

ABOUT THE CITY.

The steamship Columbia will sail for San Francisco today.

The German bark Maria Mercedes has finished loading wharf at Portland.

Tom Oter, arrested on a charge of drunkenness, forfeited $5 bail in the police court yesterday.

The drawing of Hill's lot clubs yesterday resulted in lot 23, block 30, falling to J. P. Kearney, and lot 23, in the same block, to John Terper.

The British bark Archer, which will load a cargo of flour at Portland, is now at Victoria, B. C., where she arrived on the 12th of February from Liverpool.

The subsidy committee of direction will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock, in the city council chamber. Every member is requested to be present promptly at the hour named, as business of the utmost importance will be presented. By order of Alfred Kinney, President.

Capt. Farenholt, lighthouse inspector, will go to the Sound on the Columbia, when the tender is to go into drydock on the 19th, and where she will probably remain till the 24th. When she comes out of dock she will do a lot of work on the Sound before returning to Astoria.

There will be no logging in the vicinity of Oak Point the coming season. Formerly there were four camps in that locality within a radius of one and one-half miles. Of these the only one remaining is that of Weiss Bros., but the demand for logs at present is not such as to justify working.

A few days ago Ross Clinton wrote to the Oregon Telephone Company about the question of putting in a cheaper telephone system in this city, and an answer has been received stating that the company is contemplating such a course in the near future. The intention is to make a rate of $2 per month for each telephone.

The winner of the mile race at the gymnasium Tuesday evening was stated to be W. E. Tallant, in the Astorian's account of the games. This, it appears, was an error, according to the decision of the judges, who awarded the event to Sherman Pinnell. The latter had a concession of 35 yards, and reached the tape a short distance ahead of Capt. Tallant, whose splendid run was made from scratch.

The Stutz company present "Lucrizia Borgia, the Poisoner of Italy," tonight for the first time. This is a purely historical production of the fifteenth century, dressed in costumes of that date, and with special scenery. This play is one that Mr. and Mrs. Stutz have given together over 200 times, and will be a dramatic treat to all who attend. "Uncle Josh" is to be put on, by special request, at the matinee Saturday afternoon.

Speaking of the indiscriminate slaughter of elk in this county, a resident of Seaside recently asserted that Indian Louis, who was fined by Justice Cleveland on Tuesday for a violation of the game laws in having slain an elk during the close season, slaughtered 56 of the noble animals during last season, and that out of the entire lot he carried home not more than 200 pounds of meat. The fine will probably have a healthy influence on men of Louis' class for a time at least.

The success of the entertainment given by the football club Tuesday night was a popular topic around town yesterday, and the members of the club have been highly complimented for the ability they displayed. The good the club is doing among the younger boys is much appreciated, and already a marked improvement in the health of the lads is noted. Since the gymnasium exercise was begun, quite a number have abandoned the use of tobacco, and the beneficial effects of their abstinence from the pernicious cigarette is very noticeable.

A SUDDEN CALL.

James Dalgity Passes Away After a Brief Illness.

The death of James Dalgity occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and cast a profound gloom over the community when the news was heard. Up to a few days ago Mr. Dalgity was in the enjoyment of his usual health, but on Tuesday of last week he was attacked by pneumonia and took to his bed. In the first stage of his illness no alarm was felt, and his friends believed that with the lapse of a few days he would be attending to his accustomed duties. The fall disease had taken a grip on his victim which could not be loosened, and despite all that medical skill could accomplish, death came as above stated.

Mr. Dalgity came to this city from Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1876, for the purpose of assuming the management of the West cannery at Westport. After the lapse of about a twelvemonth he resigned and took charge of Kinney's cannery. He next became superintendent of the Scandinavian cannery, in which company he was a stockholder until the time of his death. He was also a member of the Alaska Packers' Association and the owner of Dalgity's iron works.

He leaves five daughters and two sons to mourn his untimely loss. These are Mrs. Max Skibbe, Mrs. John Swenson, Miss B. Dalgity and Thomas and Andrew Dalgity, of this city, besides two married daughters in England.

The funeral services will be held under the auspices of Astor lodge, K. of P., of which deceased was a member. The services will be held in Fythian Castle hall tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

During his residence in this city Mr. Dalgity was always regarded—and justly so—as a most progressive man, and one who was ever prompt to identify himself with every movement having for its object the advancement of the cause of progress. His sudden death will be keenly felt by a large circle of friends here and elsewhere on the Coast.

WANTS INFORMATION.

Numerous Questions Propounded by a Kansas Farmer.

Many letters are received in this city from time to time requesting information about the railroad prospects and about the place generally, and if all were answered it would be necessary to engage the services of a regular correspondent. In some the writers simply inquire what opportunities are afforded for employment in special branches of business, but seldom are so many questions propounded as in the case in one which Postmaster Hare received yesterday: The epistle is as follows:

Medicine Lodge, Kan., March 5, 1894.

Mr. Postmaster: I am thinking of emigrating to the Pacific Coast, and will write for information. I have no acquaintances that I know of at that place, so I know not who to write to. You will do a favor to answer the questions, or hand to some one that can and will answer truthfully. I am a farmer by occupation. What kind of cereals, fruit and vegetables do you raise on what little agricultural land that you have, and do they do well? I understand that a large portion of your land is very heavily timbered. What kind of a market do you have? What is the price of agricultural land? Is there plenty of outside work that a man can get to do? Give me all the information in regard to the country, different occupations, etc. What are the educational facilities? What is the general health? What are the wages usually paid for labor? Can you send me some printed matter about your country? What are the prices of horses and cows? What is mill feed and other feed worth? What time of year would you advise a man to come there? About what is lying, as compared with that of Kansas? Do you ever have a failure of crops? What is the average temperature in winter and in summer?

Hoping to hear from you, I remain yours, etc.

H. N. BURNER.

THE MINERVA SOCIETY.

The Attendance Large at Last Evening's Meeting.

The rain last evening had no noticeable effect on the attendance at the meeting of the Scandinavian Young People's Society Minerva, and the hall was filled to the doors. The program was an excellent one, as follows: Reading, Martin Mattson; recitation, Miss Mabel Olsen; paper, Fred. Olsen; recitation, Mrs. J. L. Carlson; reading, Henry Hergen; recitation, L. Nissen; short address, L. O. Belland; reading of society paper, Fremad, by the editor, P. Walde; debate on the question, "Resolved, That capital punishment is more just than life imprisonment."

The house decided that the law of life for life was just, and that a murderer should not be fed at the expense of the state.

The membership list is still on the increase, in spite of the opposition to the society from some quarters, and the applications of seven candidates were favorably acted upon at the meeting last evening.

Next Monday there will be a social for members only, and the regular weekly meeting will be held on Wednesday evening.
