

ABOUT THE CITY.

The bark Aureola, with lumber from Knappton, sailed yesterday for San Francisco.

The steamer State of California crossed out yesterday morning, bound for San Francisco.

The regular fortnightly meeting of Temple lodge, No. 7, F. and A. M., was held last evening.

The steamer Lakme arrived in from San Francisco yesterday. She will load lumber for Redondo.

The fishing gear of the old Liensweger cannery was sold yesterday by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment for $60.

Astor lodge, Knights of Pythias, will be visited tonight by Grand Chancellor Waddell, of the grand jurisdiction of Oregon.

The political situation is beginning to be a fruitful subject of conversation, and knots of republicans and democrats are to be seen on all corners in earnest discussion.

Those who attended the meeting at Warrenton on Saturday evening, when the Republican club was organized, speak in high terms of the speech made by Charles F. Lester.

An $80 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Ford & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

Moving season will soon begin. Many housewives defer the disagreeable job of moving until house-cleaning time, when the carpets must be taken up and the stoves removed anyway.

The Ladies society of the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church will meet at the house of Mrs. Nissen this afternoon, instead of tomorrow, Maundy Thursday.

The remains of the late Nels Johnson were interred yesterday at Greenwood. The funeral took place from the parlors of Coroner Pohl, and a large number of the countrymen of deceased were in the procession to the steamer landing.

See Shanahan Bros' new steaks. Fresh halibut and smoked salmon daily at the Astoria Fish Market, Olney street.

Opening days at the new millinery store, 474 Third street, will be tomorrow and Thursday, the 21st and 22d inst.

Viking lodge, No. 14, I. O. G. T., of this city, will meet on Tuesday evenings in future, instead of Fridays, as formerly, and at the meetings the English language, instead of Scandinavian, will be spoken.

It is said a home is about to be established in this city for the care of fallen women desirous of abandoning their present lives. The home will, if established, be placed in charge of a matron.

W. W. Ridehalgh was around yesterday, and although bruised about the knees and shins by being thrown against the rocks at Hug Point, has otherwise recovered from his arduous and perilous trip from Tillamook to Seaside.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition. Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's.

If you want a first class photograph, call on Crow, the Photographer, 623 Third street.

Several investment companies have written Auditor Osburn asking for information about the proposed issue of $10,000 of municipal bonds, with a view to making bids for the entire issue. Some personal inquiries have also been made.

The members of the high school were addressed yesterday by Prof. Getz on the subject of education. He spoke of various methods for the instruction of the young, and was listened to with marked attention during the course of his address.

The too-previous enthusiast who taken down his stove the first warm day of spring, and then sits around and shivers for a couple of months, is getting himself together for his usual performance. Experience is wasted on some people.

"Do you allow drunken people on your train?" asked a Salem clergyman of a brakeman the other day. "Sometimes, but not when they are too drunk," replied the brakeman. "Just take a seat near the middle of the car and keep quiet, and you'll be all right."

Iiwaco parties have expressed a willingness to hear James D. Murray and Evangelist Ford in a debate on the subject of "Religious Excitement." Mr. Murray has pronounced views on his side of the question, and his friends think he could easily hold his own.

Isaac Bergman and the other members of the committee on finance appointed by President Wise, of the Democratic club, for the purpose of raising funds for the entertainment of the delegates to the democratic convention, were around yesterday and found the people generally willing to help the project along.

Sam Haskens, or Hutchins, who has been beating the snare drum in the Salvation Army band for some 18 months past, was taken into custody yesterday, being violently insane. He was found near Seaw Bay, walking around in a circle and repeating the Lord's Prayer. The passers by were each addressed as Jesus Christ, with whom Hutchins thinks he is continually communing. He was put "on board" an express wagon and taken to the county jail. Religious excitement is said to have been the cause of the dethronement of the unfortunate man's reason, and hints are made that a few others are likely to follow in Hutchins' footsteps. Hutchins was ordered committed to the asylum for the insane at Salem. He is but 21 years of age.

