

ABOUT THE CITY.

Taxes are coming in fairly well at the office of the sheriff.

A daughter was born yesterday to the wife of S. Lapaduro.

The steamer Truckee went down to Fort Stevens yesterday, but did not cross out.

It is rumored that two companies of soldiers will shortly be stationed at Fort Stevens.

Rev. Allan Mackay will conduct services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow, morning and evening.

The streets received a much-needed cleaning yesterday, and now present a decidedly improved appearance.

The British bark Highland Home, hence with grain, was spoken December 10, in latitude 13.03 north, longitude 25.57 west.

A republican club will be organized at Warrentown on Tuesday evening. A delegation will go over from the McKinley club of this city.

Today is the last day in which to pay water rates. The water will be turned off promptly from the houses of those who are delinquent tomorrow.

The British bark Marlon Crosbie, which recently arrived at this port, was chartered at £1 13s 9d, to carry wheat to United Kingdom, Havre, Antwerp or Dunkirk.

All the intending participants in the coming athletic and gymnastic exhibition of the Astoria Football club are requested to be present at the gymnasium this evening.

Services at the Congregational church as usual. Morning subject: "Giving as an Act of Worship." Evening subject: "The Marvels of Jesus." The Y. P. S. C. E. meets at 6:30 p. m.

Quinn lodge of Elks will give a social session on the 27th inst., when the new officers will be elected. A number of the brethren from Portland will be present, and a grand time is assured.

Revival services on Sunday at Y. M. C. A. hall. An interesting service at 3:30 p. m. At 7:30 p. m. a special service for the non-church going people of Astoria, all of whom are cordially invited.

A fisherman stated to an Astorian reporter yesterday that salmon were being caught for the local market, and remarked that the Fishermen's union should take steps to have the offenders punished.

Among the latest charters reported on the coast are the bark Charles B. Kenney, 1,073 tons, and the ship Levi G. Burgess, 1,536 tons, both of which will take cannery supplies to Alaska for the Alaska Packers' Association.

The Clatsop Mill Company are cutting a good deal of clear spruce at present, for shipment to New York, where it is planned and sold for shelving and other such purposes. When dressed, this class of lumber brings, it is said, $55 per thousand.

Methodist Episcopal church, at 11 a. m., sermon by Dr. Bushong. Subject: "Gather up the Pieces." At 6:30 p. m., Evangelist Ford will conduct a "Pentecostal service." At 7:30 p. m., sermon by the pastor. Subject, by request: "The Devil—Who Made Him? His Two Greatest Lies." Let all who can attend the 6:30 service.

Another large crowd filled the Y. M. C. A. hall last night to hear Evangelist Ford. The large audiences that listen to Mr. Ford from night to night are growing more interested and enthusiastic. Several have turned from their former ways and have resolved to live better lives. The meeting tonight begins at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited.

A dead cow was found yesterday in a vacant building in Alderbrook where the populat meetings have recently been held. An Uppertown man remarked, in speaking of the affair, that perhaps the animal grew dependent over the prospects of a scarcity of grass when the farmers plow all their pasture lands so as to raise wheat to sell at $1 a bushel.

The entire program for the high school sociable at Odd Fellows' hall this evening will be furnished by the girls of the school. The boys will have their turn later. The object of the affair, as previously stated, is to obtain sufficient money to pay for the piano, and all friends of education will doubtless be present. The admission will be 25 cents, including refreshments, and children under 12 will be charged 15 cents. The program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

W. T. Beveridge, of this city, yesterday received the sad news of the death of his youngest brother, Henry Hurlbert Beveridge, at the Mare Island navy yard, on the night of the 7th inst. The deceased was in the navy, and although but 26 years old, had given prominence of rising to eminence in the service. He was considered unusually bright for his years, and his taking away just at the beginning of his career is much regretted by all who knew him. The cause of death has not yet been learned.

The Stutz company were arrested by another good house last night to witness "The Old Home." It will be repeated today for the matinee, also for this evening's performance, for the last time. Tomorrow night "Uncle Josh" will receive its first production. Both these pieces are particularly of comedy. "Uncle Josh" particularly so. Mr. Stutz continues to do all that is possible to give the citizens meritorious performances, and is deserving of liberal support, especially from those who desire to advance legitimate and moral amusement.

