

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Devlin were passengers for San Francisco on the Columbia.

The Lackme is awaiting favorable weather before crossing out, as is also the British ship Manx King.

If Eugene Vanvolesens, who came to this city from Portland about three years ago, is in town, he can receive information of personal interest by calling at this office.

The Stuts Theatrical Company produced "Tip Van Winkle" before a good-sized house last evening. The piece made a decided hit, the scenery being of an excellent description and the acting fully up to the standard. It will be continued tonight and tomorrow night.

The light ship was pretty badly tossed about last Friday night. As a rule the vessel is well ballasted with coal on account of her lightness, but the storm caught her as light as a cork, and during the blow she rolled in such a manner as to make the men somewhat uncomfortable.

An afternoon paper announces in one column that two-thirds of the people of Clatsop county are out of employment, and in another that "Mr. Stutz is demonstrating a fact that few people have ever been willing to admit: That a first-class family theatre at popular prices can be maintained" (in Astoria.)
