

ABOUT THE CITY.

Three Se-Subsidy, success and solvency. Train and hall are pretty well sand-wiched nowadays.

The British ship Claf McPherson has begun loading in Portland.

Immediately after Lent the Ya will give a very unique and interesting entertainment.

Portions of the upper hills are loosening up again, as a result of the late heavy rains.

A long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together. There is a big fat, subsidy plum at the end of the rope.

The subsidy committee are evidently awake, and alive to the importance of a spontaneous movement.

The eastern newspaper men who have been writing up the midwinter fair left Portland Tuesday evening for Chicago.

At the drawing of Hill's lot clubs yesterday Neis Jago drew lot 33, in block 30, and A. F. Krager lot 35, in the same block.

Miss Luella Runyon, the chiropodist, who lately paid Astoria a visit, has been arrested in Albina on a charge of larceny of dress goods.

The license committee of the Portland city council has recommended the imposition of a tax on telegraph poles of $1 each per quarter.

The new ordinance to regulate bars, rooms and drinking shops is calculated to do away with the sale of liquor by the "drink" in grocery stores.

The remains of Mrs. Helga Vivian will be buried from the residence of Mr. Ole Haaven today at 1 o'clock. The interment will be at Greenwood.

The German bark Irene, Capt. Schumacker, which arrived in port a few days ago looking for a charter, went up the river yesterday morning. It is understood she will be loaded by Sibson & Kerr.

James W. Welch carried a handsome cane yesterday. It is a natural stick, mounted with silver, of a unique design, and was presented to the ex-councilman by his admirers in Columbia Engine Co. No. 3.

It is expected that the meetings of the subsidy committee today in Uppertown and Middletown will be largely attended, and that the spirit actuating those who go will be a healthy indication of Astoria's future.

Why should not the ladies take a hand in the subsidy fight, and by their timely advice win over the few property owners who still hold back like the still remembered Micawber, "waiting for something to turn up."

If a few doubting Thomases get together today, determine to give liberally, sign their deeds for whatever they want to donate, and hand them over to swell the subsidy list, what a work will have been accomplished!

Gustoff Merkle, who was in Pat O'Hara's "jaunting car" when it overturned on Tuesday afternoon, has recovered from the effects of his surprise and shaking. The injuries sustained were confined entirely to the vehicle.

The splendid success of the masquerade ball Tuesday night, given by the sons of Herman, was generally commented on yesterday, everyone expressing himself as delighted at the result. Peter Brach, who was presented with a souvenir, was much delighted with his experience.

It may be of interest to the public to know that the postoffices of Knappa, Clifton and Westport will continue to be served as at present by the steamer Mier, Capt. Babidge, Capt. John Rickerson, of the Mayflower, has secured the contract for carrying the Gray's River mail for the next four years, at the rate of $670 per annum.

An $80 lot for $3. Many is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

Lovers of a good cigar can always find them, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olson's. Hill's First addition is located in the centre of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

The meeting of the subsidy committee will be called to order at Hill's Real Estate Exchange at 10:30 sharp this morning, and the leaders of the movement desire the Astorian to state that the public are heartily welcome. No man with the interests of the city at heart should fail to respond to the call, if it is possible for him to be in attendance.

Hope and Country for February is rich in illustrations and variety, the magazine being highly entertaining as well as instructive. St. Valentine's day is properly remembered in this number in "Abboo and Abboo," an Egyptian Valentine on Papyrus, which is timely. The grotesque caricatures of 1,000 years ago, which illustrate the article, will be appreciated by young and old people and especially by lovers.

Postmaster Hare yesterday received official notification from the second assistant postmaster general that the Oregon Short Line and Utah and Northern railroad had been awarded the contract for carrying the mails between Astoria and Portland and way ports, for $12,000 per annum, to the 30th of June, 1895. This it will be noticed, is an advance of $3,000 over the rate that has been paid in past years. The contract stipulates for a "once a day" service, with the proviso that, if practicable, the company shall also forward mails by its own or any other night boats that happen to be running. The service will therefore remain the same as before, the Telephone assisting the Thompson in giving people along the river the double service.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Flashlight photos of the maskers; also printing on silk and satin, now on exhibition at Crow's gallery.

St-o-Iman's Soothing Powders preserve a healthy state of the constitution during the period of teething.

The new laundry ordinance introduced by Councilman O'Hara at Tuesday evening's meeting of the council is scarcely likely to meet with favor at the hands of the other councilmen, who will probably consider such a place a necessity. In addition to their usefulness, a strong argument in their favor is the fact that many a poor and honest woman is struggling to earn a livelihood by washing, and no jury in the city, or in the country, can be found to convict if arrests were made for a violation of such an ordinance.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

Ladies' writing desks, rocking chairs, and dining chairs, suitable for Christmas presents, at G. V. Porter's, Second street. Handsome crayon portraits with $25 purchases.

H. F. Tyson, the French consul at Portland, has received a letter from Captain Lelouet, master of the French bark Pierre Cornelle, stating that the vessel is coming to Portland, and the Oregonian. The Pierre Cornelle sails from Rouen and is owned by Prentout, Leblond & Boniface, the owners of Capt. Bodequet's ship, the Ville de Rouen, which was in port in March, 1892. Capt. Bodequet promised to send a lot of French ships to Portland, but this is the first of the line to head this way. The Pierre Cornelle was last reported at Pisagua, Peru, where she arrived January 10. Mr. Tyson says the vessel is consigned to J. H. Cameron & Co.

All the finest brands, including Belmont, Flor de Madrid, Lillian Nordica, and Las Palmas, are sold at W. T. Beveridge's Columbia Cigar Store.

Olsen has 29 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

Anything in the line of gents' furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equalled.

