BOUND TO PLEASE

We are "bound to please" as much so as the individual herein is bound to "Please" and every one of our thousands of customers testify that we more than succeed. We do it by a line of goods that isn't surpassed, and by prices that are lower every day in the year than the so called Bankrupt Sales, which some of our contemporaries herald with the blare of deafening advertisements. Plain, honest statements count for most.

Save from 16 2/3 to 33 1/3 per cent by buying of us your Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Trunks, Valises etc.

506 and 508 3rd St., Next to Griffin & Reed's Book Store. Astoria.

THEY SAY there isn't a slower city on the coast than Astoria. They'll say directly our clocks are slow. Then next, we suppose, they'll be saying that there isn't a slower store on Third Street than 502—our citizens book store.

We must be awfully slow. We don't know how to buy our blank books from manufacturers who use scraps in covers or have ill-paid binding. Our manufacturers don't know how to make the common cheap sorts and have us sell them for first class. They're afraid to—that's a fact. We don't want to know how.

But we're wide awake enough to buy the best, and slow Astoria is wide awake enough to buy it from us.

RELIGIOUS RIOTING

Bloodshed as the Result of A. P. A. Troubles

MANY SHOTS WERE EXCHANGED

The Kansas City Elections Bring About a Conflict Between Opposing Factions

Associated Press.

Kansas City, April 3.—There was a riot this afternoon between A. P. A. and anti-A. P. A. politicians. One man was killed, two mortally wounded and several seriously wounded by stray bullets. The trouble was over swearing in deputy marshals, who attacked the A. P. A. workers.

Mike Callahan, a well known politician, Catholic, and supporter of Frank Johnson for mayor, was killed. Jerry Pata, a deputy constable, was shot in the head and will die. J. B. Rosnaha was shot through the kidneys and will die. Pat Fleming was shot in the shoulder. Jerry Fowler was also shot. John McGowan was shot, but not seriously. Eight arrests have been made.

It cannot be stated which side is responsible for the fray, as each charges the other with being the full cause of all the trouble. More than 200 shots were exchanged between the combatants in less than that many seconds. The riot was the culmination of a bitter feeling which has been manifested by action and words ever since the polls opened in the morning. The two antagonistic elements were solidly divided in their choice of candidates for mayor. The riot was the climax of a series of smaller riots that took place at other places early in the day between the same opposing religious factions. Only an hour before it was known that John Geoley, a stonemason, who was opposed to the A. P. A., was shot in the back and forehead by William Henry Walker at a voting place at the corner of Fifth and Campbell streets. The A. P. A. supported Webster Davis, republican candidate for mayor. Harry Arthur, one of Prior's followers, gives the following version. He was standing on a bridge close to the scene of the riot, when Jerry Pata, an A. P. A. man, and another man came on the other end of the bridge in a buggy, with four men running behind him. When Pata reached the spot where Arthur was standing, he jumped out of the buggy with a gun in his hand, and grabbing hold of Harry McGovern said:

"Here's one of the men we want. I've got a warrant for your arrest."
I went up to Pata and said: "You cannot take me." Jim Todd stepped out, too, and said: "No, you can't take me, either."
"I'm deputy constable, and you've got to go," said Pata, and turning to me and the men in the buggy, said, "Read that warrant."
Just then Mike Callahan came running towards us from the northern end of the bridge. He ran up to Pata and asked him what right he had to carry a pistol, and demanded to see his permit. Then the two men exchanged angry words, and then Pata aimed at Callahan and fired. Callahan returned the shot, and then I and the rest of us began to shoot. I shot Pata.
The affair is being heatedly discussed at most all the public resorts in the city tonight, and feeling runs very high.

POLLARD VS. BRECKENRIDGE.
Testimony Regarding the Typewritten Letters.
Washington, April 3.—Interest in the Breckenridge trial was intensified today by the prosecution placing on the stand Louise Lowell, a stenographer, who testified in the matter of alleged correspondence with Madeline Pollard. She said she copied letters on a typewriter for defendant, returning the letter and copy in an envelope addressed to the plaintiff. She produced a memorandum book showing the entries. The first communication began: "My Dear Sister Louise."

The denumer of the defendant's lawyer against the admission of this evidence brought a delicate case of law before the judge. It was conceded that documents might be brought into use and a witness questioned upon it in cross-examination from which to lay a basis for contradiction, but whether the existence of a missing document could be ascertained and the defendant asked whether he wrote it, was another question, a question which Judge Bradley decided in the affirmative, after listening to the argument and consulting authorities. He held, however, that witnesses could be asked to give their recollection of the contents of the letters. Accordingly, Miss Louise Lowell, who conducted a business in typewriting and stenography at the capitol in the year 1886, and was discovered by plaintiff last Sunday, stated that she had copied mysterious letters upon the typewriter for the colonel, and had also addressed for him a package of envelopes to "Miss Pollard, 14 North Upper street, Lexington, Ky.," keeping the address in a notebook, which she produced, but which did not entirely substantiate her statement, because it seemed to have been used in 1887 and 1888.

