DOINGS OF BOTH HOUSES

Bland's Bill to Be Laid Before Senate To-Day.

THE URGENT DEFICIENCY BILL

The House Passes the Bill to Make Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, a Port of Entry.

Associated Press.
 Washington, March 5.—In the senate the Bland seigniorage bill was received from the house and referred to the committee on finance.

Stewart, of Nevada, objected to the reference of the Bland seigniorage bill to the finance committee, and asked that it lie on the table so it might be called up at any time. After considerable discussion this was agreed to, with the understanding that it be laid before the senate tomorrow.

Stewart introduced an amendment to the Bland seigniorage bill providing for the free coinage of silver.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, March 5.—In the house Breckenridge reported the urgent deficiency bill with the senate amendments. The latter were not concurred in and the bill was sent to the conference.

McCreary, of Kentucky, asked unanimous consent for the passage of the senate resolution for the appointment of a commission to represent this government at the Antwerp exposition.

Bailey, of Texas, objected to the bill to make Bonner's Ferry, Idaho, a port of entry. Passed.

After one or two more attempts to get things passed by unanimous consent, the house took up the regular order of business.

Delegate Josephs introduced a bill for the admission of New Mexico.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the pension bill.

Hepburn, republican, of Iowa, declared that the late Confederate states contributed not one dollar to the payment of pensions; of the $150,000,000 of internal revenue taxes the south paid less than $9,000,000; of $177,000,000 of customs receipts the south paid but $4,000,000; of miscellaneous receipts, less than $2,000,000. "South," said he, addressing the southern members, "you contribute less than $15,000,000 to the revenues of the government. How do you get that back? Nine millions returns as sugar bounty; $5,000,000 in pensions and $5,000,000 as deficit in postal receipts. You, therefore, receive back $3,000,000 more than you contribute; you contribute not a cent to northern pensions. What difference does it make to you what we do with our money?" (Republican applause.)

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was presented to the house today by Chairman McCreary, of the committee on foreign affairs. It appropriates a total of $1,513,738.76, which is $46,766.24 less than the amount of the last bill.

BLAZE AT DEADWOOD.

Omaha, Neb., March 5.—A disastrous conflagration is reported raging at Deadwood, S. D. All of Chinatown is already destroyed, as well as many business buildings.

The fire started in Fuschetti's saloon at 6 this morning and destroyed all that part of the town between Main street and Chinatown. But for the fact that no wind was blowing the whole city would have been destroyed. As it is, the best portion of it is in ruins. The loss will foot up over $150,000; insurance, $25,000. Demont's, Whalen & Graves, Starr & Wallerik, Halnes & Hein and Gibstone & Co. are the heaviest losers. The fire is now under control.

EXCITEMENT UNABATED.

Charleston, W. Va., March 5.—There is no diminution of excitement in the mining regions. A telegram was received from Eagle today saying the road from Eagle to Fayetteville is lined with armed men.

They are said to number not less than 600, with the avowed purpose of killing Wyant, as he is being taken by the sheriff to jail at Fayetteville. Wyant telegraphed the governor for a military guard, and it will be furnished him.

Twenty loaded Chesapeake and Ohio cars were burned by the strikers at Paint Creek this morning. A general outbreak is momentarily expected, as the strikers are becoming emboldened. Col. Wyant, under a guard of a full company of militia, was taken from Montgomery this morning.

A man was arrested on Morris Creek with two Winchesters and a peculiar looking dynamite bomb in his possession. He says he will turn state's evidence and confess to a plot that is being hatched to blow up all the works along the river.

FOUR URGENT REASONS.

President Ives' Request to the Bondholders of the Northern Pacific.

New York, March 5.—President Brayton Ives, on behalf of the directors of the Northern Pacific, has officially asked the bondholders of the company to withhold their acceptance of the agreement promulgated by the committee claiming to represent the consolidated bondholders, and states four reasons for his request. Those are that the publication of such an agreement is premature; that the scope of the committee is too limited; that the constitution of the committee is unfortunate, and that apart from the foreign interest hitherto represented by Mr. Villard, the committee owned and controls but a limited amount of bonds. Ives urges that while the Northern Pacific earnings continue to decrease, and in the absence of a full, accurate financial statement from the receivers, no basis for a plan of reorganization can be presented. The directors, Mr. Ives says, own personally large amounts of bonds and represent millions belonging to their friends. He finally urges that a new committee representing all interests be formed, or that the present committee be enlarged.

