

ABOUT THE CITY.

The steamship Columbia sailed yesterday for San Francisco. The ship Paetolus, hence with grain, arrived at Bristol on the 18th inst.

The mandate from the supreme court in the Hansen case is expected early next week.

There will be services in the German language at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon, at 2:30. J. G. Schmid, pastor.

A dance was given at Cathlamet on Thursday evening, at which 112 couples were seen on the floor. The affair was highly successful in every respect.

Morning services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow at the usual hour. Sunday school meets at 12:15, and the Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. There will be no preaching in the evening.

The British ship Port Yarrow, which recently went ashore on the Irish coast, all her crew, 25 in number, being lost, had on board a cargo of copper from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, valued at 170,000.

George Noland will assist District Attorney W. N. Barrett in the prosecution of the case of the State of Oregon vs. Charles Olsen, indicted for the offense of fishing for salmon during the close season.

Two strangers reached town yesterday in search of employment. Both are destitute, and make a total of five in all who have applied for assistance in this city since the beginning of the winter months.

Judge McBride yesterday made a ruling that will be of interest to attorneys in this city. It was that resident attorneys should be allowed to take papers from the court by giving the clerk a receipt therefor.

Services at the Congregational church as usual. Subject in the morning: "The Bible and Man's Wants." Evening subject: "What Shall We Do?" The Sunday school meets at 12:15, and the Endeavor at 6:30 o'clock.

The last of the Oregon grain fleet to arrive out in the Clackmannanshire, which reached Queenstown February 19, 117 days from the Columbia river. The ship's cargo consists of 51,777 centals of wheat, valued at $48,000.

Rescue hall was crowded last evening, the occasion being the entertainment given by the W. C. T. U. The "Experiences" were all related in such a manner as to prove very entertaining, and throughout the evening the large number present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Until further notice, the water will be shut off from the residences of communicants, except at 7 a. m., 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. Supt. Smith has decided to take this step in order to prevent any unnecessary waste until the main is repaired at John Day's. It will be some days yet before the repairs can be completed.

M. E. church—At 11 a. m., sermon by Rev. J. W. Bushong, D. D. Subject: "A Means to An End." At 6:30, Epworth League rally. At 7:30, sermon by Dr. Bushong. Subject: "One in a Hundred, and Who is He?" The citizens of Astoria all cordially invited, especially at the 7:30 service. The church members all expected to be present at both services.

Rev. Nissen went up the river yesterday to visit a couple of his regular preaching places. He states that there are a great many small Scandinavian settlements on both sides of the river, the residents of which are anxious to get the pure word of God in their own tongue, but the preachers of the old Gospel in the Scandinavian tongue are very scarce out here.

The funeral of Olaus Belland, who committed suicide in San Francisco on the 29th inst., will take place today. L. O. Belland, his brother, states that he has not yet received any particulars as to the cause of the rash act. During his residence in this city and at Fort Stevens the deceased was always of a jovial disposition, and the news of his death was a great surprise to those who knew him.

The lighthouse steamer Columbine will leave Portland for this city Sunday morning. Capt. Farenholt will come with her, and possibly Major Post. The tender's first work will be to carry a supply of coal out to the lighthouse, the Oregonian. Her future movements have not yet been decided upon. Capt. Richardson observed Washington's birthday by gaily decking his steamer with flags and she was photographed while thus equipped.

Last evening, about 9 o'clock, Sheriff Smith received information that a case of rape had occurred in Uppertown, the party complained of being Andrew Eskola. The sheriff at once instituted a search for the accused, and shortly after 10 he had him securely locked up in the county jail. The alleged victim of the assault is a child 11 years old. Eskola, when arrested, claimed he knew nothing of the affair, but from his nervous appearance Sheriff Smith was of the opinion that, if guilty, he will make a confession before morning.

Another fair house erected the Stutz company last evening in their rendition of "Fanchon, the Cricketer." Mr. Stutz distinguished himself as the handsome Landry Barbeau, as did also Jed Curton as Didier, the twin brother, and the Misses Noxon, Morris and Myers, in their respective roles, not forgetting Baby Alberta and E. Alma Sitts. The latter elicited rounds of applause in her famous "shadow dance" and song. "I wish I had a piece of string-e-e," etc. "Fanchon" is repeated for the matinee today and also tonight, its last performance.

The British steamer Signal arrived yesterday from Victoria with about 80 Chinese passengers, a number of whom seek admission here. The Signal has a quantity of Chinese merchandise and several hundred tons of coal. The latter will be discharged at the Union Pacific bunkers, and the merchandise at the bonded warehouse.

IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

The following communication will be found self-explanatory:

Astoria, Ore., Feb. 23, 1894. Editor Astorian: Referring to an article in your local columns this morning, in which my name is mentioned as one in a three-cornered contest for the Astoria postoffice, I beg to state that I have never filed an application, nor at any time have I considered myself as a probable candidate for the office.

E. C. Lewis. (It has been currently rumored around town that Mr. Lewis was a candidate for the office of postmaster, and some have gone so far as to say his appointment was assured. Hence the reference to him yesterday as an applicant for the position.—Ed.)

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

Ladies' writing desks, rocking chairs, and dining chairs, suitable for Christmas presents, at G. V. Porter's, Second street. Handsome crayon portraits with $25 purchases.

ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES. The exercises held yesterday at Court street school were of a high order, and were listened to by many appreciative visitors. Longfellow, Lowell and Washington, whose anniversaries occur so closely together, were each remembered, and the students fully entered into the spirit of the occasion, and came away wiser, better and more thoroughly patriotic. Space will not allow us to publish the program entire. Such occasions are productive of much good, and too much time can hardly be given to their preparation.

