

ABOUT THE CITY.

Jacob Peterson was fined $30 in the police court yesterday for drunkenness.

The British bark Eglisburgh, 2,093 tons, Capt. Greig, is on berth at London for this port.

The British ship City of York, hence with wheat, arrived at Sunderland February 27.

The populist baby has evidently grown weary of its wet-nurse, and refuses to take the prescribed diet.

The steamer Truckee arrived down from Portland yesterday. She is bound for San Francisco, via Tillamook.

On account of repairing, the street cars will not run from 7:30 Thursday evening until 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The sheriff collected over $7,000 of county taxes yesterday, and still a few disgruntled ones indulge in the cry of hard times!

The drawing of Hill's lot clubs yesterday resulted in Mrs. Myrtle Sloan getting lot 35, in block 30, and T. Dalgity lot 37, in the same block.

The Finnish Sisterhood was organized last evening at Suomi hall with a membership of 49. Mrs. Thompson was elected president, and Miss Wilson vice president.

A gentleman from the east is said to be investigating the limestone deposits in the vicinity of Frankfort, with a view of opening them up and supplying the markets of this section with lime.

A dispatch was received in this city yesterday stating that the steam launch Ida Hazel had been blown ashore the previous night at Ilwaco. It was expected she would be floated at high tide last night.

Senator Mitchell has succeeded in having passed a bill authorizing the L. R. & N. Co. to extend their line from the present terminus in Ilwaco to a point opposite Astoria. The line will run through Scarborough Hill Reservation.

The "L. S." sociable, by the girls of the high school, will be given on Saturday evening, at Odd Fellows' hall. A splendid entertainment will, it is said, be given, but its nature will not be learned until the audience has assembled.

The Kindergarten Magazine propounds the following interesting question: "If you had a slowly growing plant which refused to bud, would you take it by the stalk and pull it ever so little, or would you irrigate and sun it? How about the stupid boy in the kindergarten, or school, or house?"

The steamer South Coast arrived in yesterday from San Francisco. The freight for this port consisted of 1 case cigars, 20 mats rice, 3 boxes Chinese goods, 20 sacks flour, 102 sacks feed and 1 barrel whiskey. The consignees were A. Gilbert, Wa Hung Jan, Fisher Bros. and Johnson & Carlson.

G. A. Masse, the populist sheriff of Columbia county, who sometime ago absconded, leaving a heavy defalcation, has been heard from. He is at Cape Town, on the extreme southern coast of Africa. He writes his wife that he expects to send her money enough to reimburse his bondsmen.

Frank Cabaniss, arrested on a charge of vagrancy and malicious injury to personal property, was given his choice yesterday by Judge Osburn of leaving the city or having the charges against him pressed to the limit. He concluded to leave the city, and took the telephone last evening.

The Norwegian temperance literature which is disseminated in this city by the W. C. T. U. is published in this country, instead of being imported, as was stated in the report prepared by the ladies of the Union. Mrs. Kronquist, the superintendent of foreign literature for the W. C. T. U., states that the Finnish literature only comes from abroad.

A fire occurred in Muckle's store at St. Helens yesterday morning, starting just a few minutes before the arrival of the steamer Telephone on her way down the river. Capt. Crang had his men to work promptly with the steamer's hose, and soon extinguished the blaze. The building was not damaged to a great extent, but the stock suffered considerably from the water.

In a mention of the date of the next meeting of the Minerva Society in yesterday's issue, Thursday, instead of Tuesday, should have been given. The first meeting in the new quarters, Kearney's hall, will be held this evening. A splendid program has been arranged for the occasion, the debate being on the subject: "Resolved, That short engagements are better than long ones." The debate will be led by two young ladies.

The steamship State of California arrived in from San Francisco yesterday. For this port she brought 400 sacks of malt, 56 packages fruit and vegetables, 22 packages groceries, 44 packages hardware, 28 packages assorted merchandise, 11 empty trunks and 61 packages sundries. The consignees were John Kopp, Ross, Higgins & Co., Foard & Stokes, M. C. Crosby, C. R. P. Co., W. S. Mudd, G. W. Lounsbury. The State proceeded up after discharging her Astoria freight.

One of the officers of the circuit court walked hurriedly into the sheriff's office and stated to Deputy Sheriff Weeks that there was a bundle of books in the court room which Judge McBride had borrowed from Mr. Winton, and which, his Honor desired, Mr. Weeks should carry to the owner's office. Mr. Weeks promptly snatched his hat and made his way to the court room, where some one pointed out the books. The deputy picked them up, and with a look of mild surprise directed toward the bench as he realized the weight of the bundle, he started off and succeeded in reaching Mr. Winton's office after a hard struggle. Upon his return a general laugh greeted him, and it was then explained that no order had emanated from the court. The victim of the joke accepted the matter philosophically, but remarked, as he wiped the perspiration from his forehead, that he would carefully investigate the next order he received before executing it.

Evangelist Ford again preached to a packed house at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. This series of meetings is being well attended, and quite a number have become deeply concerned about their future welfare. Mr. Ford has a practical and effective way of presenting his thoughts, and as often "hits" the professing Christian as he does the sinner. The Baptist church choir furnished excellent music last night. The Congregational church choir will have charge of the singing tonight, beginning at 7:30.

The Stutz company gave the last performance of "The Pearl of Savoy" last night. Tonight "The Old Home, or Over the Hills to the Poorhouse," will be put on for a three nights' run, and also for the usual Saturday matinee. It is a comedy drama, with Mr. George Washington Nimrod. There has been a large sale of seats for this performance. "Regina, the Rabbi's Daughter," written by Mr. Stutz, is to be published in a continued series of "The Morning Baby," commencing with Sunday's edition, and distributed free. Later the play will receive its first production on any stage.

