IN LEGISLATIVE HALLS

Debate on the Tariff Bill Closed.

WOOL INDUSTRY'S DEATH-KNELL

Three Days of Next Week to be Given to the Internal Revenue Bill.

Associated Press.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The tariff bill emerged today from its ordeal of amendments. It is now in perfected form so far as the house can perfect it. An additional day's debate next week will be devoted to the income tax. After reading the Journal, Haynes, democrat, of New York, made a point of no quorum. The speaker ordered roll call.

This is in pursuance of the policy decided on by the New York members to filibuster against the order from the committee on rules extending the tariff debate and authorizing the offering of the internal revenue bill as an amendment of the tariff bill. Roll call, however, developed a quorum and the bill was passed. The committee on the Wilson bill and income tax amendments, providing for a vote thereon February 1st. The special order was adopted. The house then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. The pending amendments were those relating to the lumber schedule. Doolittle, republican, of Washington, made a strong plea for the substitution of the lumber schedule of the present law.

All the amendments to the lumber schedule were lost. The pensions and District of Columbia appropriations bills were favorably reported. The pensions for 1885 amount to $151,581,570.

The tariff debate concluded tonight so far as it relates to the customs schedules. The time for offering amendments ceased at 5:30 when the house took a recess. There was a great deal of demand from both sides of the house for recognition for the purpose of offering amendments, but Wilson had the floor and not one got in. At least a hundred amendments were shut out. A series of amendments to the metal schedule, all making reductions, were agreed to, and the committee fixed the time for free wool to go into effect on August 2, and woolen goods on December 2. This was accomplished by a change of front on the part of republicans, who voted on a former occasion to have free wool go into effect immediately upon the passage of the bill. The last series of amendments were those reducing the duty on yarns 30 per cent and barley malt 25 per cent. Eastern and Western maltsters are fighting over the barley schedule, and Warner, in the closing minutes of the session, prevented a vote, making a point of no quorum. A good deal of excitement attended the wind up. The failure to vote on these amendments will leave them under the terms of the special order when the bill is finally reported to the house. Three days next week, under the order, will be devoted entirely to the consideration of the internal revenue bill.

The ways and means committee agreed to submit today a large number of important amendments to the bill. The vote was then taken on the lumber schedule, first on Mr. Oates' amendment, cutting the rates in half, and lost; and then on Mr. Boutelle's amendment, to substitute the McKinley law rates, also lost—79 to 21. Then the lead and zinc schedule was taken up. It was lost without division. There was also brought forward a series of amendments comprehending the whole metal schedule. The committee of amendments adopted—123 to 99. Johnson's proposition to reduce the duty on steel rails to 5 per cent was lost; also his amendments fixing the duty at ten and fifteen per cent was lost. The committee's amendment placing the duty at 20 per cent was adopted.

At 5:30 Wilson moved to close the debate. Carried—125 to 20. Warner raised the point of no quorum. The republicans failed to answer to their names, and the democrats could not muster a quorum. At 5:30 the committee rose and the house took a recess until 8 o'clock.

AN EASTERN BLIZZARD.

Boston, Jan. 27.—A blizzard struck New England last night about midnight, the worst of the season. Ten inches of snow have already fallen here with no signs of abatement. Railroad traffic in all directions is greatly impeded.

ORDERED TO NICARAGUA.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The Kearsarge has been ordered from San Diego to the Gulf Coast of Nicaragua in consequence of the reports that Honduras armies are marching into Nicaragua. The secretary of the navy sent this dispatch today to Admiral Stanton, on the Kearsarge, at Port au Prince: "The consular agent reports that the Hondurans are invading Cape Gracias a Dios in Nicaragua. Go immediately with the Kearsarge to protect the lives and property of American citizens at or near the neighborhood of Blue Fields, and report the condition of affairs. Matters are left to your discretion."

OUTRAGES OF MINERS.

Ruthless Destruction of Property by Incensed Strikers.

Pittsburg, Jan. 27.—Foreign miners along the Panhandle road near Mansfield, Pa., angered at the English-speaking miners for returning to work at reduced rate, this morning armed themselves with revolvers and other weapons and began going from mine to mine driving out the men at work. Several conflicts occurred in which a number of persons were hurt. The sheriff was informed that the situation is critical, and left at once with twenty-five deputies, with orders for more to follow.

