

ABOUT THE CITY.

There will be services in the German language at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 2:30. J. G. Schmid, pastor.

There will be no preaching in the Presbyterian church tomorrow. Sunday school and Young People's meetings as usual.

Services will be held Sunday, the 18th, in the Swedish Lutheran church, Upper Astoria, at 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., Rev. J. W. Skans officiating.

Dr. Bushong announces that there will be a prayer meeting in Y. M. C. hall today, between 4 and 5 p. m., led by James Abercrombie. All are invited to attend.

The steamer South Coast, Capt. Higgins, from San Francisco, arrived in yesterday morning, and after discharging the freight for this port proceeded up the river.

Rev. Thomas McClelland, D. D., president of Pacific University, will preach at the Congregational church, morning and evening, tomorrow. Morning subject: "Higher Education." The Sunday school meets at 12:15 and the Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

At the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church there will be no service before the first Sunday of March. Rev. Nissen is visiting several Scandinavian and German settlements in the country. Mrs. Nissen will lead the Sunday school tomorrow as usual.

It is understood that Attorney C. R. Thomson, who represents James W. Welch in the latter's ten-year-old suit against the O. R. & N. Co., will again ask that the court continue the case for the term, as has been done so many times previously. The case has headed the docket of the circuit for several years, and still the idea is to let it drag along.

A letter was received in this city yesterday by W. W. Ridehalgh, from the secretary of the Willamette Rowing club, in which the hope is expressed that the Astoria team can yet be got together for a game of football, under Rugby rules, on the 23d inst., in this city. A reply will be sent stating that the weather conditions are such that a game is out of the question.

Sabbath in the M. E. church: At 11 a. m., sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Does it Pay?" At 6:30 p. m., song service, under the auspices of the Epworth Singing League, led by L. Pederson. At 7:30 p. m., Dr. Bushong will answer two questions propounded to him by some gentlemen of this city—"Is true spiritual Christianity sensational?" "Was St. Paul a sensationalist of the extreme type?" All cordially invited.

Postmaster Hare yesterday received a letter from the dead-letter office requesting him to revise the names and numbers of all the streets in the city, giving consecutive numbers to the houses on each street. This task is a difficult one, for the reason that the street nomenclature has not been attended to for some years, and some of the streets are either not named at all or are known by different appellations.

The Ciceronian society of the high school presented an excellent program yesterday afternoon at the usual weekly exercises. The several numbers were as follows: Reading, Miss Rose Cassell; recitation, Cecil Sovey; vocal solo, Miss Gene Lewis; essay, Paul Badollet; reading, Willie Curtis; recitation, A. B. Dalgity; song, by the choir; essay, Miss Lizzie Busey; recitation, Miss May Morgan; reading, Miss Amy Holmes; instrumental solo, Miss Winnie Goodman; recitation, Miss Annie Shively; reading, Miss Bertha Welch; instrumental solo, Miss Nettie Tuttle.

S. F. Loughborough, of St. Louis, is a guest at the Occident.

M. J. Kinney leaves San Francisco on the next steamer for Astoria.

C. H. Gray, of Chicago, was among the arrivals in town yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Hare will leave San Francisco on Tuesday next for this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Holden came down from Portland yesterday and are guests at the Occident.

P. D. Rand, editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, came down the river on the Telephone yesterday afternoon, and will sojourn here for a couple of days.

DOWN BY THE SOUNDING SEA. Once more democracy is able to assert itself in Oregon and a meeting of the unwashed has appropriately been fixed down at Astoria, beside the sounding sea, on April 17. A fitting place, indeed, for a democratic state convention, to put out a ticket that represents depression, ruin and false promises, before the people—better wash seven times in the salt tide and then go home.—Polk County Observer.

A RAPID TRIP.

As Told by an Old Mississippi Steamboatman.

Alex. Campbell, of "The Gem," at one time, away back in the '50s, occupied the position of chief steward on several of the leading steamboats which plied the waters of the upper and lower Mississippi river.

He can narrate some very entertaining reminiscences of those old days of steamboating, when a captain of a boat was a bigger man than a governor, and the steward was the most sought-after by the ladies of any officer on the boat.

He told a story yesterday that was worth re-telling, so here it is:

"Up at Keokuk, Iowa, there are some very dangerous rapids—in fact the most dangerous on the Mississippi river—and the United States government appropriated several millions to build a series of locks similar to those now being built up at the Dalles. Things boomed in Keokuk those days, and young civil engineers who received salaries of $125 a month, with the assistance of the contractors whose work they measured up, were able to spend twice that amount. One of these young wine-openers got on our boat to go down to St. Louis, and as he had a good deal of internal excitement aboard, the clerk cautioned him about sipping his state-room.

"Be sure and take off your boots," cautioned the clerk, "or the steward will throw you overboard."

"He got to bed all right and slept reasonably sound, but woke up about daylight while the boat was landing at Leola, Mo. It so happened this very-day old Dan Rice was to show at that point with his circus of trained animals, and as the river had a good sandy bottom the animals were right at the dock having a glorious bath. Our young friend walked out of his state-room, and as his eye caught sight of the camels, the elephants and all the rest of the menagerie, including the festive zebra, his astonishment was great.

"By thunder," he exclaimed, "last night I went to bed in Iowa, and now I have woke up in South America."

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

WE WONDER IF THE LIVER HAD ANY BONE IN IT.

Hello, Central.

Hello, Gimme No. 2.

Hello; is this Mista Brewster, the grocer?

