DOINGS OF CONGRESS

The Federal Elections Bill Discussed.

TAMMANY SCORED BY FRYE

Boutelle Indulges in Strong Language in His Speech on the Hawaiian Question.

Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 5.—In the senate, resolutions from the Massachusetts legislature protesting against the cotton schedule of the Wilson bill were presented and referred.

The federal elections bill occupied the entire session of the senate today. Mr. Chandler concluded his speech and was followed by Palmer, who argued that the law having entirely failed of purpose, and being generally obnoxious, should be repealed. Palmer, in his speech, contrasted the attitude of the republicans towards the negroes in the south and the black men in the Hawaiian Islands, as being very solicitous for the rights of the former, while in the case of the latter they were only concerned about white supremacy. Frye reviewed the history of the presidential election of 1868 and the Tammany frauds in New York city, and asserted that Tammany was just as determined to avail itself of a violation of the law now as in 1868.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 5.—McGann, democrat, of Illinois, tried to secure unanimous consent in the house for the consideration of the resolution to investigate the action of Judge Jenkins in the Northern Pacific railroad case, the employees of which road had been enjoined from striking, but objection was made.

The Hawaiian debate was resumed by Morse, republican, of Massachusetts, who had five minutes, but before he had proceeded one, Outhwaite, democrat, of Ohio, called him to order for unparliamentary language. The language to which Outhwaite objected was as follows: "Strange to tell, at the command of their master, the great Grover Cleveland, his cuckoos in the house and senate, staunch southern democrats, the loudest shouters for a white man's government, disregard all their ancient traditions about white man's supremacy and a white man's government." The speaker ruled the language unparliamentary. In the meantime Morse's time had expired.

When unanimous consent was refused for consideration of the resolution it was referred to the judiciary committee. McGann says he will endeavor to have that committee report back the resolution at once. He would have secured the immediate consideration of the resolution today had it not been for the objection of Outhwaite. The latter explained to McGann that the attendance in the house was too small for consideration of such an important subject. There is little doubt of a favorable report on it, with a provision that the sub-committee of the judiciary committee be authorized to prosecute the investigation and send for persons and papers.

The Hawaiian debate again occupied the attention of the house at the night session, which was held for speeches by those who desired to talk, but who otherwise would not have an opportunity on account of the limited time allowed. The debate is attracting much less attention in the house than anticipated. This is, perhaps, partly due to the abandonment of the policy of restoration by the administration, and partly to the fact that the long tariff debate has surfeited the house. The principal speeches today were made by Johnson, of Indiana; Boutelle and Patterson, of Tennessee, and Black, of Illinois. "The honor of the American name," said Boutelle, "is being dragged in the dust by Grover Cleveland, Walter Q. Gresham, James H. Blount and Minister Willia. I have no words to express my contempt for their policy of treachery, duplicity and false pretense. You on the other side cannot condone this outrage; you cannot make this heroic." He characterized Gresham as a "disappointed and apostate secretary of state, who, in conjunction with the president, sought not only to uproot and overturn an American government, but to degrade the American navy by putting it under the control of Georgia politicians in order to get some one who would haul down the American flag. (Applause. When that order was written, whether by the secretary of the navy or the president, the constitution was violated, and he who penned it rendered himself liable to impeachment. As a partisan, he might well glory and gloat over the present policy of the democratic party, which," he added, amid republican applause, "had been spewed out by the American people." He concluded with a glowing eulogy of the American flag, reciting a few verses of a sort of apostrophe to the stars and stripes, written by a native Hawaiian. He was liberally applauded when he took his seat.

GEO. W. CHILDS' FUNERAL.

Prominent Editors and Publishers to Attend the Obsequies.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Arrangements for the funeral of the late George W. Childs, which occurs tomorrow afternoon from St. James' Protestant Episcopal church, are complete. Delegations from the Boston and New York press clubs and a number of New York publishers and prominent editors will come over from New York on a special train tomorrow morning. The International Typographical union will be represented by two delegates from New York and Philadelphia. The interment will be in Drexel mausoleum at Woodlawn cemetery, and will be private. The Typographical union of this city held a meeting this afternoon, and after adopting a suitable memorial, initiatory steps were taken towards the erection of a monument by the union printers of Philadelphia. It is stated subscriptions for this purpose have already been tendered, and a committee will be appointed later to take charge of the matter.

