

ABOUT THE CITY.

The French bark Pierre Corneille left yesterday for Portland.

The steamer Manzanita arrived in from Destruction Island yesterday.

The Loyal Legion will give a "hard-time" sociable on the 6th of April.

T. G. B. Wist, postmaster at Nehalem, came up on the Elmore last evening.

This is harvest-time with the dealers who handle seeds and fishermen's supplies.

The Astoria Packing Company is making active preparations for the canning season.

Three days' mail arrived from the east yesterday, leaving five days to be heard from.

"He has no more influence," said one Astorian politician of a rival, "than the 'p' in pneumonia."

The steamer Signal arrived down from Portland at 6:10 yesterday evening, and left out shortly afterward.

Mrs. Conn went up last night on the Telephone to Portland, to spend Easter with her daughter Edith.

Today is Good Friday, and will be observed as a holiday in various large cities throughout the country.

There is a man in Uppertown who has a wart on the back of his neck so large that he uses it for a collar-button.

At least be a "protectionist" to the extent of patronizing home merchants. They have the goods and want your trade.

Mink are playing and havoc with the chickens and ducks at Seaside, over twenty having been killed Wednesday night.

The steamer Elmore arrived in last evening about 9 o'clock, after having been delayed at Tillamook for nearly three weeks.

At 4 yesterday afternoon nothing in the way of a sail was reported outside. The river all the way to the ocean was almost as smooth as a mill-pond.

A Republican club was organized at Bear Creek Wednesday evening, with 25 charter members. The populists will not cast many votes in that precinct.

The republican primary for Lewis & Clarke precinct will be held at Melville postoffice on Monday, March 26, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

This is the season of worry for dress-makers and editors. The lah de dah girl must have her spring dress, and wants to have her ode to spring put into cold type.

The democratic county committee yesterday issued a call for the primary election, to be held on April 7, and for the county convention on the 14th of the same month.

Under the influence of the warm sun, the grass on the lawns and hillsides has begun to grow at a lively rate, and the landscape is beginning to take on a greener tinge.

When house-cleaning time comes, what will become of those little note-books that you brought back from the world's fair last summer, filled with memoranda?

Peg-tops, those harbingers of spring, held a cotillion in the custom house square yesterday. Eight boys, with as many tops, can make more noise than a dozen subsidy committees.

Charles H. Proske, formerly a resident of this city, but now of Portland, is in town. Mr. Proske is introducing a patent fire-lighter, which is finding a ready sale on account of its efficiency.

The popular amusement over at Salem is for a young man to wager with a pretty girl that her sleeve is larger around than her waist, and then proceed to measure with his arm.

The latest number of the High School Quill is a decided improvement on its predecessors, and reflects credit on the editor and staff of assistants. There is a freshness about it that is charming.

To raise more revenue for the city, it is now suggested that a tax be placed on cats. That is right. Put a tax on them, or a fission, or a washstand, or any old thing that will keep them quiet.

Yesterday was a beautiful day, the warm sunshine bringing out a great number of ladies. Long and pleasant walks and millinery sight-seeing were pleasures heartily enjoyed by them all.

The populists will be strictly in it tonight. They feel that it is their trick at the wheel now. The populists have been making most of the fuss so far, and now the republicans are to be heard from.

If you are a smoker and don't wish the price of your favorite cigar raised, hurry up and send in a protest to the senate against the internal revenue tax of 55 per thousand on cigars proposed by the senate.

Horses that would have brought $200 last spring on the streets of Astoria would not bring over $125 this. The horse may be the farmer's best friend, but the hog is his greater source of profit just now.

Conductor James McEntire, of the Union Pacific railroad, claims to have lassoed a deer with a bell-cord, an experiment that is vouched for by the train hands. The train was going at full speed at the time.

Under the impression that it was a stray goat, some one unified the animal that was hitched near the court house yard Tuesday night, and allowed it to march off to its quarters on Tongue Point. But it was the Masonic goat, and when the lodge boys were ready for Judge Osburn "to ride the goat" they were surprised to find the animal gone, consequently there was no "goat riding" for the judge that night.

One's admiration for a young lady is naturally heightened when she is going along the street with her mouth wide open chewing gum, her jaws swinging like barn doors on wobbling hinges. She was out yesterday evening.

An $80 lot for $2. Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Foard & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins.

In poetry the violets are always "blue." But as a matter of fact, any high school botanist will tell you "that of the twenty and odd varieties in the United States 18 are blue. The rest are purple, yellow, white, lilac and one green.

The bicycle business promises to be lively the coming season. One of the novelties which will be introduced is the aluminum wheel. A few of these were put on trial last year, and they are reported a success beyond all original expectations.

For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's.

If you want a first class photograph, call on Crow, the Photographer, 633 Third street.

Tacoma democrats have nominated A. V. Fawcett for the office of mayor. The mention of Mr. Fawcett's name caused an enthusiasm which suggested that the democratic minds dimly associated the name Fawcett with the outlet of a whiskey barrel.

An engineer in this city, who has been in the Sandwich Islands, claims to have thrashed Minister Thurston while in Honolulu. The offense alleged to have been committed by Thurston was the stealing of the sum of $185 from the now resident of Astoria.

The board of health ought to have a lactometer, and then appoint some one to use it occasionally. A lactometer costs about $3, and when poked down into a can of milk you can tell whether the dairyman has tampered with the product of his milk cows or not.

See Shanahan Bros', new dress goods, just arrived, at $3.25 suit.

Anything in the line of gents' furnishing goods, in the newest styles, can be had from P. A. Stokes & Co. during the present month, at prices never before equalled.

