AN INTERESTING DECISION.

The federal supreme court has just handed down a decision which is of no little interest. The case arose under section 5,246 of the revised statutes, which provides penalties for assaults committed by persons "upon the high seas, or in any arm of the sea, or in any river, haven, creek, basin or bay within the admiralty jurisdiction of any particular state, on board any vessel belonging in whole or part to the United States or any citizen thereof." This statute was violated by one Rodgers and others by an assault committed on the steamer Alaskan, at the time in the Detroit river out of the jurisdiction of any particular state and within the territorial limits of the Dominion of Canada. The judges of the federal court in Michigan on the question of the question whether they had jurisdiction in almost all instances were directed the supreme court of the United States, which has decided that the federal court had jurisdiction. Justice Field, who read the opinion, said that if the law in question could be applicable to offenses committed on vessels in any navigable river, haven, creek, basin, or bay connected with the lakes out of the jurisdiction of any particular state, it would not be reasonable to suppose that congress intended that no remedy should be afforded for similar offenses committed on vessels upon the lakes, to which vessels on the river in question stated, will, as to money matters, and upon whose waters they were chiefly to be engaged, and that if the term "high seas" applied to the open unenclosed waters of the lakes, the application of the legislation to the case under indictment could not be questioned, for the Detroit river was a river connecting such high seas, and all that part which was north of the boundary line between the United States and Canada was without the jurisdiction of any state of the Union. Referring to the use of the term "high seas" in the legislation by congress, the court held that congress must have intended that the provision of the act of 1825 should extend to vessels on the great lakes the same as to vessels on seas, technically so-called, for the reason that there are no bodies of water in the United States to any portion of which the term "high seas" was applicable if not to the open unenclosed waters of the great lakes.

Mr. Cleveland's message, it is superfluously stated, will, as to money matters, be built on the lines of Mr. Carlisle's speech. But the Hawaii business is where the rub comes. The idea with which Cleveland and Gresham gathered from Kentucky a minister to Hawaii, and proceeded to initiate him into a conspiracy against the country to which he was accredited, was that the job of setting up a throne and placing on it an unconstitutional and disreputable alleged monarch—the logical ceremony after Blount lowered the flag of his country—would be completely accomplished before the meeting of congress. The conspirators expected to tumble over the provisional government of Hawaii as easily as a few resolute men dethroned the barbarian queen. Well, the president and secretary of state have already been demonstrated to be blunders as well as conspirators. They have miscalculated. Their agent is in a quandary. Mr. Cleveland's great and good friend, President Dole, is evidently of the opinion that his white man's government is as good as that in South Carolina, and other Southern states, in which a majority of "the people" are blacks, and government by the people and for the people does not go on upon the basis of universal suffrage. Unless there is unexpected news, Mr. Cleveland must say some things in his message he had not expected to be forced to say.

Congressman Caminetti, of California, has found good material on which to found a case for the thorough improvement of the Sacramento river, at least as far as Red Bluff. At a season of very low water a steamer drawing thirty inches of water ascended as far as Red Bluff with slight difficulty. Here and there a little hauling had to be done over riffles, but practically no serious impediment was encountered. Red Bluff is 225 miles above Sacramento by river. The navigation can be improved for traffic all the year round at comparatively slender outlay, but whatever the expenditure, the work should be authorized without delay and a liberal appropriation made which will end pottering with the river here and there and render it serviceable permanently. When the channel obstructions are removed and a proper depth secured it is simply a question of supervision and timely work as occasion requires to render the improvement permanent.

Eight cars loaded with human hair arrived in Paris recently, consigned to dealers in that merchandise. The hair came from India and China, whence thousands of pounds are annually sent to England and France. This traffic, a foreign medical journal says, is the cause of the introduction of many diseases in Europe. The hair is cut from persons after death in China, and although it is disinfected upon arrival in France, it often carries the germs of disease. Asiatic hair, owing in part to its coarseness, can be purchased cheaply, it selling often as low as a franc a kilogram. The hair of Europeans, however, averages about 100 francs for the same amount.

A GOOD WORD.

Mr. J. J. Kell, Sharpsburg, Pa. Dear Sir: I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia which seemed to taunt the efforts of some of our best physicians, you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules. Gratefully Yours, MRS. E. R. HOLMES, Montrose, Pa. For sale by Chas. Rogers, Astoria, Or., sole agent.

IT MAY DO AS MUCH FOR YOU. Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for several years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures, but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles, and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove its value. Price, only 50 cents for large bottle, at Chas. Rogers' drug store.

A WONDERFUL MACHINE.

There is no doubt that man is a fine mechanism, but like every other machine he wears out by friction. It is said that he is born again every two or three years. His body is virtually remade from food. To retard this making over is radically wrong, as a man loses so much vitality in the delayed process that it takes a long time to recuperate. The process of making anew is so accelerated by purging with Brandred's Pills that a new man, as it were, may be made in two or three months, and the change in the mechanism is such that the worn out part is replaced by the new without the usual running down of the entire machine. You don't have to stop for repairs. Purge away with Brandred's Pills the old, diseased and worn out body. They are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

THE ART OF SINGING.

Mrs. H. T. Crosby, lately of Washington, D. C., (pupil of Anton Barill and others) begs to announce that she is prepared to take pupils in vocal and instrumental music. Instruction will be given after the school of the best masters, in the Italian method of training the voice. For terms and information apply to 118 Second street.

SEASIDE LODGE ELECTIONS. Astoria, Or., Nov. 29, 1893. The election of officers for Seaside Lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., will take place this evening, December 2nd. A report showing the financial condition of the lodge will be read. A full attendance is desired. By order of Master Workman.

S. E. McKELAN, Secretary. Astoria, Or., Nov. 18, 1893.

TOO OFTEN THE CASE. INTERESTING PROOFS.

A young society lady, after a round of gaiety, becomes suddenly conscious of an unusual sensation. She has frequent attacks of dizziness, her back aches, and she feels blue and generally run down. Mothers, look well to your daughters! Daughters, look well to yourselves! Let the first symptom demand the approach of disease receive your instant attention. Healthy women are the hope of the race, and it is well-nigh criminal to neglect anything which promises relief. There is hope for all sufferers from Nervous Diseases. Read what follows: Mrs. Jennie C. Davis, a fine artist and an accomplished authoress, of Westfield, Wis., had been subject to headache ever since she could remember. So severe were her attacks as to cause at times temporary delirium. All treatment had failed to relieve her, but after using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine she writes: "My record is to me, at least, satisfactory. No headache, constantly increasing appetite, and a consequent gain in weight of two and a half pounds in just one week." Six weeks later she writes: "Have read and read immoderately of late, but my headaches do not return." Mrs. John B. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., was attacked three years ago with turn of life in its worst form. It finally went to her head, and all indications were that it would result either in insanity or softening of the brain. Her husband thus writes: "It would be impossible for me to attempt a description of her sufferings during all this time. She was treated by our very best local physicians, with but temporary benefit. She has taken four bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and is cured. She has gained twenty pounds in weight. I tell you, she often blesses you for what you have done for her." Recollect that for the cure of all Nervous Diseases there is no remedy which approaches Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It is free from dangerous drugs and opiates. Sold by all druggists, on a positive guarantee, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
