

THE LITTLE NESTUCCA. Albert O. Yates writes to the Oregonian complaining that people wishing to go to the Little Nestucca are frequently misinformed as to the proper route. This region, he says, is situated in the extreme southern portion of Tillamook county. To reach it, intending settlers must go by train to Sheridan, Yamhill county; thence by road direct for about 35 miles, over good country and toll roads, passable in the worst of winters. There is a daily mail route to Tillamook. "We have," says he, "one of the finest dairy and fruit regions on the Pacific Slope. The railroad survey from Albany to Astoria runs directly through the settlement, which is only 10 miles from the steamer landing at the 'Little Nestucca bay.' About 90 or 100-ton steamers can come in over the bar at all times except the worst stormy seasons of winter (but they do not carry passengers), there being about 12 feet of water on the bar at high tide. We need a good, live merchant in the Little Nestucca settlement, who will command a large cash trade, and will find a market for such productions as the country can supply. We have three good school districts and two postoffices, with a tri-weekly mail from Dolph, on the Tillamook route. The town of Woods is four miles up the bay, where we now chiefly trade."

LIFE OF JAMES G. BLAINE. The Astorian has determined to bring the life-work of this wonderful idol of the people closer to the minds of its readers, to put them in possession of the incidents of his career, his ambitions, his sacrifices, his honesty and his sterling manhood.

How? you ask. Read carefully, and see for yourself. We have secured at a very large outlay the magnificent volume entitled "Life and Work of James G. Blaine," (Memorial Edition.)

This work is the only authorized publication of the memoirs and history of Blaine. It is written by John Clark Redpath, LL.D., Gen. Selden Connor, ex-Governor of Maine, and the eminent friends of the dead statesman.

It contains a full length portrait of Blaine, with his autograph negative and an autograph letter sent to the publishers.

It contains an autograph letter from Mrs. Blaine, which proves its authenticity and its claim to being the only volume of the kind published by authority.

It contains several hundreds of splendid pictures, nearly all of them being original copyrighted drawings.

It contains 505 pages of description, printed on the heaviest book paper, in large, handsome type, and is heavily bound in cloth—two colors—with gold lettering and ornamentation on the covers.

This book cannot be purchased elsewhere. It is not on sale at bookstores, and you could not buy it for less than FIVE DOLLARS if it were. It is a work of art, and a book that no citizen should be without. The reading matter is of entrancing interest.

Our regular subscription price for the Weekly Astorian is $2.00 per annum. Our regular subscription price for the Daily Astorian for six months is $3.00. You can, by paying in advance, receive the Weekly Astorian for one year and the Life of Blaine for $13.00.

You can, on the same terms, have the Daily Astorian for six months and the Life of Blaine for $4.50, making the cost to you of this wonderful work $1.00.

Don't take any snap judgment. You would be foolish if you gave us your order without first coming to this office and seeing the book for yourself. It has delighted all who have looked at it. It will delight you. Our subscribers can rest assured that the only reason why we have taken hold of this work is its surpassing excellence and its wonderfully cheap price.
