THE GREAT Issue of This Campaign

Is not whether we shall have FREE TRADE but whether we will consult our best interests when purchasing

AND get the "Chest Shield" Underwear, which is the only underwear manufactured which affords absolute

PROTECTION to the lungs and kidneys, the most vital portions of the body.

The "Chest Shield" under shirt opens in the back instead of front; is double both front and back, thus bringing the greater weight of the garment over that portion of the body needing protection. The drawers to match, are "Double Seated," extending to the waist, thus forming a protecting thickness for the kidneys, and increasing the wear.

These goods are especially adapted to all persons whose calling exposes them to the sudden changes of our rigorous climate, or who are troubled with either lung or kidney difficulties.

Be sure and see this Underwear before purchasing your winter supply

THE WORK OF A FIEND

Dynamite Bomb Exploded in the Chamber of Deputies.

MANY PERSONS ARE INJURED

Several Suspected Parties Under Arrest--Terrible Scene of Excitement.

Associated Press.

Paris, Dec. 9.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in the chamber of deputies this afternoon. Deputies Lemyre, Wilers, and one of the socialist deputies and an attendant were killed. A later report says one or more additional deputies were killed or injured.

The police allow no details to reach the public, notwithstanding it is insisted that two deputies are dead and many wounded, but probabilities are that the police statement is correct, though doubtless a number of deputies are wounded. Among them are mentioned Dumas, deputy from Allier.

It is said the bomb was filled with slugs, which were thrown in all directions, some going into the galleries. Fortunately there were but few people in the galleries. The police have arrested a number of persons in the galleries at the time. One is said to have been the man who threw the bomb.

It has been learned later that at least a score were wounded. It is now believed the man who threw the bomb escaped, and that he is wounded.

The prefect of police, the procurator of the republic, and the procurator-general hurried to the chamber as soon as they heard of the outrage, and at 7 p. m. all the entrances to the Palais Bourbon were guarded by gendarmes, and but few spectators remained in the vicinity. The police now admit that the contents of the bomb were spread all over the tribune and chamber, and that had it exploded on the floor instead of in the gallery, or more correctly speaking, as it was falling from the gallery, the number of victims would have been very large.

In view of the description given by the officer of the man who threw the bomb, the police are keeping a special watch over all who have been injured about the arms, and it is believed that though the man may have worn a light beard when he threw the bomb, it is quite possible for him to have thrown it off during the excitement which followed the explosion. The room reserved for the wounded at the Palais Bourbon has only one bed, and it was occupied by a wounded spectator. In the third bureau, an Associated Press correspondent recognized the Abbe Lamire lying covered with blood on a mattress supplied from the soldiers' quarters. The face of the wounded deputy was covered with bandages, and he appeared to be suffering great pain.

On a chair in the same room was a lieutenant of infantry who had two fingers of his right hand fractured. The lieutenant was in the tribune when the bomb was thrown. Eight or ten other wounded people were found around a table in the second bureau, where their wounds were being bathed and dressed. Nearly all the wounds were on the face, chest, or legs. In this bureau the most serious case was that of a lady suffering from a fractured knee cap. The wounded limb was placed in splints.

A correspondent found an elegantly dressed Austrian lady in the telephone room, badly wounded about the head, from which the blood was running freely. Col. Nazaret, of the Roumanian army, who was in the chamber when the bomb exploded, was badly wounded about the neck and hands. The colonel showed a piece of bomb which had been extracted from a wound in his neck. All the rooms in the Palais Bourbon are being converted into temporary hospital wards. The senior questeur of the chamber this evening was on guard at the door leading to the Palais Bourbon, and permits the deputies and officers who desire to do so to leave the palais in order to reach their families.

The Associated Press correspondent during the evening had an interview with Dr. Mahay, who was prominent among the physicians in moving to the assistance of the wounded. Dr. Mahay said most of the wounds are slight, but still it is impossible to give a complete account of their extent, as the projectiles thrown from the bomb had in many cases penetrated the bodies, causing internal injuries likely to have serious results.

Late tonight it was announced the police have in custody a man who on entering the tribune, refused to remove his overcoat when requested in the cloak room, and again at the entrance to the tribune. The man referred to is wounded, and was among the first carried out. Another man who attempted to evade the door-keeper and escape from the precincts of the chamber is also being closely watched. Some spectators recognize him as the bomb thrower, and his name is Lenoir. Six suspected people who tried to escape with Lenoir were detained for examination.