This afternoon the sheriff was asked for deputies at Bridgeville, near Mansfield. A mob of two or three hundred is reported as stopping work at all the mines and terrorizing everybody. The sheriff is arming deputies as rapidly as possible.

At dusk it was estimated $200,000 worth of property had been destroyed. Maddened by fancied grievances and liquor, the mob of several hundred foreigners—Hungarians, Slavs and Italians—swept over the country surrounding Mansfield and attacked the mine owners, miners, and a few scattered deputy sheriffs, wrecked cars and destroyed property. Until noon the mob met hardly any resistance. It reached the mines of the Beading Bros., near Federal, on the Pittsburg, Chartiers, and Youghiogheny Railway. Here the rioters met a determined resistance, and were checked. With repeating Winchester rifles, Thos. Williams and Harry Beading stood their ground and opened fire on the mob. They fired four volleys in quick succession, fatally wounding one and injuring half a dozen others.

FORMALLY OPENED.

The Midwinter Fair Program Carried Out Successfully.

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—At twenty minutes past two this afternoon Mrs. M. H. DeYoung touched an electric button, and by this act the great California Midwinter International Exposition was given life. California's exposition became a reality, and the great multitude of people assembled there sent up a shout that drowned even the booming of artillery and the screeching of steam whistles. The day was one to make people glad they lived in California; not a cloud in the blue sky, and the sun's warm rays streamed down, making the air as balmy as a day in June. It was no January thaw, but common, ordinary winter weather such as California is accustomed to. Overcoats were a burden and wraps of all kinds were left at home. To the thousands of Eastern visitors the weather was the choicest exhibit of the fair, and not even the great Columbian Exhibition could in their eyes show anything to compare with this wonderful winter's day. The order of exercises followed at the opening of the Midwinter Fair was as follows: Selections, Midwinter Exposition Band; introductory address by the president of the day, James D. Phelan; prayer, Bishop Nichols; chorus of 300 voices; address, "California and Its Resources," Gov. H. H. Markham; selection, Iowa State Band; oration, Director-General M. H. DeYoung, followed by declaring the fair opened. Mrs. M. H. DeYoung pressed the electric button which starts the machinery. The oration of the day was "The General Benefits and Result of the Midwinter Exposition," by W. H. L. Barnes. Grand chorus of bands and voices, "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean."

PLEASURE SEEKERS DROWNED.

Milwaukee, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Robert Lunde, of this city, received a letter today saying the schooner Florence, of Holland, Mich., capsized near New Orleans and seven persons on board were drowned. The party was on a pleasure trip to Florida.

WILLIAM'S BIRTHDAY

Great Enthusiasm Throughout Germany.

SCENE OF DAZZLING SPLENDOR

The Emperor's Reconciliation With Bismarck Causes General Satisfaction.

Associated Press.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—The thirty-fifth birthday of Emperor William was celebrated today throughout Germany in the most elaborate and enthusiastic manner, and with a display of regard for the emperor never before manifested by the people of Germany, who, in addition to celebrating the Emperor's birthday, have been celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of his entering the Prussian army, and above all, the reconciliation between the emperor and Bismarck. Emperor William was born in Berlin January 27, 1859, and succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, the late Emperor Frederick, on June 15, 1888. The streets around the imperial palace were thronged with people at an early hour this morning, and Berlin itself, from the center to the extreme suburbs, presented a decidedly animated appearance. The ceremonies were opened by a royal salute of 101 guns fired a little before 10 a. m., at which hour the emperor received the congratulations of the members of the imperial family. The emperor then received the officers of his staff and chiefs of the civil and military cabinets, as well as a number of other distinguished people. After these visits the whole court attended an impressive religious service in the royal chapel. Immediately afterwards the members of the royal family and representatives of the royal families present proceeded to Whitehall castle, where a grand reception of all the notables in Berlin was held. The ceremony of giving out the parole and countermand occurred soon after amidst a scene of the greatest military splendor. All the celebrated officers of the empire were present. The variety of dazzling uniforms covered with glittering orders and stars was positively bewildering. Among the former ministers of state who attended the reception in Whitehall was Count Herbert von Bismarck, and speculations as to his future continued to be made on all sides. The belief is generally expressed that he will be appointed to some post of influence. The schools, both public and private throughout the empire, celebrated the holiday.

