IN LEGISLATIVE HALLS

Dolph Calls Attention to a New Swindling Scheme.

SEIGNIORAGE BILL TAKEN UP

The Question of Overhead Wires for Electric Railways Discussed in the House.

Associated Press.

Washington, March 12.—In the senate today Dolph called attention to a circular sent by Harvey Spaulding, a Washington claim agent, offering to secure land along the Northern Pacific road at a nominal cost. Dolph characterized the circular as a swindling scheme, the grossets fraud he ever knew.

The newly appointed senator from Louisiana, Blanchard, took the oath of office.

Peffer and Gallinger offered amendments to the tariff bill, which were laid on the table.

At 2 p. m. the seigniorage bill was taken up. Vance resumed his speech against it.

Senator Peffer today introduced an independent tariff bill. It amends the McLeary law in some particulars and revises the internal revenue law. He amends the income tax in accordance with the populist graduated proposition in the house, and includes justices of the supreme court and other federal judges in the list to be taxed.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, March 12.—The day in the house was devoted entirely to consideration of the bill relating to the extension of the time for allowing the street railroad company of this city to change its system of motive power. The debate rapidly drifted into a discussion of the merits of cable and underground electric systems, and it boldly charged that the General Electric and Westinghouse companies, which held stock in almost all the overhead trolley lines, retained all the prominent electric engineers in the country and would not spare money to prevent a practical demonstration of the feasibility of underground electric roads now in operation at Buda Pesth and for short distances on the outskirts of this city. To prevent this Mr. Walker proposed to restrict the motive system to be used by the Metropolitan road to underground electric. No conclusion was reached when the house adjourned.

DA GAMA WILL SURRENDER.

Washington, March 12.—The state department has just received advices from Rio de Janeiro stating that Admiral Da Gama, the revolutionist, has taken refuge on board a Portuguese vessel in the harbor, and through the officers of this vessel, has sent word to President Peixoto that he and his followers will surrender on condition protection is granted them.

The dispatches to the state department were in cipher, and translated read as follows:

Graham, Washington—Da Gama, today, through the senior Portuguese naval commander, offered to surrender to the president of Brazil, providing he and his followers were guaranteed protection against punishment. Da Gama has gone aboard the Portuguese man-of-war for an asylum.

(Signed) THOMPSON.
Another dispatch received tonight from Minister Thompson contains the information that Da Gama asks only that he and his officers be allowed to leave the country, and the lives of his private soldiers and sailors be spared.

ESTIMATING REVENUES.

Comparison of Returns Under the Present and Proposed Laws.

Washington, March 12.—The senate finance committee was today supplied with a tabulated statement prepared by the treasury department, showing in detail the amount of revenue which it is estimated will be received under the senate bill, if it should become a law. It is estimated under the Wilson bill, and compared with the returns from the treasury department under the present law for 1893. The statement also gives an estimate of the increase in international revenue under the senate bill as follows: Income, $20,000,000; spirits, $20,000,000; cigars, $8,000,000; cigarettes, $1,500,000; playing cards, $3,000,000; total, $63,500,000. Total comparison of the estimated duties of the total of the present law, $158,373,000; house, $124,693,000; senate, $165,904,000. Comparison on sugar and wines are: Sugar, present law, $193,000; house, $16,832; senate, $41,799,000. Spirits, wines and other beverages, present law, $9,698,000; house, $8,421,000; senate, $8,184,000.

Rosebery Attacks the Lords at a Liberal Meeting.

CAUSE OF IRELAND NOT LOST

Sir William Vernon Harcourt Declares Gladstone Last Speech A Parting Inheritance.

Associated Press.

London, March 12.—Parliament reassembled today. Lord Rosebery presided at the liberal meeting today. In a speech he said the present government had entirely identified itself with Gladstone's declaration in his last parliamentary speech touching the house of lords. The conviction had long been forcing itself on the speaker that under the existing democratic suffrage the house of lords was an anomaly, especially since the lords had been turned from a body of hereditary law-givers into one of a party organization at the beck and call of a single party leader. Rosebery declared he would not go to the extent of some by making peers pariahs, or debar them from the opportunity of serving the state. In regard to the Irish question, Rosebery said the government was bound to it by the ties of honor and affection, and the policy of home rule would not be less definitely pursued.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt followed to the same general effect in regard to home rule, declaring Gladstone's last speech in regard to the house of lords was an inheritance for the party, and that it would prove the greatest subject of the future.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Washington, March 12.—The president today appointed James Graham register of the land office at Cour D'Alene, Idaho.

The president has appointed John H. Mulligan, of Kentucky, to be consul general of the United States at Apia, Samoa.