An $50 lot for $2.
Fresh fish and poultry at Welcomes' Market, next to Foard & Stokes.
Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

THE RAILROAD SITUATION.

The Young's Bay Bridge Question Satisfactorily Settled.

The Young's Bay bridge question has been settled at last, and that hindrance to the completion of the Seaside road into this city has been finally removed. The news reached this city yesterday, and the cause of the delay is fully and satisfactorily explained in the following dispatch:

Washington, March 9, 1894.
Hon. Alfred Kinney, M. D., Mayor of Astoria, Ore.: Everything all right. Duplicate license papers being prepared in the department authorizing the bridge. Will be forwarded in a few days for execution by the company. Delay caused by the secretary's absence.
JOHN H. MITCHELL.

The subsidy committee are now awaiting news from Messrs. Baxter and Dickinson that they are ready to sign the contract. There have been disquieting rumors afloat for the past few days about the status of the railroad situation, but the subsidy committee are satisfied that work will be begun in the course of a few weeks by some one or other of the parties who have expressed themselves as willing to accept the magnificent subsidy offered.

The Stanton party have not yet been heard from, as far as any proposition is concerned, but they have been inquiring into the value of the subsidy, and are apparently willing to enter into contract if an opportunity is furnished.

Some more of the members of the right-of-way committee returned home last evening, and report satisfactory progress.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's.

If you want a first class photograph, call on Crow, the Photographer, 638 Third street.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The Wallman-Bracker Case Draws a Large Attendance.

Judge McBride convened court yesterday at 9:30, and proceeded with the case of Frame & Stowell vs. Charles F. Sitter. Plaintiffs declining to further amend their complaint, the court dismissed the case and ordered the costs assessed to them.

The case of Fremont Cobb vs. Eri Beebe et al. was referred to W. S. Newberry, of Portland, to take testimony.

The case of Eva Wallman vs. Theodore Bracker, for damages in the modest sum of $25,000 for breach of promise of marriage, was then called, and the following jurors sworn: J. P. Eberman, A. J. Hill, Angus Gor, E. P. Noonan, George Voss, E. B. Stoner, Frank S. Damant, Gust. Holmes, M. Sharpe, John Burke, W. H. Bain and J. P. Morse.

The plaintiff was on the stand for three hours, and the examination and cross-examination developed some highly interesting facts. When the defendant was on the stand a question by Mr. Winton, who represented Mrs. Wallman, as to the amount of property owned by Mr. Bracker, was objected to by Fulton Bros., and resulted in an extended argument. The question was finally allowed by the court. Throughout the day the court room was crowded with an expectant audience, and the interest never waned until court adjourned.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. V. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

SEASIDE NEWS.

The Usual Weekly Meeting of the Debating Club.

The Astorian's Seaside correspondent sends the following:
Seaside, March 9, 1894.
Editor of The Astorian: The Seaside Debating club met last Saturday, when the election of officers took place. Mr. G. M. Rowe was elected president by acclamation.

The question debated was: "Resolved, That Nature is more beautiful than art." Mrs. Philo Eberman and W. R. Steele led the debate for Nature, and Mrs. E. M. Grimes and Prof. Case argued in favor of art. The judges decided in favor of the latter.

The program was an excellent one, as follows: Dialogue, "The Paper Don't Say," by Mr. and Mrs. Case; song, Buck Stanley, "The Watermelon Smiling on the Vine"; solo, Miss Rosa Luce; vocal duet, Mabel McGuire and Nellie Eberman; "Under the Willow Tree's Weeping"; "Chinese Punishment," in one act, Fred. Optiz, W. Eberman, Joe Coffman; reading, F. D. Coffman, "How a Married Lady Goes to Sleep"; song, H. Brallier; music, Prof. Grimes and Eberman; dialogue, "Two Italian Girls," Mabel Stebb and Ada Coffman; recitation, Toopy Eberman; "Shadow Polka," Edith Steele, Mabel Stebb, June Stanley, Nellie Eberman; solo, Alice Steele.
The committee on program for next Saturday's meeting will be: Mrs. E. M. Grimes, Prof. Case, L. D. Coffman. The question for debate will be: "Resolved, That there is more danger in sawmills than on railroads."
A pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Case Monday evening last at Seaside. V. I. D.

