ASTORIA, OREGON, WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 28, 1894.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

To My Patrons.

Having leased for a term of years a store in Kinney's brick building, where the insurance is only about half what it is in any other building in the city, with less rent and insurance, and able to transact our own business, which fact, and with the system of CASH and ONE PRICE, enables us to do more business in the same time than the same number of help in credit or two price houses. We purchase more goods in our line direct from the manufacturer, and sell them 16 2/3 to 33 1/3 per cent. cheaper (except a few staples that are sold close by all) than any other house in the city. With our arrangements just completed, we are able to say that we intend to sell goods closer than ever before in all kinds of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Trunks, Valises, etc.

NATIONAL LAWMAKERS

Congressman Pence Apologizes to Hainer of Nebraska.

NO QUORUM IN THE HOUSE

Resolution to Investigate the Action of Judges Who Issued Injunctions in Railroad Cases.

Associated Press.

Washington, Feb. 27.—In the senate a large number of petitions were presented protesting against a reduction in the duty on wool and other features of the tariff bill.

IN THE HOUSE

Washington, Feb. 27.—In the house, after reading the journal, Pence, of Colorado, rose to a personal explanation. This morning he discovered that an alleged news agency had erroneously reported his remarks in regard to Mr. Hainer, of Nebraska, and he had immediately written a letter of apology, which he sent to the clerk's desk and had read. He added he thought he owed a more explicit apology to the gentleman from Nebraska. What he said had been said in the heat of debate, following the direct charge that he desired the Bland bill defeated.

Cooper, of Indiana, was not satisfied, and gave Pence a severe scolding. He closed by a reminder that as Pence had large interests in the silver mines, and therefore had direct pecuniary interests in the pending legislation, he should be careful how he attacked the motives of other members.

Cummings, democrat, of New York, jumped to his feet and brought on a laugh by shouting: "If it is in order, I suggest now is an opportune time for some one to apologize for his remarks with reference to the New York democracy."

The house committee on judiciary decided today to make a favorable report on the bill giving clerks of circuit courts in California and Nevada twice the compensation now allowed, and retain fees to the amount of $7,000.

Bryan, democrat, of Nebraska, introduced a bill to amend the revised statutes so as to permit in civil cases a verdict of three-fourths of the jurors to stand as the verdict of the jury, and that such verdict have the same force and effect as an unanimous verdict.

The house at 4:40 adjourned. A resolution by Teller, requesting the president to suspend action in consolidating land offices, provided for in the sundry bill for the year ending June 30 next, was passed.

The house was again without a quorum on the Bland seigniorage bill, and falling of a quorum proceeded to debate without limit.

A resolution was presented in the house this afternoon by Somers, of Wisconsin, to investigate the action of several United States judges who have issued injunctions in railroad cases, including Justice Brewer, of the supreme court; Judges Taft and Ricks, of Ohio; Judge Pardoe, of Texas; Judge Beatty, of Idaho, and Judge Dundy, of Nebraska.

The title of the resolution to investigate the action of Justice Brewer is: "To investigate the circumstances attending the decision in the case of the United States vs. Kane, in the United States circuit court for the District of Columbia." The resolution specifies that a report shall be made to the house, "whether Judge Brewer exceeded his jurisdiction, abused the powers or process of said court, or oppressively exercised the same, or used the office as a judge to intimidate or wrongfully restrain the employees of any railroad or officers of a labor organization." The other investigations requested are of the action of Judge Taft, of the circuit court of the northern district of Ohio, in issuing injunctions in the case of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan vs. the Pennsylvania Company. The action of Judge Dundy, of the district of Nebraska, in the case of Oliver Ames and others against the Union Pacific railroad, January 27, 1894; the action of Judge Beatty, in the case of the Coeur d'Alene Mining Co. against the Miners' union, of Wardner, Idaho, July 11, 1892; the action of Judge Pardoe, of the circuit of the northern district of Texas, April, 1893. In the matter of Higgins et al., and Judge Augustus Ricks, of Ohio, in the Ann Arbor cases. These cases all involve the rights of laboring men to strike, and the decisions which are called in question extend over a term of years.

OBJECTS TO BEING SOLD.

Denver, Feb. 27.—J. B. Lyman, justice of the peace at Buckhawk, has appealed to the police of Denver to prevent the sale of Little Ling Sol, the first Chinese girl born in Colorado, by her father, to a wealthy Chinese merchant of this city, who already has two wives, but wants the girl, who is 15 years old, as a third. Little sent a Chinaman to Justice Lyman with a message asking him to save her. The Humane Society is investigating the case.

THE PROHIBITIONISTS.

Call for a State Convention at Salem April 4.