Owing to the success of "Kathleen Mavourneen," Manager Stutz has been persuaded to keep it on for one night more. Tomorrow evening "Our Boarding House" will receive its first presentation, and as its reputation has preceded its production, a large house is already assured.

The plaintiffs in the case of Edward Ehrman vs. The Astoria and Portland Railroad Co. et als, have filed a notice of appeal and undertaking. The case will not go to the supreme court until the next regular term. Yesterday being the last day on which the notice of appeal could be filed, it would seem that Mr. Ehrman is determined to contest the case to the end.

See Shanahan Bros' new dress goods, just arrived, at $3.25 suit.

Anything in the line of gents' furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equalled.

Albert Dunbar is the latest bidder for patronage in the dry and fancy goods business, and will this morning launch his new venture under very favorable auspices. His store is on the corner of Third and Main streets, and contains a stock of which he may well feel proud. The goods have been carefully selected, and will find a ready sale if they are once inspected by the public.

A gentleman in this city went home a few evenings ago and casually remarked, as he hung up his hat, "I see women are sold at actual value in Seattle. A woman was bought at a church fair up there for five cents." "Well, I knew a woman, about the time I was married, who was sold for nothing," replied his wife. Then the man put on his hat again and went down the street.

Fresh Deep-Sea Fish Daily at the Astoria Fish Market, 13 Olney street. Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

Did the sun's rays make you uncomfortable yesterday? Did you take off your heavy underclothing on the strength of it? If you haven't, you ought, at once. It would give pneumonia such a good chance to get hold of you later on, when the remaining few cold, damp days come. The sensible man keeps his winter underclothing on until the warm days of June pull the sweat out of him.

Rev. L. Nissen, of the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran church, intended to preach at Nehalem Valley Easter Sunday, according to his route of traveling, but as it is impossible to pass the mountains on account of the snow, he will stay in town and officiate at the divine services Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Rev. Nissen will preach regularly at Astoria the first Sunday of each month.

Thousands of mothers give their children, Ste-Edman's Soothing Powder during the teething period.

Ladies' writing desks, rocking chairs, and dining chairs, suitable for Christmas presents, at G. V. Porter's, Second street. Handsome crayon portraits with $25 purchases.

The millinery stores of Miss McRae and Mrs. McKenzie were crowded all day yesterday with ladies tempted out by the displays of spring millinery and the beautiful weather. The designs in hats and bonnets were much admired, and include some of the most artistic patterns ever shown in the city. Everything novel that the metropolitan markets contain in the way of millinery was to be seen, and the most fastidious can be readily suited from the varied assortments offered.

The French bark Pierre Cornelle, 1-143 tons, Capt. Lelequet, arrived in yesterday afternoon, 62 days from Pisagua, Chili, in ballast. The Cornelle made the river eight days ago, but ran up the coast as far as Shoalwater Bay, when the captain learned his mistake and beat around, reaching the river again on Monday night. She left France 12 months ago for Madagascar, and sailed thence to Pisagua, in ballast. Being unable to find a charter there, she was ordered to the Columbia river. She was nearly out of provisions, and had but little tea or coffee on board. These luxuries, however, were substituted by plenty of wine. The Cornelle was 96 days from Madagascar to Pisagua. Capt. Lelequet speaks but little English, but has a second mate who is thoroughly conversant with both English and French. The mate is a cripple at present, owing to an accident, and will leave here for France. Two vessels belonging to the same line as the Cornelle have already visited this port. The Cornelle is a very trim craft, but is very foul on the bottom at present.

The celebrated P. W. Corsets can be purchased at the store of Albert Dunbar, corner Main and Third streets.

Olsen has 29 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 19 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

C. R. F. P. UNION NOTICE. A mass meeting of gill-net fishermen will be held at Liberty hall on Saturday, March 24, 1894, at 4 p. m. sharp. The price of salmon for the coming season of 1894 will be set. All gill-net fishermen are requested to attend. By order, S. O. P. JENSEN, Secretary.