Washington, March 5.—At 1 o'clock this morning, on the Seattle, Lake Shore and Eastern railroad, three miles south of Sumas, Customs Inspector Flanagan arrested the notorious "Cowboy" Terry and two Chinese whom he was trying to get through to Seattle. Terry was in the customs service under Collector Beecher, and later a deputy sheriff in King county. About two years ago he was shot twice near Sedro in a fight in which several officers took part while attempting to arrest Chinese smugglers, and in which Deputy Sheriff Poor, of Seattle, was killed. Terry has been under the surveillance of officers near the border for a month past. He is now in jail here.

A SMUGGLER CAUGHT.

London, March 5.—The queen's speech proroguing parliament is purely formal, and only 15 lines in length. Lord Rosebery spent the morning conferring with the cabinet. A report, apparently based on this conference, is current that John Morley will continue chief secretary for Ireland. It is said to be definitely settled that Earl Kimberley, secretary of state for India, will succeed Rosebery as secretary of state for foreign affairs.

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED.

London, March 5.—The queen's speech proroguing parliament is purely formal, and only 15 lines in length. Lord Rosebery spent the morning conferring with the cabinet. A report, apparently based on this conference, is current that John Morley will continue chief secretary for Ireland. It is said to be definitely settled that Earl Kimberley, secretary of state for India, will succeed Rosebery as secretary of state for foreign affairs.

A CRANK ON HIS TRAVELS.

Washington, March 5.—A crank giving the name of Abraham Julius Kessler, of Baltimore, appeared at the white house this morning and announced he had come to have possession of it and turn it over to the Jews. He was not violent, but insistent. The attendants handed him over to the police.

THE HONOR WILL KEEP.

Washington, March 5.—The supreme court room was crowded today in anticipation of the newly chosen Justice White being installed. He did not appear, and it is learned he has decided to remain in the senate for a time. The court rendered a number of decisions.

ROSEBERY'S ASPIRATIONS.

London, March 5.—Lord Rosebery today visited the queen and kissed her hand in recognition of his appointment as premier. The St. James Gazette says it is reported that Rosebery will probably effect a reunion with the liberal unionist leaders.

THE ASYLUM CASE.

Salem, Ore., March 5.—In the branch asylum case today, Judge Burnett overruled the demurrer and made the injunction perpetual. March 25 was set to perfect the appeal to the supreme court.

TACOMA'S BANK EMBEZZLERS.

Tacoma, March 5.—The trial of Walter J. Thompson, Henry Drum, Samuel Collyer and R. J. Davis, officials of the defunct Merchants' National bank, has been set for next July.

WORK OF AN INCENDIARY.

Detroit, March 5.—The plate mill of the Eureka Iron and Steel Co. at Wyandotte, 12 miles south, was destroyed by an incendiary fire this morning. Loss, $100,000.

REAPER WORKS IN TROUBLE.

Springfield, O., March 5.—A suit for the foreclosure of a $50,000 mortgage and for a receiver and sale of Whitley & Co.'s big reaper works has been filed.

"LOVE YOUR ENEMIES"

So Says Archbishop Gross to the Catholics of Portland.

HE ISSUES A CIRCULAR LETTER

Deploping the Attacks Made Against the Catholic Religion—Excellent Advice.

Associated Press.

Portland, March 5.—Owing to the recent attacks upon the Roman Catholic church, Rev. Archbishop Gross has issued a circular letter of advice to the Catholics of this city. The letter says: "Of late there has been begun an assault upon the Catholic church in this country similar in its methods and aim to that of the 'Know-Nothing' party, which was so quickly and completely rejected by the American people. A number of speeches and lectures full of animosity against our holy religion have already been made, and many more will be delivered. We hereby make known to you our advice and heartfelt wish that you will remain away from such lectures and speeches. The misrepresentations and calumnies which you would hear on such occasions might arouse you to say and do things that are improper, and which in cooler moments you would repent of. It is sad to see men endeavoring to stir up a strife between citizens of our common republic who have been living in social harmony, notwithstanding the difference of creed. Let us love our enemies, return good for evil, and pray for those who persecute and revile us. Let us trust to the good sense of the American people to discern the slanders and falsehoods uttered against us, and imitate the splendid civil virtues of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton; Commodore Barry, Gen. Sheridan and a host of Catholics who have won universal esteem by their excellent citizenship."

McREAVY'S CASE.

Argument Before the Washington Supreme Court Yesterday.

