IN LEGISLATIVE HALLS

Daniels Indorses the Hawaiian Policy of Cleveland.

OTHER MATTERS IN THE SENATE

Bland Unable to Secure a Quorum in the House to Vote on the Seigniorage Bill.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The session of the senate was devoid of special interest. Daniels concluded his speech on the Hawaiian question, and while supporting warmly the course that had been followed by the administration, declared that now there was nothing to do but recognize the new government and wish it God-speed.

After Daniels' speech, the bill for additional printing office facilities was taken up and discussed in a desultory manner the remainder of the day. Mr. Voorhees presented a petition signed by 4,000 citizens of Massachusetts in favor of the passage of the new tariff bill, and indicating that such legislation would be beneficial to Massachusetts industries.

Hon. recalled attention to the fact that this petition was really a petition for protection. In reply to an inquiry from Hoar as to the names of some of the petitioners, Voorhees said: "I see one petition name John M. Forbes, William Lloyd Garrison, Stetson Endicott and other names familiar in the history of the commonwealth."

A resolution was offered to amend the rules to provide that executive sessions be held with open doors, except when the president shall suggest that a matter requires secrecy or the committee recommends that a specific matter shall be considered behind closed doors.

At 1 o'clock the Hawaiian resolution was taken up and Daniels resumed his argument. It was 2:20 when he concluded, and Vest immediately called the bill to provide additional accommodations for the government printing office. It directs the purchase of a plot of ground adjoining the present printing office, authorizes the payment of $175,000, and provides for the erection of a six-story building. Pending consideration of the bill, the senate adjourned.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The house is still deadlocked on the Bland bill. At the opening this morning the sergeant-at-arms reported he sent 37 telegrams to absent members and received 15 replies, five that they are sick and ten that they are on their way to Washington. He had arrested Aspley, Gardner, Hillborn, Post, Randall, Lucas and Marvin, republicans. Aspley and Post were excused when it was shown they voted at the last session. The others brought before the bar of the house were excused, after giving satisfactory explanations, and Bland renewed his plea.

Roll call followed roll call until 4 o'clock, when it being apparent that Bland could not muster a quorum on the proposition, he moved adjournment.

The five members in custody who had not been excused were brought to the bar of the house. Like school boys they were ordered by the speaker to give excuses for being absent from the house without leave. The members crowded about the area, where the members were ranged in a row, and enjoyed the situation immensely. Burrows wanted to know if there was anything in the order to the sergeant-at-arms restricting the arrest of members to republicans. The speaker replied good-humoredly there was not. Rising to an alleged parliamentary inquiry, Grosvenor asked him whether warrants had been issued for the arrest of those democrats who refused to attend the democratic caucus last night. "I hardly think that is a parliamentary inquiry," replied the speaker. This was the last incident growing out of the arrest of the absentees. The members then laughingly resumed their seats. After the call of committees for reports, Bland returned to the seige to which he has been directing his attention for the past week. He moved that the debate on the seigniorage bill be closed, and upon motion demanded the previous question. Republicans and eastern democrats repeated their filibustering tactics and succeeded in breaking the quorum. The vote resulted, 165-9, within 9 votes of a quorum. On another call a quorum reappeared, only to disappear again on the next roll call. When the announcement was made, Bland stated that as it was evident a quorum could not be secured tonight he moved an adjournment.

PATENTS EXPIRED.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The patents on a large number of inventions expired by limitation today. Among the more important are the following: Breech-loading fire arms, C. Estabrook, Boston; overstock sewing machine, W. A. Palmer, Johnston, N. Y.; mowers, Wm.

S. Stone, New Philadelphia, Ohio; sewing machines, E. H. Smith, New York; threshing machines, John H. Millard, St. Paul; speed and distance indicators, G. Jessor, Portland, Ore.; revolving fire arms, Daniel B. Weston and James H. Bixlard, Springfield, Mass.

DEMANDING WORK.

Boston, Feb. 20.—Five thousand unemployed made a demonstration on the Common this afternoon, which threatened a riot. In an ugly mood they crowded into the state house and adjoining ground and demanded immediate aid. The governor addressed them from the state house. He was received with applause, though he made no promises. An attempt was then made by the leader to get a petition before the legislature, then in session. A large force of police was called out to guard against any trouble.

The leaders tried to get into the legislative hall to present their grievances, while the crowd remained outside. M. D. Swift, an anarchist and spokesman of the mob, appeared at the balcony and announced that the legislature refused to accept the petition. The crowd broke into yells of derision and contempt. Then Swift launched into a tirade of abuse of the legislature. His threat to clean out the state house received shouts of approbation. A large number of policemen soon gathered on the scene. Swift was forced to stop his talk and matters quieted down.

