WEEKLY. The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager. This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is five times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to the Astorian are requested to notify this office, without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour. By doing this they will enable the manager to place the blame on the proper parties and to insure a speedy remedy.

Handley & Haas are our Portland agents and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

The "nickel-in-the-slot" has developed a new danger, and one not previously apprehended.

A dispatch from Waterville, Maine, recently, states that a man 60 years of age, named Beaudouin, got a cigar from a nickel-in-the-slot machine, lighted it, and fell dead. These are all the essential details. Whether it was the quality of the cigar, or the fact that it was too strong for a man of 60, the dispatch does not say.

The people of the United States manifest a deep interest in the health of Mr. George W. Childs, who now lies almost at the point of death, and they ought to do so.

He is a man who has joined a clear head for business with a sweet sensibility and the most generous disposition. He was swifter to appreciate even than to endow. He has been benevolent because it made him happy to serve others. He has enjoyed his gifts more than those who have received, and he gave so gently that there was no sting in the benefaction.

Gentlemen:—This is to certify that I have used Krause's Headache Capsules with satisfactory results. I bought a box which cost me 25c, and one capsule cured me of a dreadful sick headache. My wife and myself have both used the medicine manufactured by the Norman Lichty Mfg Co, and we recommend them to the public as being just what they are represented.

A VALUABLE REMEDY.

Hon. Edmund L. Pitts, late president of the New York state senate, writes: "State of New York, Senate Chamber, Albany, March 11, 1886. I have used Alcock's Fronto Plasters in my family for the past five years, and can truthfully say they are a valuable remedy and effect great cures. I would not be without them. I have in several instances given some to friends suffering with weak backs, and they have invariably afforded relief, and in many cases, they cannot be too highly recommended."

soldders might not mind being paid in silver dollars, but they would probably have the same preference as others about pocket money, and they should not be discriminated against. There are plenty of silver dollars now for pocket pieces, if the people care for them. Three hundred millions of them are in the vaults, and can be had on demand for paper dollars. The government does not refuse to put them out. It does not force them on people with other preferences. The Denver paper talks as though fifty-five million dollars could be coined in a few days. The true meaning and intent of silver seigniorage coinage is to stamp more paper. The change in the shape of the silver would be of no consequence.

THE REVIVAL.

At the M. E. church Sunday evening, Dr. Bushong preached to a large and appreciative audience, on the subject, "The Cave Dwellers," from the text (2 Kings 19-9) "Elijah, what doest thou here?" The doctor gave a vivid account of Elijah's flight for fear of Jezebel's vengeance, and said in part: "After having performed such wonderful miracles, through faith in God, he seems to have suddenly lost faith, and seeks safety in flight. He wanders for forty days in the wilderness before reaching Mount Horeb, then he crawls into a cave to hide away from the world and from God; but God calls to him and asks, 'What doest thou here?' He answered that 'they have destroyed Thy prophets and all that call upon Thy name; and now they seek after me to take my life.' Elijah thought he was the only good man left, but God told him he had 7000 men in Israel who had not bowed the knee to Baal. How many there are who dwell in caves now. One class has the inscription over the entrance to their cave, 'Too many hypocrites in the church.' Another has the inscription 'Too much excitement there; I don't believe in it.' And so on through the long list of cave dwellers who can see no good in any one but themselves; so they wrap their mantles about their heads, and hide away in their silmy caves with lizards, bats, and worms. Why don't they come into the church and purify it, and set a good example for others to follow? As for excitement, have you not had a quiet enough time in all these years? Why did you not repent during this quiet time? Services were held as usual last night. At 3 o'clock this afternoon there will be a very interesting meeting, to which all are invited. Song service at 7 p. m. Regular preaching service at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THE COMPLEXION OF A CHINESE.

is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed a chronic form. The eye-balls of the sufferer assume a saffron hue, there is dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick headaches usually but not always occur, and there is sometimes dizziness arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendants of this very common ailment, always in its aggravated form, liable to breed abscesses of the liver, which are very dangerous. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters wholly eradicates it, as well as the troubles complicated with it, and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the Bitters, the liver is seriously involved. This fine alterative tonic removes coarseness and indigestion, rheumatic, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.