Miss Pollard appeared in a speaking part once more to testify she had received the letters in question.

During her brief appearance the lawyers had their hands full endeavoring to make her confine herself to questions directed, for in her untrammelled utterance, when questioned before, she scored some of the most telling points for her side. Thereafter the program was a continuance of fencing between the congressman from Kentucky and the ex-congressman from Indiana.

Both Breckenridge and ex-Judge Wilson are lawyers of brilliant parts, and no exhibition of its kind approaching the thrust and parry of two men when pitted as examiner and witness has been heard for years. It was enjoyed by an audience worthy of its merits, for besides the usual varying corps of congressional members and lawyers, there were well known Methodist clergymen in the audience.

Col. Breckenridge made denials of the testimony of Miss Lowell.

ON THE MARCH.

San Francisco, April 3.—The San Francisco contribution to the commonwealth army, numbering 350, left the city today for Washington. At Sacramento they will be joined by 100 more unemployed, who are now in camp there awaiting the arrival of the San Francisco regiment. Mayor Elliott contributed $25 to pay their way to Oakland, and two bands volunteered to escort them to the ferry. At 2 o'clock an order to march was given by Col. Baker, their leader. The men marched quietly and in order. On the way to the ferry $15 was received by them from people on the streets. The mayor was at the landing to wish the men goodbye. They will camp tonight in Oakland.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Republicans Victorious in Almost All the Elections.

Pueblo, April 3.—The entire republican city is elected by a large majority.

Albuquerque, April 3.—The hottest city election ever held here resulted in the election of the whole republican ticket.

Denver, April 3.—This was ladies' day at the town elections throughout the state, and flowers and smiles abounded. The republicans won in most instances.

St. Joseph, Mo., April 3.—The republicans carried the day here today. The A. P. A. cut a big figure.

Omaha, April 3.—Politics cut no figure in the elections. The only question at stake was license or no license. In fully 95 per cent of the towns that have reported up to midnight license has carried.

Kansas City, April 3.—Webster Davis, the straight republican candidate for mayor, has been elected, carrying with him the entire republican ticket.

Tacoma, April 3.—The republicans carried the city election here today. The new council will stand: Republicans, 8; populists, 6; democrats, 2.

RIOTING AT THE POLLS.

Chicago, April 3.—The election of the aldermanic and town tickets was attended by many disturbances at the twenty-third ward. Several heeled and policemen were badly bruised. John Bell was shot twice in a saloon brawl by Louis Suttler and may die. In the fourteenth ward Samuel Phelps was shot at the polls by John Marshall, and may not recover. Few arrests were made.

THE ELDER TO BE TIED UP.

San Francisco, April 3.—The steamer George W. Elder is to be withdrawn from the Portland-San Francisco route, last season's wheat having been transported. She will leave for Astoria in ballast, and tie up there until business improves.

TILLMAN ON THE WARPATH.

Columbia, April 3.—Gov. Tillman addressed the militia today. It is said he is more determined than ever. If the mayors don't make the police do their duty, the governor will ask the legislature to empower him to remove them from office.

A GREAT STRIKE PROMISED.

Scottsdale, April 3.—The convention this afternoon was attended by 5,000 people. The leaders say Thursday morning will see one of the most widespread, determined strikes ever inaugurated in the coke region.

ENDED IN A ROW.

New York, April 3.—The masque ball of the Carmencita club at Tammany hall ended in a riot. The lights were turned out, and a free fight followed. Terrance Gallagher, a race-track tough, was killed, and Mark Buckner had his skull cracked and may die.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS

The O'Neill-Joy Case Decided in the House

AN UNINTERESTING SESSION

The Attendance in the Senate Indicative of a Lack of Interest.

Associated Press.

Washington, April 3.—The senate has passed the Behring sea bill.

The tariff bill was taken up. Allen offered a free coinage bill as an amendment.

The general public did not seem to have as much interest in the senate today as yesterday, and the attendance did not indicate that the second day's tariff debate was to excite as much interest as the first.

Mitchell, of Oregon, presented a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the secretary of the interior to transmit to the senate a list of all public lands located in the several sections of the states of Oregon and Washington.

The bill to carry out the awards of the tribunal on the Behring sea question was passed.

At 2 o'clock the tariff bill came up, and Senator Allison addressed the senate. In opening he complained of the methods pursued in the preparation of the bill, of the incomplete hearing in committee and of the difficulty experienced by a minority of the committee in getting information as to the bill. He reviewed the course of the tariff bill to show the leisurely manner in which the democrats had hitherto pushed it.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Washington, April 3.—The struggle over the O'Neill-Joy contested election case is occupying the house. Patterson, of Tennessee, says there will be no adjournment until action is had. One hundred and ninety-three democratic members are here, 14 more than a quorum, and the plan is to arrest absentees and bring them to the bar of the house.

After voting on seating O'Neill, the English-Hillborn case, of California, was taken up.

