legitimate procurement of public timber to supply the actual necessities of the people depending upon it, to promote the settlement and develop the natural resources of public lands. Legislation providing for a more comprehensive forestry system is recommended. The work of the Indian bureau shows a steady advance in civilization. It is a mistake to suppose their number is rapidly decreasing in this country. Tribal wars among the whites having ceased, they are increasing and now number over 200,000.

LA GRIPPE IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1.—Physicians in Washington report the grippe quite prevalent. The symptoms of dizziness and nervousness are manifest, but the ailment seems to fix on the throat with particular virulence. It deprives many of the ability to utter a word, and in some cases causes a complete contraction of the vocal cords. Symptoms of inflammation are very alarming, and a great prevalence of throat troubles leads to the conclusion that this is a peculiar form of grippe, running in a sort of epidemic.

A HOT GLOVE FIGHT

California's Pride Bests Ryan of Australia.

THE AFFAIR DECLARED A DRAW

Police Interference in the Last Round Makes the Battle Unsatisfactory.

Associated Press.

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 1.—The eight-round contest between Young Mitchell, Pacific Coast middleweight champion, and Jim Ryan, of Australia, drew a big crowd tonight. Both men were in good condition. In the first round Mitchell did most of the leading, scoring first blood by two hot blows on Ryan's nose. Ryan landed on Mitchell's neck.

In the second round there was lively fighting, and both men bleeding.

In the third round, Ryan became groggy for an instant, but landed heavily on Mitchell's jugular.

In the fourth, Mitchell repeatedly got in on Ryan's heart.

In the fifth, Mitchell dropped Ryan with a hard one on the jaw. Ryan was groggy and weak. He tried a swing for Mitchell's jaw, but missed. Then he ran away from punishment.

In the sixth, Mitchell landed repeatedly, and Ryan was a mass of bruises, but took his punishment gamely.

In the seventh round, Ryan landed a few blows, but was sent to his corner groggy.

In the eighth round, Ryan was fresh and assumed the offensive, and landed heavily on Mitchell's face, following up with a shower of stinging blows. As this juncture the chief of police stopped the fight, which was declared a draw.

DOUBLE SUICIDE.

A Sensational Tragedy Enacted in Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—In the Virginia Hotel, located in the heart of the fashionable residence district of the north side, a dramatic double suicide occurred this morning. Behind a door, bolted and double locked, were found the bodies of Victor Cyrian, a drug clerk, and Mrs. Caron, the wife of a druggist for whom Cyrian had formerly worked.

The woman had died by poison, while Cyrian, after taking poison, had shot himself three times and lay stretched across the foot of the bed on which the woman lay. The couple registered under a false name as man and wife at the hotel last Thursday, and were apparently very happy. Letters were found on the center table, written by both parties to relations, showing a love affair to dear friends, and announcing their purpose to die together. Mrs. Caron wrote a letter bidding farewell to her husband and little child, "so young what will she do without mother." It is evident from the letters that both had taken poison at the same time, with the agreement that the one surviving the longest should die by the pistol. Cyrian had boarded with the Carons. The intimacy between the clerk and the wife of the proprietor was noticed last summer, but not by Caron until three weeks ago, when he found them in a compromising situation and Mrs. Caron and Cyrian disappeared at once. When the funds of Cyrian were exhausted by the high rates at a fashionable hotel, it was agreed to suicide as a solution of the trouble.