The report of the outrage spread like wildfire through the city, and eager groups collected in all the main thoroughfares, reading by the lights from the shop windows the accounts of the explosion published in special editions of the newspapers.

Two deputies, La Farronnals and Samary, who were present at the time of the explosion and who were allowed to leave the chamber, volunteered the following statement: "The bomb was thrown from the gallery above the right benches into which the public is admitted without the formality of presenting a card. A fuse was attached to the bomb, which exploded in the air. The report was not very loud, and it is thought the shell may have contained a mixture of nitro-glycerine and gunpowder. They could not believe it was loaded with dynamite. The smoke had the smell peculiar to nitro-glycerine. "We are of the opinion the outrage was not directed against any particular party in the chamber, as the bomb was thrown in the direction of the open space separating the tribune from the first row of benches, and had it exploded there, the list of fatalities would have been appalling."

This evening Deputy Lemire left the chamber leaning on the arm of a friend. Gen. Billot, who was in the strangers' gallery, was slightly wounded. Relatives and friends of the people detained at the Palais Bourbon relate this evening crowding around the chamber as far as the police permit, and anxiously inquiring for news.

Up to the present fifty wounded persons have passed through the hands of Dr. Blet alone. Altogether over eighty persons are wounded.

At midnight the excitement is still very great. There seems to be every reason to believe the bomb was thrown by an anarchist. The crime will undoubtedly result in strengthening the hands of the government and weakening the socialists, although they take great pains to denounce the anarchists. Nine deputies are known to be among the injured.

DEATH FROM FRIGHT.

Ashtabula, Ohio, Dec. 9.—Jerry Gray, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, equipped in a diver's suit, descended to the deck of the schooner Pelican, about 30 feet under water, and became entangled in the wire rigging. He answered the signals until about 8 o'clock. At 2 o'clock this morning he was released. Air was pumped to Gray during the whole time, and when taken out the water had not penetrated his diving suit. He died from fright.

ANOTHER SUSPENSION.

Walla Walla, Dec. 9.—At a meeting of the directors of the Walla Walla Savings Bank this evening it was decided to go into liquidation, and the doors will not be opened Monday morning. An application will be made for a receiver. The bank had a paid-up capital of $100,000. President Edmonston states all depositors will be paid in full. The embarrassment is due to the general stringency and the low price of wheat.

TRAIN DERAILED.

San Francisco, Dec. 9.—A private dispatch from Lisbon, N. M., states that last evening the west-bound train was derailed at that place. Four passenger cars were overturned and fifteen or sixteen passengers injured, none fatally. The cause of the accident was a loose rail, which is thought to be the work of tramps.

INTEREST INCREASES

Sensation Created in Honolulu by Editor Smith.

WILSON ROUGHLY DENOUNCED

Smith Threatens to Place the Ex-Queen into Court as a Witness

Associated Press.

San Francisco, Dec. 9.—The barkentine W. G. Irwin, which left Honolulu November 23d, brings advices up to that date.

Honolulu, Nov. 22.—(Correspondence Associated Press.)—The ex-queen has applied to the provisional government for protection, claiming that she fears violence from the foreign residents. The government at once detailed a squad of six police, which guard Washington place.

Attorney-General Smith states that the government is not anticipating a disturbance of any kind until the United States is heard from on the contingency mentioned by Minister Willis.

The natives have discovered the police stationed around Washington place and considerable excitement prevails among them, as the fact that the ex-queen has applied to the provisional government for protection has not yet leaked out, and the natives surmise the government has the ex-queen under surveillance.

Since the arrival of the British cruiser Champion, a rumor has been set afloat from native sources that in case of the restoration of the ex-queen or the princess whichever it may be, will apply to Great Britain for the future protection of the monarchy. At first the report was treated as unimportant, but inquiry shows that a prominent royalist and politician and leader claims to be directly informed that such will be the future policy of the monarchy if the United States can be prevailed upon to adopt the policy of restoration.