ANOTHER "LAST ACT."

New York, Feb. 5.—A special cablegram to the Associated Press from Rio Janeiro, dated last evening, says: "During Saturday night and Sunday the insurgents steamed their ships into a position of advantage, preparatory to making a decisive attack on the government position at Nictheroy Monday morning. It is understood this is to be a final and desperate effort on the part of the insurgents, and that on its success everything depends as far as the revolution is concerned.

Later information concerning the intended landing of insurgents in the neighborhood of Nictheroy show it was the intention of De Gama to send forces ashore Sunday morning, and that the admiral was led to believe the regiments of the national guard would join issue with the insurgents the moment the latter landed. The plot leaked out and the insurgents were compelled to postpone the attack.

BIMETALLISTS IN CONVENTION.

Boston, Feb. 5.—A meeting of prominent citizens was held here today to promote the establishment of an international bimetalism, and a representative committee was selected to push forward the work. The promoters of the movement are opposed to the free coinage of silver, but believe the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act affords an excellent opportunity for advancing the cause of international bimetalism. They think the needs of commerce will soon compel the international use of silver.

MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE.

Tacoma, Feb. 5.—Salvator Picani walked from the pale of the gallows today, although he had been convicted of the murder of Conchilla Salvador, the most brutal murder ever committed in the state. Picani's friends had a special bill passed by the last legislature, and in consequence his conviction was made practically impossible when he was granted a second trial. The murdered man was stabbed thirty-eight times, seven times in the heart, and his head was partially chopped from the body. The murder occurred two years ago.

THE DEAD-LOCK BROKEN.

Denver, Col., Feb. 5.—The senate majority in caucus this morning passed a resolution which provides that when the senate meets the members they will withdraw from the position they held refusing to transact business, and will consent to the consideration of a limited number of measures, including the appropriation bill. This will break the dead-lock which existed since January 19.

SALEM PAPER SUSPENDED.

Salem, Or., Feb. 5.—The Morning Democrat this morning announces suspension of publication.

SENSATIONAL RUMOR

An Indiana Paper Furnishes an Improbable Story.

HARRISON'S CALIFORNIA TRIP

Statement that the Ex-President is about to Marry Mrs. Stanford.

Associated Press.

Shelbyville, Ind., Feb. 5.—The Daily Evening Democrat says to-night: "The Democrat has learned through sources which it believes to be reliable, that ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Stanford, widow of the late Leland Stanford, will shortly be united in marriage at Palo Alto. The ex-president is now preparing to leave Indianapolis for Stanford university to deliver a series of lectures, and while there will be married to Mrs. Stanford, whose wealth is estimated at $20,000,000. She was a warm friend of the late Mrs. Harrison, and during the late republican administration the Harrisons and Stanfords formed a close friendship, and one which has terminated in the rumored marriage.

THE STORY DISCREDITED.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 5.—Efforts to see Mrs. Stanford tonight to verify the truth of the dispatch from Shelbyville, Ind. were unavailing. Mrs. Stanford's attorney, Russell J. Wilson, was shown the dispatch and he positively stated there was no truth in the report.

WITHOUT FOUNDATION.

Indianapolis, Feb. 5.—From a member of ex-President Harrison's family tonight it is learned there is no foundation for the rumor that he is to marry Mrs. Leland Stanford.

DISLIKE EVERETT.

Pittsburg, Feb. 5.—Corbett and Brady were asked if they had made the assertion they would let Jackson hunt the place for the mill, and Brady replied: "It does not matter who finds the place, as the articles call for the fight to take place before the club offering the largest purse. Everett, Wash., which is quoted as offering a $50,000 purse, is a water tank. It will not be bothered."

AN IMPORTANT MEASURE.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Senator Gray today introduced a bill to enable purchasers at judicial sales of railroads organized under the laws of the United States to organize a new corporation. The bill has in view the possibility of reorganization of the Union Pacific.