The revival services at Y. M. C. A. hall closed last night with an excellent service. There will be a "pound" social given at the hall this evening, from 7 to 8 o'clock, in honor of Rev. Ford, as a slight testimonial of appreciation of his faithful services. There will be good music for the occasion. All are invited.

The boys of the high school, says the Quill, are now fulfilling their part of the agreement and are making preparations for their Imp social to be given soon. It promises to be a most unique affair. The refreshments will be on hand, and it is only fair to the boys to say that they intend to outstrip the girls in every particular.

See Shanahan Bros', new satens.

Fresh halibut and smoked salmon daily at the Astoria Fish Market, Olney street.

Opening days at the new millinery store, 474 Third street, will be tomorrow and Thursday, the 23rd and 24th inst.

"Our Boarding House" was produced by the Stutz Theatrical company last night before a very fair house. The piece is a most laughable bit of light comedy, and comes as a nice change after "Lucrezia Borgia" and "Kathleen Mavourneen." Mrs. Stutz is most versatile, and her "Betty, the maid-of-all-work," was just as characteristic as was her "Kathleen."

The steamship Columbia arrived in from San Francisco with the following freight for this port: 50 sacks malt, 47 pigs lead, 48 packages groceries, 60 sacks coke, 53 coils rope, 21 barrels of wine and 610 packages general merchandise. The consignees were John Kopp, Pacific Gas Company, A. V. Allen, Astoria Iron Works, Fisher Bros., F. Coombs, Union Pacific Railroad Co.

The celebrated P. W. Corsets can be purchased at the store of Albert Dunbar, corner Main and Third streets.

Olsen has 29 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

W. E. Warren, F. I. Parker, R. B. Worsley and H. G. Smith will go up the river on the La Camas this morning for the purpose of securing the remainder of the deeds to the railroad right-of-way. Sixty per cent of the deeds have been received up to date, and the members of the subsidy committee above-mentioned are determined to complete the business before their return.

In the report of Expert Gibbons on the condition of the affairs of the city, published in these columns yesterday, an apparent oversight of $1,042.11 is shown in the account of Chief Loughery. This is due to the fact that Mr. Gibbons' report covered the two years preceding January 1, 1894, since that time the chief has receipts for $44,111.847 and $156,111 in all $1,042.11, which balances the account to a cent.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria.

DELEGATES NOMINATED.

Fresh Deep-Sea Fish Daily at the Astoria Fish Market, 118 Olney street.

Hill's First addition is located in the center of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

NO TRUTH IN IT.

A Report That the Railroad Contract Had Been Signed.

Engineer Haskell, upon his return from Portland yesterday, stated that a rumor was current in the metropolis that Messrs. Fitzpatrick & Collins, of Omaha, had signed a contract with Mr. Baxter for the grading on the railroad from this city to Gable. In response to a dispatch from The Astorian to the Associated Press, inquiring as to the foundation for the report, the following was received last evening:

Portland, March 22.—Assistant General Superintendent Baxter of the Union Pacific, when seen this afternoon regarding a dispatch from Astoria that a contract for the construction of the railroad from Astoria to Portland had been signed, said there was no truth in the report.

Embroidery and laces in the newest designs at Albert Dunbar's elegant new store.

Thousands of mothers give their children Steadman's Soothing Powder during the teething period.

Ladies' writing desks, rocking chairs, and dining chairs, suitable for Christmas presents, at G. V. Porter's, Second street. Handsome crayon portraits with $25 purchase.

VIOLATING THE FISH LAWS.

Salmon Offered For Sale at a Restaurant Last Evening.

Last night as a reporter was sitting in the Model chop house a fisherman entered and asked the man in charge, rather confidentially, if he didn't want to purchase a nice salmon. Receiving a negative reply, he went out, presumably to some other place to dispose of his wares. This only goes to show that fish are caught right here at Astoria and sold, without hardly any concealment whatever. The would-be seller in this case was comfortably dressed and looked like a man who had been well fed and well cared for, so there was no such excuse as poverty to condone the violation of the law.

The Fishermen's Union is supposed by the public at large to co-operate with the civil authorities in seeing that the violators of the fishing laws are caught and punished.

Is this not so, Mr. Secretary Jensen? Is it not true that when the fishing laws were enacted by the legislature to protect salmon the union endorsed them, so that the occupation of the members of the C. R. F. P. U. would not be wiped out?

If your answer be "Yes," then how can the fishermen expect people outside of the union to respect it when your own members do not?

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer. Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Third street.

Mrs. Ross has just returned from Portland, where she has secured all the latest styles in dressmaking, and the assistance of a first-class forewoman from San Francisco. Prices will be the lowest.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday:

A SURE CURE FOR PILES.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blood, hemorrhoid or proctoid, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs the tumors, always breaks and effects a permanent cure. Dr. Bosanko or mail. Circulars free. Dr. Bosanko, 529 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by J. W. Conn.

C. B. Smith, the ice cream dealer, will have ice cream every day from this on. Mr. Smith is sure to be well patronized, as every one knows his goods cannot be beat. He makes his goods from nothing but the best of cream, and gives a special invitation to every one to call and see the goods manufactured. He also keeps sweet cream for sale, fresh every morning from the Westport Creamery, the largest creamery in the Northwest.

Albert Dunbar's new and handsome store, corner of Main and Third streets, will be opened today with a complete stock of ladies' and children's fancy goods. Mr. Dunbar has secured the sole agency for the Eskay kid gloves. All sizes in stock and every pair warranted.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the Ekset when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.