THAT FORFEITURE CASE.

Opinion That the Northern Is Endeavoring to Conceal the Full Import of the Decision.

The opinion was expressed in this city yesterday by a gentleman interested in the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States in the Northern Pacific land grant forfeiture case, that an effort is being made by the Northern to suppress the news of the decision, or at least its importance. It will be remembered that the first dispatch from Washington stated that the lands involved in the suit were situated between Tacoma and Portland. In second reference to the matter had its source in an interview with Paul Schulze, assistant general manager of the Northern Pacific Land Company, in which he denied the statement that the validity of the grant between Tacoma and Portland was in any way affected. Mr. Schulze then went on to say:

"The question involved was whether the grant of the Northern Pacific Company for its Pacific division was of prior date to that of the Oregon Central Railroad Company, and the lands in this state involved in this decision are confined to a narrow strip along the Columbia river in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties—that is, lying within the overlapping limits of the grants to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company and the Oregon Central Railroad Company. Incidentally the title to some other tracts will be affected by this decision, but only in so far as the decision will fix a date when the Northern Pacific grant took effect. For the information of those who think the company has no grant between Tacoma and Portland, I may state that we recently received patents for 85,000 acres of land in the indemnity limits of the Pacific division, and for 147,000 acres within the place limits between Tacoma and Kalama."

According to the Northern Pacific map the "narrow strip" referred to extends from Gray's Bay to a point a short distance above Kalama, and is of about six miles in width. Every other section of this was claimed by the Northern. There are hundreds of settlers on it, and all of those who got their titles from the Northern will be forced to bring suit for the recovery of the money paid for the land. Many of the settlers have nothing in the world but the land they occupy, and the decision is of the utmost importance to them.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money. St-e-dman's Soothing Powders successfully used for children, during the teething period, for over fifty years.

THE ATHLETIC TOURNAMENT.

The Football Boys Easing Up In Their Training—Probable Winners.

The preparations for the coming athletic and gymnastic events to be given by the Astoria Football club Tuesday evening next are almost complete, and the intending competitors ceased the more arduous part of their training and are now confining their exercise to light work. The handicaps have given pretty general satisfaction, although some "dark horses" among the club's members have, it is asserted, stolen a march on the handicapper. Considerable speculation is indulged in as to the probable winners, and the knowing ones assert that the handicap men have just a shade the best of it. All, however, are determined to do their best, and close finishes are expected.

In the first heat of the 25-yard dash are McCue (1-1/2 yards), D. McLean (1 yard), Heilborn (1-1/2 yards) and Cleveland (1 yard). For this heat Heilborn and McLean should either run a dead heat, or finish very close in the order named.

In the second heat but three contestants are likely to appear. It should be won by Gunn, from the one-yard mark, with Sovey (1-1/2 yards) second.

The third heat will prove a pretty one, and the result will be determined at the crack of the pistol. Wright, with a yard concession, and Tallant and R. Carruthers at scratch, are the contestants. Carruthers may win, but not by more than a few inches.

The fourth heat has Higgins (1-2 yard), Rathon, Johnson and Hansen (1 yard each). The chances are slightly in favor of Hansen, with Higgins crowding him.

The obstacle race should be won by McCue.

In the high-jumping contest the winner should be Bennett (6 inches), if he competes. If not, Wright (2 inches) should capture the event. If pressed, it is thought the professor, who is a firm believer in the doctrine of a sound mind in a sound body, will clear the bar at a point between five feet six inches and six feet.

The one-mile flat race will test the abilities of the scratch men to the utmost. Heilborn and D. McLean, with 180 yards each, ought to finish first and second, with Tallant not more than a few yards away.

George Cherry, with a concession of 90 yards, ought to defeat his field in the walking match, with R. Carruthers a close second.

On account of the length of the program it will be necessary to begin at 7:45 sharp.

Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

Olsen has 29 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 27 Third street.

Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Uttinger's orchestra will give a grand concert. The orchestra now consists of fourteen pieces, and is decidedly the best that has ever been in the city.