All the finest brands, including Belmont, Flor de Madrid, Lillian Norlica, and Las Palmas, are sold at W. T. Berger's Columbia Cigar Store.

Olsen has 25 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

Anything in the line of gent's furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equalled.

THE MINERVA SOCIETY. An Enthusiastic Audience at the Last Entertainment.

The increasing popularity of the weekly literary and musical entertainments given by the Scandinavian Young People's Society Minerva was thoroughly demonstrated Thursday evening, when an audience was present that filled the basement of Bethania church to the doors. The program was opened with a short address by Paul Stengeland, and the other numbers were as follows:

Recitation, Peter Walde; reading, Fred Johnson; vocal solo, Ludvig Christensen; reading, Chris. Tiddelevold; paper, Miss Annie Larsen; recitation, Miss Emma Erickson; reading, Miss Annie Gundersen; recitation of original poem, A. T. Brakke; reading of society paper, "Fremad," by Editor Olsen; debate on the question, "Which has caused the greater harm to man—alcohol or war?" A lively and prolonged discussion resulted in a verdict by the house that alcohol had been the cause of more harm.

Ten new members were elected. On account of the lecture by Edward Brekhus, there will be no entertainment next Thursday evening. An interesting program is in preparation for the following Thursday.

A good tenant can be found at The Astoria office for a house of 6 or more rooms.

I won't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your out fare to Portland.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conk's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria.

THINK HE IS A FRAUD.

Norwegian Papers That "Take No Stock" in Mr. Breakhus's Inspiration.

The Norwegian papers of Chicago denounce Mr. Breakhus, "the inspired," in vigorous language, and pronounce him either a fraud or a crank. Norden, the leading democratic paper of the Northwest, recently detailed a reporter to ask for an opinion from one of the professors in the Chicago medical college, and the professor sent the following letter:

To the Editor: In response to your request, I would say that in my opinion there are two explanations, and only two, that can be advanced in regard to such exhibitions as are credited to this individual Breakhus: They are fraudulent or evidences of serious nervous diseases. In other words, such men as Breakhus are either impostors or they are sick.

If the first explanation be true, the sooner the fraud is exposed the better for all.

If the second explanation be the true one, then there can be no greater harm done to the unfortunate patient than to encourage, and provide chance for the active manifestations of the disease in the way in which it is reported that misled ministers are doing in the present instance. It is positively and absolutely the very worst thing that could befall the patient, and the local authorities should take such decisive steps that all further designing performances of this sort were promptly stopped.

LUDVIG BRAKKE, M. D. Chicago, Feb. 12, 1894.

Skandinavien, the leading republican paper, published by the Norwegian-speaking residents of Chicago, takes a somewhat similar view, and if Mr. Breakhus ever reaches that section of the east it does not seem as if a hearty welcome will be extended to him.

Much interest is manifested in the coming visit of Breakhus to this city, and he will certainly speak to large audiences.

THE TEBO CASE. Claims He Was Illegally Restrained of His Liberty.

M. Tebo, who was arrested on December 10 last, called at The Astorian office yesterday, claiming that he "had been unjustly restrained of his liberty since that date by Sheriff Smith." He also claimed that Judge Cleveland, in the preliminary examination, held him to await the action of the grand jury on the sheriff's statement that he has a telegram from North Yakima stating that Tebo was also wanted there.

Mr. Tebo is evidently "drawing the long bow." In the first place, he was arrested on a warrant issued by Judge Cleveland on a complaint sworn to by J. G. Ross, of the Astor house, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. In the next place, the sheriff had no option but to hold him when Judge Cleveland bound him over, and in the third place, Sheriff Smith was in Portland when Tebo was examined. The cause of the complaint by Mr. Ross lay in the fact that Tebo had ignored the hotel man to endorse two drafts on a bank in the Northwest Territory, and had left for parts unknown before the drafts, which were returned unpaid, had been heard from. Tebo had once before drawn on the same bank for a small sum, and the draft was paid, and this fact, together with the fact that witnesses could not be got from Moos Jaw without great expense to the county, probably caused the grand jury to return "not a true bill."

If Tebo had been a sailor he would have achieved a great reputation as a "sea lawyer." During the time of his incarceration he asserted that he knew how to conduct his case, and "did not want to go before the grand jury." It is to be regretted that he apparently neglected his duty, he sent a note to Judge Mc Bride, asking his honor to call on him at the jail. His honor declined the invitation, and Tebo then accused the sheriff of refusing to deliver the note.

At the time of Tebo's return from Yakima, Jack Williams asked him what caused him to skip out, and Tebo's reply was that he "hadn't a bean" and thought there was no use returning.

G. C. Fulton was called upon last evening and asked what he knew of Tebo's case. Mr. Fulton said: "I was his attorney, and simply know that the complaint was sworn to by J. G. Ross, Sheriff Smith having nothing to do with the matter further than executing his orders. I may say further that on numerous occasions the sheriff and his deputies carried messages from Tebo to me and were certainly most courteous to him."

HEALTH IN OLD AGE. Edward Collinson, Queens, N. Y. says: "I commenced using Brandreth's Pills over fifty-five years ago. First bought them in London, and have continued using them since I came to this country in 1836. I am now over seventy-five years old, hale and hearty, and attribute my wonderful health to the persistent use of Brandreth's Pills. Occasionally I have a bad cold or severe attack of rheumatism, indigestion or biliousness, but four or five doses of Brandreth's Pills always cure me. Whenever my children have been sick with scarlet fever, measles, cold stomach, disordered digestion or typhoid, a few doses of Brandreth's Pills restored their health at once."