PROTEST AGAINST FREE WOOL.

Denver, Feb. 5.—About 50 sheep men from Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas and Nebraska met here at the opening session of the interstate wool growers' convention today to protest against the passage of the free wool clause of the Wilson tariff bill. Committees were appointed and a recess taken.

REPORTED BACK.

Washington, Feb. 5.—It is believed no hearing will be granted by the senate finance committee on the tariff bill, and that it will be ready to report back next week. The matter will be settled at a meeting of the committee tomorrow.

BATTLING FOR CONTROL.

Milwaukee, Feb. 5.—A great legal battle for the control of the Northern Pacific road is now in progress. Argument may occupy all today and part of tomorrow.

NO PREPARATIONS MADE.

St. Paul, Feb. 5.—Grand Officers Clara, Sargent, Arthur and Wilson emphatically deny the report from Tacoma that the Northern Pacific employees have received orders to be prepared to strike tomorrow. If a strike is ordered at all, it will be after the conference with the receivers, when a final effort will be made by the chairman of the employees' committee, backed by the grand officers, to secure the concession asked by the men. If successful, all is well; if they fail, no one can assert what will happen. Those in whose hands the matter rests refuse to speculate upon the possible action in case the conference fails to result satisfactorily.

BRITISH VS. FRENCH.

Liverpool, Feb. 5.—A dispatch from Sierra Leone announces further disturbances on the frontier between the British and French forces. A detachment of British frontier police, while encamped in the Sofa country, have been fired upon by a force of French native troops. During the conflict one Frenchman and five native police were killed.

WILL EXTEND THE FAIR.

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—The midwinter fair will be extended a month beyond the time first proposed. The managers have decided that as there was a delay of a month in opening it should be made up at the close. The fair will not close until July 31st, and probably not until August.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Postmasters—Frank S. Harding, McClintockville, Ore.; Abram W. Risner, Olympia, Wash.; Registrars of Land Office—Robert M. Vetch, at Roseburg, Ore.; Receivers of Public Money—Vincent Snelling, at Lake View, Ore.

FAVOR A FREE BRIDGE.

Albany, Ore., Feb. 5.—The special election held today to vote upon the question of placing a toll upon the steel wagon bridge across the Willamette at this city resulted in a majority of 49 in favor of maintaining it as a free bridge.

THE FEDERAL ELECTIONS BILL.

Washington, Feb. 5.—It is believed the bill repealing the federal elections law will be passed by the senate Tuesday, as it has already passed the house, and as there is no fear of executive opposition, it is highly probable it will become a law.

FORGERS IN THE TOILS.

The Hague, Feb. 5.—The police have unearthed an enormous forgery of bank notes. Notes to the value of 27,000 guilders have been seized, and eight men, including the leader, an American named Krause, arrested.

SENATE CONFIRMATIONS.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The senate has confirmed John T. Terry, receiver of public moneys, at Seattle, Wash.; Wm. P. Watson, public surveyor, Washington.

INSANITY AND SUICIDE.

Tacoma, Feb. 5.—Because her husband lost some property, Mrs. Frederick Jensen worried herself insane and committed suicide this morning by hanging herself to the doorknob of her bedroom.

CONGRESSMAN BUCKNER DEAD.

Mexico, Mo., Feb. 5.—Hon. H. A. Buckner, member of congress for three terms, died here this morning of a complication of diseases.

NO STRIKE ORDERED.

St. Paul, Feb. 5.—Grand Master Sargeant, of the Brotherhood of Firemen, now in this city, says there is no truth in the report from Tacoma, Wash., that a strike of the Northern Pacific trainmen had been ordered for Tuesday.

EXPLORER HEARD FROM.

Zanzibar, Feb. 5.—W. Astor, the American explorer, was heard from January 23, on his way to the coast. It is expected he will reach Mombassa on February 19.

PECKHAM'S NOMINATION.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The senate committee on judiciary adjourned till tomorrow, without action on the Peckham nomination.

THE HEARING CONTINUED.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Feb. 5.—The hearing of the Union Pacific employees in the matter of the reduction in wages was continued until Wednesday.