In exposing the methods of the monarchy for the benefit of the new United States minister, the Hawaiian Star reprinted from a San Francisco paper of last April an expose of ex-Marshall Wilson's embezzlements and of his notorious relations with the queen. Thereupon Wilson, whose written confessions of the crime are said to be in the hands of Minister Thurston, caused the arrest of Walter G. Smith, editor of the Star, for libel.

That day, in reporting the arrest, Smith re-affirmed the charges, and announced that when the case came to trial, he would put the ex-queen on the witness stand. The statement made great excitement, the royalists saying that they would revolt before they would allow Liliuokalani to be brought into court. Mr. Smith was arrested a second time, but in the next issue returned a hotter shot than before. Wilson then threatened in the presence of the marshal to assassinate, whereupon the latter armed himself and took occasion to pass Wilson frequently in the street. There was no bloodshed. In the meantime the annexation party raised a large sum for the editor's defense, and eminent counsel offered their services to him, as did the leading royalist attorneys to Wilson. The third day of the fight the Star denounced Wilson both editorially and locally, and the editor was re-arrested. In each case, except one where $100 bail was allowed, he was permitted to go on his own recognizance. Yesterday as a result of the continued exposures of the Star, Mr.

Smith was arrested twice, and is now in custody of the marshal. He announces it will fight the matter to a finish. As Wilson's career is notorious here, it is not believed that he intends to bring the suits into court unless in the event of the restoration of the ex-queen.

BAYARD ON HAWAII.

London, Dec. 9.—The Associated Press showed Ambassador Bayard its Hawaiian advices from Auckland. After reading it he said: "President Cleveland will deal with the weak Hawaiians in the most magnanimous manner and will not force on them a government which they had not a full chance of discussing." Regarding the dispatch published here today indicating that Cleveland had sent instructions to Hawaii reversing his policy there, Bayard said: "There can be no reversal of a policy based simply on justice and magnanimity. Cleveland's policy is one of non-interference. He had no intention of entering the islands and deposing the government."

CLEVELAND'S INTENT.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The restoration of the Hawaiian monarchy to congress is probably several days away yet. There is no ground for the assertion that he will strongly urge upon congress the importance of continuing the policy he has pursued in Hawaii of endeavoring to bring about the restoration of the queen by moral suasion. It is not believed he intends to ask for authority to use armed force, or to make war, except so far as the policy toward a friendly power can be interpreted as making war.

ALTGELD'S INFAMY.

A Merited Rebuke Administered to Him in Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—A great disturbance was created in the Germania Club, the leading German-American social organization in Chicago, on account of the action of the directors in refusing to accept and hang on club house walls an oil portrait of Governor Altgeld, presented by Philip Henrich, a club member. The governor's action in the anarchist cases was given as the reason for the refusal. This proceeding was in a great measure influenced by Dr. Emil Richter, German Imperial World's Fair commissioner, and Carl Baenz, German consul, both of whom declared they would not attend the banquet tonight of the Germania club if Altgeld's picture was received. At the banquet tonight the club rescinded the directors' action regarding the governor's portrait. Neither Richter nor Baenz appeared at the banquet, and Governor Altgeld sent a letter of regret. It was expected 300 people would attend the banquet, but only 150 appeared. It is said many leading members of the club have already resigned on account of this difficulty, and that other resignations will follow.

CAUSED BY TRAMPS.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 9.—The wreck on the Southern Pacific near Lordsburg, N. M., was the work of 135 tramps collected there, and who threatened to wreck the passenger trains unless they were allowed to ride on the freight trains.

OVER AN EMBANKMENT.

Spokane, Dec. 9.—News is received from Belton that the east-bound passenger train on the Great Northern struck a landslip. The engine, express and baggage car went over a twenty-foot embankment. It is reported several are hurt, and perhaps some killed.

BANK ROBBERY.

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 9.—The Plano National bank, twelve miles north of this city, was robbed by burglars last night. The robbers are supposed to be the Dalton gang. They secured from six to eight thousand dollars.

THE BRAZILIAN TROUBLES.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 9.—Advices from Rio Janeiro state that the Brazilian government has captured the insurgent general's depot at Armacao. Political arrests continue. All the papers except two have been suppressed.

WAITE IN A DILEMMA.

Denver, Dec. 9.—The News says if Governor Waite calls an extra session of the legislature to forward his silver scheme, he will be haphazard for his action in the penitentiary matter.