Yes, mum.

Mista Brewster, do you deliver goods?

Oh, yes, mum; we deliver to all parts of the city and garrison.

Well, as we have just located in your city, coming from Astoria, and are desirous of securing a courteous and obliging grocer, we have determined to patronize your establishment.

Yes, mum.

Will you kindly step into McGoldrick's and purchase me a bit's worth of their very finest liva; with suet to fry it in?

Yes, mum.

And do you keep nutmegs?

Yes, mum.

Will you please send one with the liva? Send my order to No. 5860 Fruit Valley avenue and Seward street, north-west.

Madam, I am sorry to say that it will be impossible to deliver your order today, as our wagon is out delivering a yeast cake at the extreme eastern end of the garrison, which will take the greater part of the day, and if it don't arrive in time it will raise thunder instead of bread. Good-bye. (Bang.)—Vancouver Register.

FOR RENT—A good farm on Lewis and Clarke River. Apply to J. V. Martin, care Ross, Higgins & Co.

All the finest brands, including Belmont, Flor de Madrid, Lillian Nordica, and Las Palmas, are sold at W. F. Beveridge's Columbia Cigar Store.

SOMETHING DONE.

Over Two Dozen Property Owners Give Additional Deeds Yesterday—The Work Still Incomplete.

Yesterday the sub-committee of the subsidy committee made prodigious efforts to induce the property owners who have been holding off to respond to the call for a sufficient number of inside lots to complete the subsidy, and although they met with a degree of success far beyond that which was the reward of their efforts on Thursday, there are yet many who have still to be heard from. Some are men who, it would be reasonable to suppose, would be only too willing to accept the opportunity offered at present for a favorable settlement of the long-talked-of railroad question, but there is evidently a disposition to hold off, with the expectation that others may be persuaded to do all that is necessary. There is little prospect for raising more than a fifth of their property from the most liberal, and as there is no hope of success for the undertaking unless that proportion is secured from each and every owner in the city, the outlook is not very bright.

When the result of the day's work had been figured up by the committee, it was shown that additional deeds had been received from twenty-six property owners, as follows: A. H. Stone, C. J. Curtis et al., Maxwell Young, E. C. Lewis, Astoria Real Estate Association, O. F. Morton, G. Reed, Martin Dillon, Dr. H. W. Strickler, Cosmo Franciscovich, Rev. T. A. Hyland, J. Q. A. Bowlby, George C. Flavel, I. L. Osgood, W. E. Dement, Mary E. Carruthers, Sophia Kirchoff, H. A. Smith, John Lewis, Mary A. Jordan, B. F. Allen, Theo. Bracker, Sarah K. Saxe, James F. Carney, S. Freeman and J. W. Hill.

The following is a corrected list of the names of those who have done their share in full: Alfred Kinney, Van Dusen Family, G. Wingate, C. R. Thompson, James W. Welch, George Hill, H. A. Shorey, Nancy Welch, V. Boelling, I. W. Case, D. H. Welch, Peninsular Land and Trust Co., W. W. Wood and wife, W. B. Adair, Lafayette Park Co., A. McFarland, W. S. Kinney, Lyman Kinney, S. D. Adair, W. G. Howell, John Adair, C. H. Page, J. C. Dement, S. B. Crow, John Hahn, West Shore Mills Co., Isaac Bergman, J. H. Mansell, F. S. Damant, W. Edgar, Ben Young, D. McTavish, Charles Olsen, S. T. McKean, J. A. Fulton, J. F. Spittle, J. P. Dickinson, B. P. Packard, A. B. Dalgity, R. L. Jeffery, W. W. Parker, Mrs. B. Grant, J. N. Griffin, A. A. Schenck, C. S. Wright, Herman Prael, P. O'Hara, W. L. Robb, A. Danielson, John Kopp, Charles Rogers, Mrs. L. P. A. Barker, S. W. Shively, A. Holman, B. S. Ward, C. J. Trenchard, Columbia Land and Investment Co., A. H. Stone, C. J. Curtis et al., Maxwell Young, E. C. Lewis, Astoria Real Estate Association, O. F. Morton, G. Reed, Martin Dillon, H. W. Strickler, Cosmo Franciscovich, T. A. Hyland, J. Q. A. Bowlby, George C. Flavel, I. L. Osgood, W. E. Dement, Mary E. Carruthers, Sophia Kirchoff, H. A. Smith, John Lewis, Mary A. Jordan, B. F. Allen, Theo. Bracker, Sarah K. Saxe, James F. Carney, S. Freeman, J. W. Hill.

The committee will be gathered again today, and do not propose to discontinue their labors until they can announce that the railroad will be either a pronounced success or a decided failure.

OF INTEREST TO ATHLETES.

James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton College, Princeton, N. J., says: "I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after turning upon my profession I discovered such a remedy in Alcock's Porous Plaster. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. Alcock's Porous Plaster gives almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In cases of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise in 'sports' and 'distance' races and jumping, the muscles or tendons in the legs and feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected."

EXTENDED SYMPATHY.

"Do unto others as you would have done unto you" is a principle that should be shown in the following lines, the presumption being that sympathy is born, or akin to pain or sorrow: "Gentlemen—Please send Krause's Headache Capsules to name of the boxes to Flora Seay, Havana, N. Dak. Two boxes to Lillie Wilcox, Brookland, N. Dak. I have always been a great sufferer from headache and your Capsules are the only thing that relieves me." Yours very truly,

FLORA SEAY, Havana, N. Dak.