Tonight the Stutz Theatre Company will play to a very large house, composed mainly of members of the Astoria Football and Athletic club and their friends. The piece for presentation is the romantic French seven act drama, "The Two Orphans," and every care has been taken by the management of the theatre to score a marked success. The members of the club will meet at the gymnasium at 7:30 sharp this evening, and go from there to the hall, where a large number of seats have been reserved for them. Secretary Green, at the Occident hotel, will be able to furnish tickets to the members during the day. The Stutz band will be of course be "en evidence," and everything points to a most successful evening's enjoyment.

THE REVIVAL.

At the M. E. church last evening Dr. Bushong preached from the subject, "Two steps into the kingdom." The speaker, said in part: Two steps—Repentance and Faith—will take one from the kingdom of darkness to the kingdom of light. The children of Israel might have reached the Promised Land in two months, but by reason of their unfaithfulness, they were forty years in the wilderness, a Godly sorrow is repentance. "Know ye not that the goodness of God leadeth to repentance." God is grieved at man's ingratitude. You can never exercise saving faith in Christ without repentance, the devil gave faith, but without repentance. There is a line beyond which one may go, when God is unable to save him. His conscience has become seared as with a hot iron. Harden not your heart,

Several came forward to the altar at the conclusion of the sermon. There will be a men's prayer meeting at Y. M. C. A. hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Cottage prayer meetings will be held as follows: At the residence of Mrs. Oscar Wilson, 553 Sixth street, and at Mr. Iverson's, 9 West Eighth street.

Mr. Smith, superintendent of the city water works, gives notice in another column that he proposes to shut off the water from all water consumers that are delinquent on the eleventh (11th) day of each month, and that in the future, he proposes to see that the rules of the commission governing the payment of water rates are strictly enforced.

THE YOUNG'S BAY BRIDGE.

Senator Mitchell's Letter to the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

United States Senate, Washington, D. C., Jan. 25, 1894.—Hon. E. C. Holden, Secretary Astoria Chamber of Commerce, Astoria, Or.—My Dear Sir: I beg respectfully to acknowledge receipt of yours of the 18th inst., inclosing copy of petition sent by the Chamber of Commerce to the honorable, the secretary of war, asking for the approval of the site and plans chosen for the crossing of Young's Bay. Upon telegraphic dispatches received some time since—one from the mayor and one from Mr. Nolan, I, in company with Dr. Mullinix, visited the secretary of war and chief of engineers. The petition had not yet arrived, but we were advised that when it did it would be absolutely necessary—and this is the invariable rule—to send it to the local engineer in charge for report before action could be taken.

That same evening I received a note from the secretary of war stating that the petition had been received and referred to the chief of engineers; I also received a letter from the chief of engineers stating that he had on that day—now nearly a week ago—forwarded all the papers to Lieut. Taylor, at Portland, Oregon, the engineer in charge there, for report, if you have not already done so, you had better communicate with him fully.

I will give the matter my best attention on the return of the report and papers. Very respectfully,

JOHN H. MITCHELL.

Communications similar in substance have been received from Senator Dolph and Representatives Ellis and Hermann.

HE LOOKED GREEN.

How a Confidence Man Selected a Lawyer for a Victim.

Several lawyers were congregated yesterday in the office of one of the fraternity, and business being slack, story telling was in order. Among the "yarns" told was one giving the history of a visit to San Francisco by Judge McBride, a few years ago. It appears that the judge, who was then practicing law in Oregon City, had occasion to visit California, and was only a few hours in San Francisco when he was approached by a confidence man. "How do you do, friend?" said the stranger. "Quite well, thank you," responded the judge, who knew the stranger, but did not give any intimation to that effect. "A confidence man talked with his intended victim for some minutes, finally inviting him to go to a quiet place and have a game of cards. 'I never play cards,' said the judge, 'but as you seem to want some of my money, I'll give you $5 if you will tell me what you see about me that indicates I would be an easy victim. Take the money and tell me,' the judge concluded. The stranger was taken aback for a moment, but recovering his wonted assurance, listened to explain. 'Well, I'll tell you,' he said, 'you dress like a countryman, and I took you for a hoodlum.' Looking at the stranger from head to foot the judge, in his 'aw' way, remarked, 'It seems to me I'd be glad and pleased you once in Oregon City when you were tried for larceny. Do you remember me now?' The stranger made a most profuse apology, acknowledging his error, and promising to amend his ways, departed. 'Don't you want this $5 piece,' called out the judge, 'No,' was the reply, 'you're shrewd enough to take care of yourself and your money. Good-bye!'

TO OLD DIGESTION TAKE ONE SMALL BIC BEAN AFTER DINNER.

When war is declared.

Against a man's happiness by his stomach, the enemy may be pacified and brought speedily and easily to terms. That potent regulator of digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, disciplines the rebellious organ thoroughly, indigestion arising from weakness of the stomach, and the food in it, for want of the power to digest, decomposes and acidifies, giving rise to heartburn, flatulence and pain, besides a multitude of symptoms both changeable and perplexing. But peace soon reigns when the great stomachic is resorted to and used with persistence. Dyspepsia gives rise to morbid discomposure of mind, and even sleeplessness and hypochondria in chronic cases. To the complete dismissal of these the Bitters is fully adequate. Rheumatism, constipation, indigestion, rheumatism and malaria are completely subdued by this genial medicine.

A GOOD WORD.

Mr. J. J. Kell, Sharpburg, Pa. Dear Sir: I am glad to say a good word for Krause's Headache Capsules. After suffering for over three years with acute neuralgia and its consequent insomnia (which seemed to baffie the efforts of some of our best physicians) you suggested this remedy which gave me almost instant relief. Words fail to express the praise I should like to bestow on Krause's Headache Capsules. Gratefully yours,
