ABOUT THE CITY.

The city council meets this evening. The engine companies held their usual monthly meetings last night. The steamer Geo. W. Elder arrived in from San Francisco yesterday morning. The barkentine Catharine Sudden sailed yesterday morning for San Francisco. The tug Wanderer left for the Sound Sunday, taking the old barge Ludlow in tow. Concerning Tribe, No. 7, I. O. R. M., met last night and transacted routine business. Much interest is manifested in South Bend, Wash., over the approaching city election there. The regular meeting of the Y's will be held at the usual place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. News comes from Ilwaco that the cranberry marsh will not produce more than half a crop, or 900 barrels this year. The British bark Port Yarrowck, 1248 tons, Capt. Forbes, has been placed on the list of shipping en route to this port from Antwerp. The police commission met at the city hall last evening, but as there was no business to transact, they adjourned until the next regular meeting. The appeal of the town of Ilwaco vs. R. C. Miller was not allowed by Judge Langhorn, because of appellant's failure to perfect in the time specified by law. An $50 lot for $2. Groceries cheap for cash at Howell & Ward's. The Belmont cigar can be had at Chas. Olsen's. The opposition pilots have withdrawn from competition, the share of the business which they secured, together with the loss of the rates, driving them out of the field. The steamer City of Frankfurt did not get down the river yesterday afternoon, having met with an accident by which the rudder was rendered useless for the time being. In consequence the usual Monday evening trip was not made. All groceries sold at bottom prices for cash at Howell & Ward's. Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. For $2 a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. Last Saturday evening Warrenton Lodge, No. 22, A. O. U. W., elected the following officers: P. M. W., A. B. Cyrus; M. W., Sidney Campbell; Foreman, N. W. May; Overseer, W. H. Bruce; Recorder, J. A. McIntyre; Financier, Wm. Hall; Receiver, F. B. Ketchum; Guide, Albert Hill; L. W., Joel Kindred; O. W., H. Erickson. For all kinds of job printing, go to Del. Ferguson, upstairs, Astorian building. Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's. For Sale—Three good lots at Smith's Point. A bargain. Address A. B., this office. The mechanical department of the Astorian has been moved to spacious quarters in the Elmore cannery. The new rooms have been fitted up expressly for the purpose. They are splendidly lighted with electricity generated on the premises, the power being furnished by the same dynamo. For heating purposes steam is used, and there is nothing wanting to make the room all that could be desired. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2. There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money. Water colors, crayons, and sepia crayons, copying and enlarging, a speciality at Crow's gallery, Third street. Seaside Lodge, No. 12A, O. U. W., Saturday night, elected the following officers for the ensuing term of one year: Master Wolkman, C. H. Gibbie; Foreman, J. G. Ross; Overseer, W. L. McCrosky; Recorder, Wm. Pohl; Financier, Thos. Dealy; Receiver, John Dryce; Guide, Robert Whidby; Inside Watchman, E. E. Shaw; Outside Watchman, Joseph O'Keefe; Medical Examiners, Drs. Estes and Tuttle, trustee for three years, Chas. May. The City Chop House and Restaurant at 410 Second street is open day and night. Everything first-class. Nothing but white labor. John Dragovich, Prop'r. Theo. Bracker keeps a varied and choice assortment of cigars, tobaccos, playing cards, cutlery, stationery, pipes, amber goods, etc. Those desirous of furnishing houses can find as good bargains at G. V. Porter's as at any other store in the Northwest. Give him a trial and prove it. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farley, who are well known in the theatrical world, and who have organized with marked success amateur theatrical companies in various cities throughout the country arrived in this city yesterday, and intend to form a company here. Mrs. Farley also intends organizing a class in elocution. In all probability an entertainment will be given at an early day under the auspices of one of the fraternal societies. Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the "East" when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

The memorial services of Quinin Lodge, No. 180, B. P. O. E., which were held at the M. E. Church Sunday evening, were very well attended. The house was filled, and not a vacant seat to be seen. The sermon, which was on the subject, "The Gospel Outgrown," was an able one, although a more appropriate name for the subject would have been "The Gospel not Outgrown." The pastor traced the history of the gospel through the ages that have past since it was written, and proved that while all other doctrines have weakened, the gospel has been steadily gaining strength. Fraternal societies, the speaker admitted, were the instruments whereby much good was accomplished, but they did not take the place of the church and the teachings therein. The sermon was much the best that Dr. Bushong has preached in this city. Wagner & Co. have a new line of souvenir spoons, watch, clock and jewelry repairing a speciality. Opposite the Astorian office. Rare bargains in jewelry are being offered daily by H. Ekstrom. Any article in the store can be had at cost price. The Coffee House, 522 Third street; best place for chops and steaks; oysters by the quart; received daily and always fresh.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Attorney La Force, who has been confined to his room with grippe, is convalescent. J. R. Morrison, of Skippam, is dangerously ill, and fears are entertained for his recovery. Miss Lulu Rice has been suffering severely from cold for several days and is unable to be out. Mrs. A. A. McKinney, daughter of Mrs. Capt. Gilman, of this city, died in Portland Saturday night. Rev. Dr. Bushong left for Portland last night to attend the semi-annual district association of the M. E. church. He will be absent from this city a few days. Captain M. E. Norwood, of the Salvation Army, leaves this morning on the steamer Columbia for San Francisco, and Lieut. I. Zellert left for Tacoma last night, new appointments having been made for the Astoria corps. With the wet weather comes an increasing demand for reasonable shoes, and the best place to get a fine pair made to order is at Fred Olsen's, Olney street. Anything in the line of gents' furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co., during the present month, at prices never before equalled. The Third street Coffee and Oyster house will remove to 474 Third street (the Monogram Cigar Store) on Saturday. Chicken dinner 4 p. m. on that date. Private rooms for parties.

Holden, secretary. The following communication from Mr. E. A. McKee, of Portland, was read, and referred to the committee on manufactures: November 27, 1893. President Chamber of Commerce, Astoria:—Dear Sir:—Having been appointed commissioner of the Midwinter Fair to be held shortly at San Francisco, and my department being that of fishing and fishing apparatus, I would ask you to do all in your power to urge upon our citizens the importance of making a grand display representing this great industry of which Astoria is the center. Later on I will confer with the various cannermen as to the time when their exhibits should be got ready, and also about transportation to San Francisco. Very truly yours, E. A. MCKEE. The committee on commerce which was instructed to correspond with the proper authorities for the removal of the wreck of the old ship Sylvia De Grace from the river channel, reported progress and asked for further time. The committee on commerce was, on motion of Capt. Gray, instructed to communicate with our congressional representatives in reference to Senator Squire's bill, No. 706, dividing the Thirtieth Lighthouse district. Communications from the secretary of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce on the subject of preserving pilings from the ravages of the teredo, were read and ordered filed.