Portland, Feb. 27.—The executive committee of the prohibition state committee have issued the following call for a state convention: "Persuaded that it is, at all times, incumbent upon prohibitionists to keep their principles before the people, more especially in this transition period, to present to the suffragists of the state an open door which they may enter, so soon as they shall have reached the point of conviction, upon the most vital political, economic and social question that has ever confronted the American nation; to keep in vigorous life and activity the political organization which shall be the medium of expression of such conviction at the polls, we urge immediate and thorough county and precinct organizations, and call upon you to assemble in mass convention at Salem, April 4, for the purpose of placing in nomination a full state ticket."

WORTH SAVING.

The Kearsarge Will be Raised at Government Expense.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The remains of the Kearsarge will be raised from Roncador Reef, if the house committee on naval affairs has its way. Today the committee voted to report favorably the bill of Blair, of New Hampshire, but was more generous than Blair proposed. While his bill would appropriate $30,000, the committee decided to raise the sum to $45,000, with the proviso that the wrecking company shall receive not to exceed $10,000 if the attempt is a failure. Several proposals for raising the Kearsarge have been made, wrecking companies representing that the attempt would be a perfectly feasible one.

McEtrick, of Massachusetts, introduced a bill to incorporate an organization formed by veterans who served on the Kearsarge during the war. It is called the Kearsarge Association of Naval Veterans. The survivors intend to collect mementoes of the old vessel, and when the organization comes to an end, they will be given to the Smithsonian institution.

Secretary Herbert today sent Cummings, of the house committee on naval affairs, a letter endorsing the project for rescuing the Kearsarge. The secretary urged that any action toward the rescue be taken at once.

Bland demanded that the silver debate proceed, adding that the Kearsarge rescue and other projects would have to wait until the silver bill is disposed of.

INHARMONIOUS DECISIONS.

Conflicting Views of the Rights of Employer and Employee.

Omaha, Feb. 27.—On the application of General Solicitor Thurston, of the Union Pacific system, Judges Caldwell and Sanborn, of the federal court, issued an order that in view of the inharmonious decisions in various district courts on the proposed new wage schedule of the receivers, to the effect that receivers shall grant leave of absence and traveling expenses to representatives of the employees on all parts of the system to Omaha March 15, to confer with Receiver S. H. H. Clarke on the points of difference, and that all points not agreed on by March 27 shall be laid before the court for adjudication. The new schedule is meantime being abrogated. It was explained that the receivers, at a meeting in New York last week, decided to abrogate the proposed new schedule. Judge Dundy, of the district court, says the order by Judges Caldwell and Sanborn does not effect the standing of his order.

A FATAL SHOT.

Boise, Ida., Feb. 27.—At Blackfoot last night Deputy United States Marshal Rose shot and killed David Wright, Rose is special agent for the Union Pacific. He undertook to arrest some men who were taking coal from the train. They ran, and shots were fired to intimidate them, one of the bullets striking Wright, killing him instantly.

MR. WILSON'S CONDITION.

City of Mexico, Feb. 27.—Today's bulletin from Dr. Underwood, who is nursing Congressman Wilson at Guadalajara, is very encouraging. His pulse is steady, temperature nearly normal, appetite good. The Mexican physician has prescribed steak as diet. The patient is much prostrated, but it is now believed the crisis is past.

HARRISON COMING.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—Ex-President Harrison and party passed through this city this afternoon on their way to California.

THE KEARSARGE'S LOSS

Captain Heyerman Breaks Down During the Inquiry.

COULDN'T CONTROL HIS EMOTION

The Recollection of the Crew Proves Too Much for Him.

Associated Press.

New York, Feb. 27.—The court of inquiry ordered to investigate the wreck of the Kearsarge re-convened in the court-martial room of the Brooklyn navy yard today. There was one extraordinary scene to mark the day's proceedings. Capt. Heyerman broke down while telling the story of the wreck, and the court-room was cleared until he could control his emotions. Heyerman was asked if he had saved any of the ship's records, particularly the "rough" and "smooth" log books. "I made two attempts," said he, "after the vessel struck to save the log-books, as well as the night order book, knowing they would be wanted as exhibits in the investigation which I knew would follow. I was, however, only able to save my life."

Questioned as to his confidence in the charts and instruments on board of the Kearsarge, the commander said: "I had no doubt as to the accuracy of the charts and instruments on board. The night sextant was a little out of gear, but the other instruments were in perfect condition."

Heyerman, answering Judge Advocate Kelly's questions, said he had been in the navy since 1861, and had commanded the Yantic, Kearsarge and Pennacola. "I was sure the Kearsarge was so far to the north of Roncador Reef that I was well clear of it," said he.

"What was the discrepancy," asked the judge advocate, "between the point where you really were and where you thought you were when the ship struck?"