John Electric Trullinger is in a grievous condition, indeed. He hears voices in the night. Ghosts come to him and sit for hours about his head, talking loudly and threatening to hang him in the garret if he does not do his duty. John's duty is to sing a song at the next Elks' open session, and after trying his voice for the past week, he had made up his mind to funk, but the spooks (who are first cousins to the Elks' guardian angels) won't let him. Can't some one send up a rabbit's foot to the electric light foundry for John, so he can be relieved of the fantods?

Rumor that the Nominees Have Already Been Selected.

It is asserted that some of the advocates of the populist movement have already taken steps to form a ring and fix up a slate, and that at the last meeting of the Blue Jay club the following names were suggested for the various offices: For senator, Mr. Fry, of the Carpenters' Union, or Mr. Swenson; for representatives, C. W. Shively and J. W. Walker; county judge, E. C. Lewis; commissioner, C. S. Dow or James Cusick; county clerk, Jeff. Crandall; recorder, J. H. Langworthy; superintendent of schools, H. S. Lyman; coroner, Dr. O. B. Estes; justice of the peace, Charles Rogers; constable, Jack Reed; sheriff, Pat O'Hara. As the Blue Jay society is a secret one, it cannot be stated definitely that reliance can be placed on the report, which is only given for what it is worth. Several of the names mentioned are, however, those of life-long democrats, and in all probability the mention of their names in connection with the populist movement is without good reason.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

Popularity of the Recent Decision Against the Northern Pacific.

The news that the supreme court of the United States had reversed the decision of Judge Sawyer in the Northern Pacific land grant case has been received with pretty general satisfaction among the settlers on the Washington side. The lands involved are what have been commonly known as the "lap-lands," lying along the Columbia, embracing several hundred thousand acres, the title to which has been in litigation since 1854. Those who bought from the railroad company will now, of course, be compelled to institute proceedings for the recovery of the money paid by them for their land. One of the largest holders of this land is J. B. Montgomery, who had between 20,000 and 30,000 acres. The Northern Pacific made a strong fight to retain possession, and it was doubtless owing to efforts made by that company that the removal of Commissioner Sparks was brought about some years ago. It was Mr. Sparks who first held that the title of the Northern lapsed upon the forfeiture of the original land grant, and his head quickly fell beneath the official ax, Mr. Cleveland taking the stand that he was too officious.

DOWN IN ARKANSAS.

"Well, Jim, how's the ague?" "Didn't I tell you about that? Why, I went into old man Sharp's field one night about a week ago, and the old man got up and loaded his gun in the dark, and cuss me if he didn't blow me full of two grain quinine pills. I hadn't had an ache nor shake since."—Life.

BRAEKHUS 'CURES.'

The Impostor Narrowly Escapes Responsibility for the Death of a Sick Lady.

It has leaked out that Mr. Braekhus, during his stay here, took upon himself to cure the sick, and that as a result of the imposition Mrs. Bue, who resides on Arch street, had a narrow escape from losing her life. It appears that the lady had been seriously ill for some weeks, and about the time of Braekhus' advent here was recovering rapidly under the care of Dr. Janson. Mrs. Bue was confined to her bed for a time, but had just begun to regain strength and move around the house when Braekhus was brought to her house by some of his adherents. The "inspired" one went into one of his fits, and ordered the lady, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to go to church. She concluded to make the attempt, but the exertion proved too much for her, and she had to be taken home in a carriage. In future the services of a regular physician will be secured if there is any sickness in Mrs. Bue's household. Mr. Braekhus' excuse for the relapse was that the lady had not faith enough, and Mrs. Bue's friends think it fortunate that the imposition was not practiced before the patient became convalescent, as the result might have been fatal.

Another instance of the manner in which Braekhus humbugged the people is told in Uppertown. The impostor was taken to the residence of a lady who was suffering from consumption, but without being told the nature of the malady which he was expected to cure. As soon as he saw the patient and learned the real cause of her sickness, he coolly announced that the Holy Ghost had deserted him for the time being and he could do nothing.

THE SALMON MARKET.

Another Advance in Prices Looked For in Alaska Fish.

The market continues fairly active, says the San Francisco Herald of Trade. The odds and ends have been cleaned up on this coast, and also in the east, and as the remaining stock is in strong hands dealers need not be surprised if another advance in prices is made by the Alaska Packers' Association. Low prices have stimulated consumption. We hear that the outlook is favorable for a combination of Columbia river packers on similar lines of the Alaska Packers' Association. If this combination is formed a better condition of affairs can be looked for.

The London Grocers' Gazette of February 19 reports as follows: The demand continues fair, but the market is without excitement. The Ditton, which is the second steamer with Alaska salmon, has arrived, but with only a very small quantity, and as we mentioned before, there is very little of this kind of salmon to arrive this season. The Ditton has also a few cases of new Fraser river salmon on board.

ATHLETES OF THE PRESENT DAY.

J. E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, President of the Pastime Athletic Club, and Athletic Editor of The Sporting Times, writes: "For years I have been actively connected with athletic sports. I always found it to my advantage to use Alcock's Porous Plaster while in training, as they quickly remove soreness and stiffness; and when attacked with any kind of pains, the result of slight colds, I always used Alcock's with beneficial results. I have noticed that most athletes of the present day use nothing else but Alcock's Plaster."