A SCENE OF CONFUSION.

Great Excitement in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, Jan. 27.—There was a turbulent scene in the chamber today, and the sitting was finally suspended by the president. Clovis Hughes interpolated the government on the recent arrest of anarchists and reproached the government with the prosecution as a pretext for suppressing the socialists. Raynall, minister of the interior, replied that the government only applied the laws passed by the deputies, and justified the seizures of correspondence by quoting extracts from the writings of Reclus. Raynall said it was difficult to distinguish between the socialists and anarchists. Other speakers continued the debate, and the session became so turbulent that the president was compelled to order the sitting temporarily suspended. Then followed a scene that has rarely if ever been equaled in the chamber. Men cursed and swore at each other, and shook their fists beneath each other's noses. Several breaches of the peace occurred, and one pugnacious deputy went so far as to challenge a fellow member to decide their differences by recourse to la savat. M. Thivrien, the so-called "workmen's deputy," who has already made himself notorious by wearing a blouse in the chamber, became so excited that he threw his cap in the air and shouted "Vive la Commune," and a number of Commune exclamations which entitle him to censure and expulsion from the chamber. President Deputy thereupon invited the excited deputy to withdraw the expressions. M. Thivrien refused to do so in most violent language, and loudly repeated the objectionable words several times; and in addition making an offensive gesture towards the president. The president had the guards remove him amid the greatest excitement.

ROBBED A MINE.

Gold Worth $10,000 Stolen From the Treadwell Mine.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 27.—The steamer City of Topeka arrived today from Alaska, bringing advices that the chlorination vat at the Treadwell mine, Douglas Island, was robbed last week of $10,000 worth of gold. The robbery was committed at night, and is enveloped in much mystery. The mine officials are using every endeavor to keep the particulars from the public. As is customary the water was turned on in the vat so that the gold might separate from the quicksilver and other refuse. The following morning the water was turned off and the vat was empty. All freight and baggage leaving Douglas Island is carefully searched by the officers. The superintendent has sent to San Francisco for a detective to take charge of the case.

A DIRTY POLITICAL TRICK.

Port Townsend, Jan. 27.—Judge W. R. Hoyt, United States commissioner to Alaska, arrived today and said some unknown person had forged his name to a letter of resignation and forwarded it to the secretary of the interior. He sent an affidavit repudiating the resignation, but says he received an answer from Secretary Smith accepting his resignation and appointing his successor.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PEACE.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 27.—Advices from the Associated Press correspondent at Rio de Janeiro announce that in all probability Rear Admiral Benham, in command of the United States war vessels there, has, after communicating with the home government, succeeded in arranging a peace between the government and insurgents, and that the rebellion is likely at an end.

BILL FOR THE ISSUE OF BONDS.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Representative Cummings, of New York will offer a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to issue $150,000,000 of ten-year three-per-cent bonds in denominations of $20, and multiples thereof, in order that they may be taken by people of small means. The proposition meets with considerable favor among members of congress.

FATAL BONE OF CONTENTION.

Dayton, Wash., Jan. 27.—At a country dance last night a row occurred in which Sid Armstrong and Marion Dunning fought with knives. Dunning was stabbed in the right breast and cannot recover. Armstrong was stabbed in the leg. The row started over a pan of spare ribs which Armstrong was helping a few friends to devour.

THE FINANCIAL QUESTION.

Paris, Jan. 27.—The Agricultural Society of France has agreed upon a declaration that the Latin Union, supported by America, will be strong enough to impose a monetary law upon the entire world. It was also resolved that if a new relation is adopted between silver and gold, the modification ought to be applied to the latter.

STEAMERS COLLIDE.

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—The steamer Columbia, from Astoria, collided with the ferry boat San Rafael in the bay this morning during a thick fog. The damage was slight. The ferry-boat had about three hundred passengers.

THINKS BOTH WILL PASS.

Washington, Jan. 27.—McMillan, who has charge of the income tax bill, says there is not the least danger that its incorporation in the tariff bill will defeat the latter, and that the passage of the consolidated bill is assured without a doubt.

AN AGED SUICIDE.

St. Paul, Jan. 27.—James B. Chapin, one of the best-known men in the Northwest, committed suicide here last evening. His age was 72 years. Dependancy over the loss of his fortune was the cause.