Mr. Joy, who had been unseated, came down the aisle from the clerk's room, hat in hand. The republicans, with hand and voice, cheered their departing colleague. Ten democrats and two populists voted against the resolution to unseat Mr. Joy. The last vote was taken on the following:

"Resolved, That John J. O'Neill was elected representative to the fifty-third congress from the eleventh congressional district of Missouri, and that he is entitled to the seat."

The resolution was adopted—128 to 28. By direction of the doorkeeper, Mr. O'Neill, who was in the hall, came forward to the bar of the house and was sworn in.

According to the terms of the special order, the house then proceeded with the consideration of the Hillborn-English case, two hours being allowed for debate.

The republicans refused to vote on the English portion of the resolution, and the democrats failed to get a quorum, the result being 11 to 100. A truce was then declared for the night, and the house adjourned.

MARCHING TO ALLEGHENY.

Pittsburg, April 3.—The march of the commonwealth army to Allegheny began this morning. The men are advised to behave during the next two days, as attempts will be made to lead them astray.

On the road to Allegheny the army was well received. All schools were dismissed for the forenoon, and the boys crowded out of town after the commonwealth, cheering and singing. There were 189 men marching.

GROWING CRITICAL.

Connellsville, Pa., April 3.—The situation in the coke region is in a critical stage. The Frick men at Trotter have come out. It is said a body of strikers intends to march to Frick's Davidson works at noon and force the men to stop work. In the Scottsdale district all the plants are in operation. The feeling among the foreigners throughout the entire region is very bitter. They seem well supplied with dynamite.

Over 10,000 men gathered at the Oliver works today, and with revolvers, clubs and stones attempted to force the English-speaking workmen into line, but failed. The strikers then started for Leith and Brownfield. About 25 deputies are in charge. The strikers camped in the woods near Leith and will attack the workmen, it is expected, when they attempt to work. The rioters are nearly all Hungarians.

DA GAMA AT BUENOS AYRES.

Lisbon, April 3.—The Portuguese have instructed Admiral Da Gama, who is at Buenos Ayres, a fugitive, with a number of followers, on board the Portuguese warships Mindello and Albuquerque, that they cannot permit the Brazilian refugees to land anywhere excepting in Portuguese territory, and then only on such conditions that they cannot return to Brazil in order to intervene in the civil struggle. The Portuguese government is sending another warship to Buenos Ayres to assist in the removal of the Brazilian insurgents to Portuguese territory.

MAKING GOOD INDIANS.

El Reno, O. T., April 3.—Advices from the scene of the encounter between a band of deprecatating Indians and cowboys have been brought by courier. It is reported a fight is in progress, and that eight or ten Indians and half that many whites have been killed or dangerously wounded. The settlers are rushing to the aid of the cowboys, who have surrounded the Indians and are slowly picking them out. Two troops of cavalry have left for the scene of action.

AT THE BAY DISTRICT.

San Francisco, April 3.—The spring meeting of the California Jockey club opened today at the Bay District track. Following is the result of the races:

Half mile—Pat Murphy, 0:49 1/4.
Six furlongs—Nellie G., 1:13 1/2.
Five and one-half furlongs—North, 1:38.
One mile—Zaragoza, 1:42 3/4.
Six furlongs—Trix, 1:13 1/2.

CALIFORNIA CROP OUTLOOK.

San Francisco, April 3.—Reports to the Associated Press from all the principal grain-producing counties in California are that the outlook is excellent for wheat and barley in all the northern counties except in part of the section west of the San Joaquin river, and except in the southern counties.

THE AUSTRO-RUSSIAN TREATY.

Vienna, April 3.—The successful termination of the Austro-Russian territorial treaty negotiations, fixing the tariff on imported rye at one florin and fifty kreutzers, has been accomplished by the direct intervention of the czar.

AN OWNER WANTED.

Denver, April 3.—Judge Caldwell has issued an order for the abandonment of the South Park road by the Union Pacific. The question arises, will the line divert to the state. The line is 232 miles long. It was built by Gov. Evans and sold to the Union Pacific for $2,500,000.

THE WOMEN VOTED.

Denver, April 3.—There was unusual interest in the municipal elections today in the suburbs of Denver and some other cities. At noon a few women had voted. In the highlands there were ten women candidates.

FRY'S ARMY GROWING.

St. Louis, April 3.—Gen. Fry's army was received at Jefferson barracks, this morning. The men are advised to 15 cars in the train. There were 600 men in all, a respectable lot.

A BIG RABBIT DRIVE.

Susanville, Cal., April 3.—The first rabbit drive in Lassen county took place last Saturday. A section nearly three miles square was driven over, and about 2,000 jack-rabbits killed.

IN GOOD CIRCUMSTANCES.

Olympia, April 3.—The cash on hand in the state treasury, as shown by the quarterly report of March 31, is $246,968.73.

LOSS OF LIFE BY FIRE.

Indianapolis, April 3.—A big fire is reported raging at Hobart. Four persons were burned to death.
