

THE SUBSIDY COMMITTEE.

Additional Names Added to the List of Those Who Stand for Progress and Prosperity.

Yesterday the members of the subsidy committee continued their efforts to raise the requisite amount of property, and, as on Monday and Tuesday, were rewarded with a degree of success that promises well for the completion of the undertaking by the end of the present week.

The following is a total list of the deeds already handed in to the committee. Many of the names, it will be seen, are included in the list of those who have subscribed the full 20 per cent of their holdings. The subjoined names are given in order to do justice to all who have subscribed, whether they have given one-fifth or less:

THE ASTORIAN

Exclusive

Telegraphic

Press Report

THE ASTORIAN is in possession of all the telegraphic news service franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches. The circulation is much greater than that of all other Astoria papers combined. The Weekly edition contains a carefully selected resume of the most important telegraphic and local news.

SUBSCRIBERS to either the Daily or Weekly may secure a valuable book, the Life and Works of James G. Blaine, by adding one dollar to the regular subscription price of the paper. The book is well worth three dollars, and may be inspected at the business office of the Astorian. A full description of this attractive premium is given elsewhere in this paper.