THE TARIFF TINKERING.

Washington, March 12.—The senate finance committee today considered the tariff bill, and by a strict party vote defeated a resolution giving workingmen, farmers and manufacturers five days for a hearing. Ten articles of the bill were passed without change.

PREPARING FOR THE FRAY.

Rio de Janeiro, March 12.—Representatives of the foreign powers were officially notified yesterday that operations against the insurgents in the Bay of Rio would be resumed after 48 hours. The government fleet is off the entrance to Rio Bay.

THE ENTOMBED MINERS.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 12.—The bodies of the men entombed in the Gaylord mine February 13 have been reached. They were so badly decomposed that identification was only possible from the clothing.

DEATH OF A PUGILIST.

Little Rock, March 12.—Billy Edwards, the well known sporting man, who was thrown from a buggy and badly crippled at Hot Springs yesterday, died this morning.

THE INDIAN APPROPRIATION.

Washington, March 12.—The Indian appropriation bill will be $1,000,000 less than last year, which will make the bill a trifle above $6,000,000.

BOUNTIES PAID TO SUGAR MEN.

Washington, March 12.—The secretary of the treasury today sent to the senate a list of licensed producers of sugar from beets, sorghum and sugar cane in each state and territory, to whom a bounty has been paid and the amount paid to each. The statement shows that payments for the current year up to March 4 have been as follows: Beet sugar, $610,335; sorghum sugar, $16,228; cane sugar, $2,513,597; maple sugar, $135,597. California leads in the production of beet sugar. Nebraska and Utah are also producers of this kind of sugar. Kansas and Minnesota are the only producers of sorghum sugar, and the latter only slightly. Louisiana receives the bulk of the bounty paid on cane sugar.

JUSTICE WHITE IN HARNESS.

Washington, March 12.—Ex-Senator White, of Louisiana, has assumed his new duties as associate justice of the supreme court.

MILL HANDS STRIKE.

Dracut, Mass., March 12.—The employees of the Merrimack mills struck this morning. Two thousand persons are directly affected.

ELECTED A CHAIRMAN.

London, March 12.—The Irish parliamentary party held a long session this afternoon and elected Justin McCarthy chairman.

BOGAN-FOARD NUPTIALS.

A Brief Account of the Brilliant Affair.—The Bride and Groom to Be Home This Afternoon.

The Alameda, Cal., papers unite in pronouncing the marriage of Dr. W. C. Logan and Miss Ottilie Ford, of Alameda, one of the prettiest weddings that ever took place in the Emmanuel Lutheran church in that city. The following brief account of the affair is taken from the Argus: "When the bridal party was announced at the portal of the church, the large and fashionable audience was on the quiver to catch a glimpse of the bride as she passed up the aisle to the altar. She entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Lorenzo Ford, and presented a vision of loveliness that will not soon be forgotten. Her beautiful wedding gown was of white Dutchess satin on train, with pearl trimmings and flowing bridal veil. She wore a cluster of natural orange blossoms, and carried a bunch of lilies of the valley. The only ornament was a diamond brooch, a present from the groom, Miss Mari Ford and Miss Meta Martins were maid of honor and bridesmaid respectively. Both wore becoming gowns of white corded silk. Miss Ford carried Catherine Mermot roses and Miss Martins La France roses. The ushers were Mr. J. C. W. Meyers, of San Francisco, and Mr. Otto Prael, of San Francisco. Mrs. L. Ford, mother of the bride; Mrs. J. W. Casey, of Seattle, sister of the groom, and the Misses Julia and Meta Ford, sisters of the bride, completed the party, which was met at the altar by Mr. Richard Prael, the best man.

"The playing of the wedding march from Lohengrin, with Prof. Recker at the organ, and Prof. Baruch, violin, preceded the wedding, appropriate selections being also sung by a quartette consisting of Messrs. Robert Praefle, J. F. Veeco, Frank Burse and Carl Paulmeyer. Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered as the bridal party took their departure from the altar. The popularity of the young lady who became a bride was shown by the large number of her friends, who were present, the church being filled with a fashionable audience. The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, on Pacific avenue. Here the popularity of the young couple was further attested by the generous number of elegant and costly presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan, who arrived in Portland yesterday, will arrive in this city by the Telephone this afternoon, and will proceed to the residence of the groom's mother, on Cass street, where a family dinner will be partaken of. One of the many presents from their friends here was a complete diningroom set of solid ash, a joint present from the Prael boys. There were also remembrances from many others.

The young couple will begin house-keeping at once, and if good wishes from a host of friends will add to their felicity, they will indeed be happy.
