WEEKLY. Sent by mail per year, $2.00 in advance. Postage free to subscribers.

The Astorian guarantees to its subscribers the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.

Advertising rates can be obtained on application to the business manager.

This paper is in possession of all the telegraph franchises, and is the only paper on the Columbia river that publishes genuine dispatches.

The Daily Astorian's circulation is ten times as great as that of the combined circulation of the other daily papers of Astoria.

The Weekly Astorian, the third oldest weekly in the state of Oregon, has next to the Portland Oregonian, the largest weekly circulation in the state.

Subscribers to the Astorian are requested to notify this office, without loss of time, immediately they fail to receive their daily paper, or when they do not get it at the usual hour.

Handley & Hans are our Portland agents and copies of the Astorian can be had every morning at their stand on First street.

TIDE TABLE.

Table with columns for DATE, HIGH WATER, LOW WATER, and tide levels for various dates in March.

YESTERDAY'S WEATHER.

Local weather for the twenty-four hours ending at 5 p. m. yesterday, furnished by the U. S. Department of Agriculture weather bureau.

Maximum temperature, 59 degrees; minimum temperature, 40 degrees; precipitation, none.

Total precipitation from July 1, 1893, to date, 82.89 inches; excess of precipitation from July 1, 1893, to date, 25.56 inches.

TODAY'S WEATHER.

Portland, March 24.—For Washington and Oregon: Fair weather; slightly cooler.

The policy of Senator Stewart would seem to require the annexation of his great sovereign state of Nevada to Mexico. Then, if he is not mistaken, silver prosperity would amount to a boom.

The workmen of Philadelphia, who are proposing to go to Washington on special trains to hold a mass meeting there against the passage of the Wilson bill, should think the matter over very carefully and decide not to go.

In some of the journals that believe themselves peculiarly gifted in goodness, we notice criticisms of the course of republicans in the senate when they consented to the consideration of the silver seigniorage coinage.

The New Jersey silk weavers sought to popularize their cause by mobbing men and women who failed to see the wisdom of refusing to accept work when it was to be had, and also who had no hoarded thousands back of them, but who had families to support.

You can always buy merchandise with gold, or even with silver, but you cannot buy anything with paper, unless it is known that the paper is exchangeable for gold or silver.

Presumably, her fiancé is a man with sense enough to keep a good job when he gets it. At any rate, she seems to be able to take care of herself if she never marries, like the modern American "bachelor girl" that she is.

There were in the senate, as in the house, a few republicans for and a few democrats against the Bland bill, which now offers the president the opportunity of his lifetime for a veto; but the masses of democrats are for it, and the masses of republicans are against it.

Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that the undersigned has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of J. M. Olson, deceased.

THE FIAT MONEY THEORY. A Correspondent Characterizes It As Rank Nonsense.

The following will explain itself: Astoria, March 23, 1894.

Editor Astorian: There have been people in all ages who are unwilling to accept the hard facts of existence, and abide by nature's laws as they are, but are always endeavoring to discover some subtle hidden or unnatural means of gaining wealth, prolonging life or making things easy and comfortable.

Alchemists have wasted their lives in the endeavor to convert common substances into the precious metals. The elixir of life, the fountain of perpetual youth, have been sought in vain by visionary and credulous people in every generation of men.

Of late years the craze of hallucination has taken hold of the minds of a similar class of men in a way that prompts them to attain the desired end without even the labor of the alchemist, the tricks of the fortune teller or the adventures of the searcher after the Fountain of Youth.

Alcock's Porous Plaster is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitations in this country are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "Alcock's" to be the acme of perfection.

THE GENUINE AND THE SHAM. Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeit.

NOTICE OF FINAL ACCOUNT. Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, that the undersigned, executor of the last will and testament of George Flavel, deceased, have filed their final account in the County Court of Clatsop county, Oregon.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been this day appointed administrator of the estate of A. K. Garrow, deceased, by the county court of Clatsop county, Oregon.

OFFICE CUSTODIAN, U. S. CUSTOM HOUSE, ETC., ASTORIA, OREGON, March 16, 1894.—Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 3 o'clock p. m. on the 15th day of April, 1894, and opened immediately thereafter.

dollar as it does now? No, it would soon drop to its actual value, which is determined by the world's market price of silver.

Gold is the standard, and gold is what the silver men are after; but, of course, they want to get as much of it for their silver as they can, just as a farmer wants to get as much gold as he can for his wheat.

SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE! If you want any thing good to smoke, Key West, imported, domestic, you must go to Chas. Olsen.

Rev. L. Nissen, Scandinavian, German and English Lutheran Pastor, has removed to the home of Mr. M. Larsen Berrin, W. Fifth street, at the back of Scow Bay Foundry, opposite the Finn church.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

Mrs. Christine Nissen, Teacher of the Piano and Organ, has removed to the house of Mr. M. Larsen Berrin, W. Fifth street, at the back of Scow Bay Foundry, and opposite the Finn church.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as Blind, Bleeding or Prolapsed, is cured only by Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected.

Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that the undersigned has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of J. M. Olson, deceased.

THE LAND OF PROMISE. Is the mighty West, the land that "tickled with a hoe laughs a harvest," the El Dorado of the miner, the goal of the agricultural emigrant?

These tiny Capsules are superior to Balsam of Capilla, Cubebis and Injections. They cure in 48 hours the same diseases without any inconvenience.

THE BEST BREAD MAN. In this city is A. A. CLEVELAND, the baker. He kneads good bread for all who need good bread, and "takes the cake" for making the choicest confectionery.

STAMPS. Have changed colors very frequently of late; but our competitors change colors every time they see our work.

DID YOU EVER. Know a man to keep a good thing to himself. We never did. We're glad of it.

RAKES AND THINGS. The little warm rays of sunshine dropping in a little earlier these mornings, as the season advances, plainly say, "Get ready, for folks will soon be wanting garden things!"

THERE IS HOPE

For every one who has blood trouble, in whatever shape or how long standing, provided some of the vital organs have been so far impaired as to render a cure impossible.

FOR YOU. Cured me of a most malignant type of chronic blood trouble, for which I had used various other remedies without effect.