Olympia, March 5.—The case of the state, on complaint of John McReavy, vs. Thomas Burke was heard in the supreme court today. The proceedings grew out of the removal by the governor of McReavy as capitol commissioner. The contention was that it is well established that where the power to remove an officer for cause is reposed in a tribunal or officer, that power cannot be exercised without notice and hearing, and that the exercise of such function is judicial in character and contrary to our idea of government, that any citizen should be prejudiced in property or reputation without notice and opportunity to be heard. Respondent held that the principal universally recognized was that the power of the legislature over the removal of an individual was unlimited except when proscribed by the constitution, and that in the exercise of such power the legislature may clothe any official with such power and prescribe the manner in which such power shall be exercised. When the constitution or legislature gives the governor the power to remove an officer, and is silent as to the modeto exercise, it follows that the governor may determine whether any cause exists for removal, and courts cannot dictate how he shall perform his duty.

MR. COLEMAN DEAD.

Eugene, Ore., March 5.—D. H. Coleman, who was wounded in Thursday night's tragedy, is dead.

PREPARING FOR A GENERAL

Massillon, March 5.—The national executive board of United Mine Workers of America will tomorrow issue a circular through President McBride and the secretary, in which all miners now on strike are advised to return to work. The board calls on all mine workers to hold themselves in readiness for a general strike for higher wages at as early a date as the national convention, which meets in April, may determine. It also calls upon all mine owners now on strike to adjust matters to the end that all may be prepared to strike together when the time comes.

THE AMEND HONORABLE.

The Oregonian Retracts the Statement Made Regarding Dr. Candlian.

Portland, Ore., March 5.—On Thursday morning last the Oregonian published a long story in behalf of Ermino Giolini, an Italian who is serving a life sentence in Walla Walla penitentiary for the murder of a man named Ricco ten years ago. An effort was being made to secure a pardon for Giolini, and in a published article which was printed with a good motive and out of sympathy for the prisoner, there was a serious reflection on Dr. C. F. Candlian, of Cascade Locks, a man of good standing. It was intimated that Giolini was a victim of Candlian's cunning, Candlian being virtually charged with the crime. The Oregonian was incited in the matter, and has published a full vindication and retraction to Dr. Candlian as an act of simple justice to him.

DECLARED CONSTITUTIONAL.

The Case of Shively vs. Bowly and Parker Finally Settled.

Washington, March 5.—The constitutionality of the tidewater laws of the state of Oregon was affirmed by the supreme court today in passing upon the suit of Charles W. Shively, plaintiff in error, against John Q. A. Bowly and W. W. Parker, which was a contest over wharfing privileges on the Columbia river at Astoria. Justice Gray affirmed the decision of the supreme court of Oregon, and asserted that when lands were granted under general land laws bordering on navigable waters, no rights to the land under water were given, and such rights depend on local laws. Congress never acted on the policy that tide-water lands could be given away piecemeal, but held them for public purposes under regulations which the states might make.

NEARLY COMPLETE.

The Wilson Bill Almost Ready For the Senate.

Washington, March 5.—The Wilson tariff bill was the subject of earnest consultation among the senators today. It reached a certain stage of completeness, and it is generally understood that if a definite agreement could be reached on sugar it would then be possible to agree upon everything else. It is understood that the demands made by democratic senators who opposed the bill in the form in which it was first presented have been met and tentatively agreed upon, but even these agreements are subject to the approval of the treasury department and the needs of the government in the matter of revenue. It appears, also, that the proposition for an increased tax on whiskey is mixed up with the proposed duty on sugar.

SURPRISED OFFICIALS.

Tacoma, March 5.—The decision of Justice Gray, of the United States supreme court, today, vs. the claim of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co. to control the tide lands and harbor line along its land grant near Tacoma, was a surprise to the officials here. The company had spent $250,000 in making improvements by which over a mile of made land was added along its tracks. When the state harbor line commission attempted to establish harbor lines a year ago the company secured a restraining order. The state appealed to the supreme court.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Washington, March 5.—The claim of the Northern Pacific to control the tide lands and harbor line along its land grants in the state of Washington, near Tacoma, was denied by the supreme court today in a decision in the case of Prosser et al. vs. the Northern Pacific.

THE LATEST CRUISER.

Washington, March 5.—The new cruiser Montgomery came into possession of the government today. She will be sent to Norfolk in a few days to be fitted out, and it is hoped she will be ready for commission about the middle of this month.