The petition to the legislature, after reciting the troubles, asked the state to commence operations upon the proposed Cape Cod canal, to establish the commission mentioned, and to provide for state farms and factories.

ABUSES IN COLLEGE SPORTS.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 20.—In his annual report President Elliott attacks the abuses in college sports, and suggests the following changes:

- 1.—There should be no freshman intercollegiate matches nor races.
- 2.—No games, intercollegiate or other, should be played on any other but college fields belonging to one of the competing colleges, or in a college town.
- 3.—No professional student should take part in any intercollegiate contests.
- 4.—No student should be a member of a university team or crew in more than one sport within the same year.
- 5.—No football should be played until the rules are so amended as to diminish the number and violence of collisions between players, and provide for an enforcement of the rules.
- 6.—Intercollegiate contests in any one sport should not take place oftener than every other year.

FATAL PRACTICAL JOKE.

Cornell Sophomores Generate Chlorine Gas, With Terrible Results.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 20.—As a supplement to the regular annual class riot between the freshmen and sophomores of Cornell, the sophomores perpetrated a dastardly and dangerous trick by generating chlorine gas in a hall where the freshmen were holding a banquet. Several freshmen were carried out insensible from the fumes. A corps of physicians was summoned and prompt efforts made to resuscitate the asphyxiated students. Some waiters were overpowered and others were almost wild with pain. The hall is in possession of the police. Miss Jackson, a colored woman, who acted as cook for the students, died at 12:20 this (Wednesday) morning. Threats of lynching are made.

SUBSTANTIAL APPRECIATION.

Cleveland, Feb. 20.—The property which Gov. and Mrs. McKinley conveyed to trustees last summer when the governor was forced to make an assignment, has been transferred back to them. This result is due to the efforts of Trustees H. H. Kohlman, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean; Col. Myron T. Herdick, of Cleveland, and Judge Wm. R. Day, of Canton. When they received the trust they decided, without consulting the governor, to raise money with which to meet the governor's obligations. This has been fully done by private subscriptions. Finally the papers have been filed in the probate court at Canton, the property deeded back to Gov. and Mrs. McKinley and the trustees discharged.

ONCE MORE IN FRESNO.

Fresno, Cal., Feb. 20.—Sheriffs Scott and Kay and George Whitty arrived here from Visalia with Evans and Morrell. They drove up from Visalia and had an exciting time eluding the men who went in pursuit with the purpose of lynching Evans.

EVANS' SENTENCE.

Fresno, Feb. 20.—Chris. Evans was today sentenced to life imprisonment in Folsom penitentiary, and was started on his way under a strong guard at noon.

THE COLD WAVE.

St. Paul, Feb. 20.—The temperature is 11 below zero here; at Duluth, 20 below; Morehead, 22 below; Miles City and Minnedosa, 44 below.

HAD A REAL FIGHT

Government Troops Sustain Defeat in Brazil.

DA GAMA'S WOUNDS BUT SLIGHT

Desertion of the Nietheroy's Gunner—The Destroyer's Engines Break Down.

London, Feb. 20.—The Times tomorrow will publish the following dispatch from Rio Janeiro, February 16, via Montevideo, February 20:

Returns of the fight at Armacao last week show the total loss of the government forces to have been 550 killed and wounded, and 60 prisoners taken by the insurgents. On the insurgents' side 146 were killed, missing or wounded. Admiral Da Gama is in no danger. He states he has sufficient provisions and ammunition for several weeks, and will make every endeavor to maintain his present position until the arrival of the southern troops. The gunner of the Nietheroy's dynamite gun has deserted, and the remainder of the fleet is still at Bahia. The engines of the Destroyer have broken down, and they find much difficulty in obtaining crews. The Aquidaban leaves here Sunday to intercept the Nietheroy. Advice from Desterro state that a strong position at Iapa, the last foothold of the government in Parana, was taken Friday, after severe fighting, during which many were killed and wounded on both sides. The general commanding the government troops was wounded and 600 prisoners taken. De Mello is now at Desterro, with the Republic, and will probably come north shortly. Yellow Jack is increasing greatly. There have been three cases on the Austrian warship, and there are 15 cases in the British hospital.

WILL DEFER THEIR SESSIONS.

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 20.—The capitol commissioners are all in the city today, with the exception of Judge Burke. It has been decided to hold no sessions until McReavy's suit shall have been disposed of by the courts.

THE TARIFF TINKERING.

Washington, Feb. 20.—There is good authority for the statement that the senate committee on the tariff bill has decided on a small duty on lead ore and coal, and that iron ore will remain free as in the house bill. Sugar still hangs in the balance, the prevailing opinion being that as a compromise a duty of three-quarters of a cent per pound will be reported.