"About six miles to the southward and four miles to the eastward of the point where I supposed we were from our reckoning."

While referring to the exemplary conduct of the officers and crew while lying at the wharf, as well as all during the trying days on the Key, Heyerman became visibly affected at the recollection of the men's apparent deep respect and love for him. Recalling this devotion on the part of the crew proved too much for the bronzed commander, and his mouth twitched at the corners and big tears welled up into his eyes. He finally had to stop, owing to his emotions.

GLADSTONE RESIGNS.

London, Feb. 27.—The Evening News, of Edinburgh, announces, on what it calls reliable authority, that Gladstone has resigned as premier, but will retain his place in the cabinet, and continue to represent Midlothian. The reasons assigned are a cataract forming in one eye, which must soon be operated on, and the criticisms of liberal papers on him for not bringing the light on the house of lords.

The Evening News this afternoon says the premiership has been tendered to Lord Roseberry, who declined, and later it was offered to Earl Spencer, first lord of the admiralty, who accepted. Gladstone's resignation goes into effect at Easter.

MUST REMAIN IN FORCE.

Denver, Feb. 27.—Judge Riner, in the United States court today, ordered that the receivers of the Union Pacific keep all agreements between employer and the company in force in all parts of Colorado until further orders.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The democratic caucus today had rather a warm time. One of the senators said concessions had been made in the bill in favor of certain interests at the point of the bayonet. Brice said if concessions were made to the sugar interests to catch votes to help carry the bill, and to other interests west of the Mississippi river, he did not see what was left for the representatives of his state and of the eastern states except to get their guns and force them at the point of the bayonet, as others had done. The caucus decided to put machinery for the manufacture of cotton on the free list.

PEIXOTO'S FLEET AT BAHIA.

(Copyrighted, 1894, by Associated Press.) Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 27.—The United States at Bahia, B. P. McDaniel, telegraphs that all is quiet at Bahia, and Peixoto's fleet is still in the harbor. The approaching election, March 1, attracts little attention here, and the general opinion seems to be that the government candidates will win wherever the government rules supreme. Now it appears that 30 men and two officers were killed on board the insurgent transport Venus, formerly the Mercurio, destroyed Thursday last.

WHIP AND SPUR.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—The racing today resulted as follows: Five furlongs—Clara White, 1:03 1-2. Six furlongs, for three-year-olds—Trix, 1:14 3-4. Seven furlongs—Lionie B., 1:29 3-4. Half mile, for two-year-olds—Venus, 0:51. Six furlongs, for maidens—Rose Clark, 1:14 3-4.

THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 27.—In the provincial legislature today Beaven, leader of the opposition, offered a motion expressing want of confidence in the government on its financial policy, alleging mismanagement and misrepresentation. The motion is under debate.

THE BASEBALL SEASON.

New York, Feb. 27.—The National league of baseball magnates today closed its session, after adopting a number of amendments to the rules and a schedule of games for the coming season. The season opens April 15. Harry Wright, "father of the national game," was appointed chief umpire.

CHIEF ARTHUR'S WEALTH.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 27.—Investigation shows that Chief Engineer Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, pays taxes on real estate of a listed value of $45,000, which is about half of its real value. His personal estate is assessed at $3,150.

FIVE DOLLARS DAMAGES.

London, Feb. 27.—The jury in the suit of Victoria Woodhull against the trustees of the British museum for libel for keeping in the museum two books touching on the Beecher-Tilton scandal, found the books were libelous, and assessed a fine of 20 shillings.

THE ATCHISON MAKES A CUT.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—The Atchison has met the $20 rate of the Southern Pacific from the Missouri river to San Francisco. This cut is via Mojave, not Los Angeles. The Atchison expects to make no further reductions unless compelled to do so by the Southern Pacific.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—The exact amount of insurance on the stock of the Golden Rule Bazaar, which was destroyed by fire last night, foots up $142,000, divided between 23 companies. The loss incurred is placed at $218,000. The salvage is estimated at $20,000.

GUILTY OF LIBEL.

Nebraska City, Neb., Feb. 27.—Z. T. White, one of the parties who recently hanged in effigy J. Sterling Morton and his son, Carl M. Morton, was today found guilty of criminal libel. The penalty is $500 fine and six months in the county jail.

A NEW COMBATANT.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—The Missouri Pacific has also entered the fray in the California rate war today. The same rate as the other roads was made, and the company will route passengers via Pueblo and Ogden.

KNOWS A GOOD THING.

London, Feb. 27.—Ambassador Thurston, F. Bayard emphatically denies the report that he intends to resign.

THE GREATER NEW YORK BILL.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 27.—The "Greater New York" bill passed the senate—29 to 2. It had already passed the assembly.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.