JUSTICE WHITE'S FIRST DUTIES.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Justice White will be sworn in March 5, that being the first day of the spring term. He will at once be called upon to take part in the consideration of more important litigation than has greeted a new justice in many years.

WYNNE'S RECORD.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 20.—Henry Wynnes, the miner killed in Jackson county on Friday by Al. Palmer, has a very sanguinary record, according to a Jacksonville mine owner who arrived here today. Wynnes came to Oregon from California 20 years ago and took up a claim of 500 acres of mineral land. This was more than the law allowed, but no one dared dislodge him. He worked his claim and is said to have cleaned up a large sum of money. Four years ago a young man started to prospect on his land, and in a few days disappeared. Two more prospectors a little later disappeared in the vicinity. In all half a dozen miners who went to work on claims there were suddenly lost sight of. It is said he murdered his wife in California.

PROPER PRECAUTIONS.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—A fear that the young lady teachers who instruct the Chinamen in the Sunday schools will be injured by association with the Celestials has caused serious trouble in the aristocratic First Presbyterian church. Some gentlemen of the congregation have an "Anti-Chinese Sunday Society." They claim that because a lady teacher is assigned to each Chinese pupil, young teachers are in great danger from close personal contact with the Mongolians. Cases of marriage of teachers and pupils are cited, and a determined effort to rescue the young ladies from possible peril will be made. An entertainment given by 100 Chinamen to the ladies of the church last night brought matters to a focus.

TO PROTECT SALMON.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Several representatives of the fishing interests from the Pacific Coast were before the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries today to make statements regarding the bill introduced by Herrmann, of Oregon, for the protection of salmon and other fish in the streams and tide-waters of Alaska. The bill makes it unlawful to catch fish by any means except the rod and spear, barring out nets, dams and other devices now in use.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

Washington, Feb. 20.—The president has sent the senate the following Chicago nominations: Martin J. Russell, collector of customs; Frank G. Hoyme, appraiser; DeLoes P. Phelps, United States sub-treasurer.

W. H. Fisher, postmaster at Roseburg, Ore.; and P. A. Darlin, at Golden, Wash. Registers of land office—Benj. F. Morris, Lewiston, Idaho; Albert G. Floyd, Walla Walla, Wash. Receivers of public money—Milton G. Gage, Boise, Idaho; Lafayette M. Flourby, Spokane, Wash.

PHILADELPHIA'S RETURNS.

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Philadelphia complete gives the following vote for congressman-at-large: Grow (Rep.), 117,286; James D. Hancock (Dem.), 28,346; Arthur D. Markley (Dem.), 1,212; Henry F. Morrow (Pro.), 706; Victor A. Lotter (Pop.), 295. Grow's plurality in the state is estimated at over 150,000, the largest ever received by any candidate.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.

Spokane, Feb. 20.—Major Sewall Truxal died here today. He came to Oregon 41 years ago, and at the outbreak of the civil war became captain of the First Oregon Volunteers. He served three years at Walla Walla and Papwal. At the close of the war he became Indian agent at Lapwai and thereafter at Walla Walla. In 1882 he became president of the territorial council. He was a 33d degree Mason.

THEIR RELEASE ORDERED.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Supt. Stump, of the immigration bureau, acting upon the recommendation of Immigration Commissioner Rogers, of Philadelphia, today ordered by telegraph the immediate release of four Irish weavers employed by Mrs. Ernest Hart in the establishment of ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker, at Philadelphia.

DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 20.—The supreme court has decided the law of 1893, empowering justices to sentence inebriates to institutions for the cure of drunkenness, unconstitutional, as it would in effect empower unofficial managers of drunk cure institutes to determine the duration of the punishment inflicted by the state.

STOCKTON INUNDATED.

Stockton, Feb. 20.—Indications are that the city of Stockton will be entirely flooded by the middle of the afternoon. The great storm has not ended, and a warm rain is falling and melting the snow in the mountains and foothills. The water is reported coming in with a rush, and at Holden station, seven miles east of here, it is four feet deep on the railroad track.

GROW'S POSSIBLE MAJORITY.

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Only a light vote is being polled in the special election for congressman-at-large to succeed the late William Lilly. The republicans may they will be satisfied with a majority of 100,000. Democrats say their vote is coming out, and expect to keep Grow's majority down to 75,000.

THE INSULT TO MORTON.

Nebraska City, Neb., Feb. 20.—The Otis county grand jury promptly investigated the hanging in effigy of Secretary Morton and his son, and found but two persons were implicated—S. T. White and H. A. Boerath, one a constable and the other a painter. Both have been indicted.
