

AROUND TOWN.

Father Denman left for Portland this morning.

James Finlayson left for Portland last night.

Today is the last day in which to pay your water rates.

A three-masted schooner passed in for Knappton yesterday.

The British ship Peterborough went up to Portland yesterday.

The schooner Sadie arrived down, lumber laden, for San Francisco.

Frank M. Gunn returned yesterday from his semi-occasional trip up the coast.

J. D. Van Diman and wife, of Delaware, Ohio, are stopping at the Occident.

The Norwegian bark Cara crossed out yesterday, bound for the United Kingdom.

The steamer Elmrose arrived in from Tillamook yesterday with a full cargo of general merchandise.

Property owners have been fixing up their premises along Third, between Olney and Genevieve streets.

It was warm enough yesterday for most of our merchants to keep their store doors open all day long.

R. G. Eastwick, who has been in the city the past four or five days surveying, left for Portland last evening.

Four baby girls were christened last Sunday at the pastorate of the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran church in this city.

Some one humped himself yesterday. One thousand barrels of cement were taken out of the Highland Home in four hours.

Hon. C. W. Fulton came down on the Undine Sunday morning and returned to Portland on the same steamer Sunday night.

Portland taxpayers have caught the hard-up fever. They are petitioning the county court to extend the time of tax payments to June 30.

Uncle Sam has a large number of men at work opening and weighing 10 per cent of the cargo of the British bark Holywood for dutiable purposes.

Portland merchants have established a branch wholesale sugar house in this city. This sugar comes from China, and is packed in improved double sacks.

Some one offered an Uppertown girl a quarter to quit singing "Two Little Girls in Blue." She took the money and immediately invested it in "After the Ball."

There's a mighty weak cellar door in the sidewalk at the Cass street entrance of J. Strauss' store. Some one will break a limb there, and then a damage suit will be the result.

An $80 lot for $2.

If you want some extra fine photos taken, Moore's is the place to get them. Lovers of a good cigar can always find mild, fresh Belmonts at Chas. Olsen's.

The A. P. L. Association are preparing an unusually interesting entertainment, "The Brownies," to be given near the 4th of July. It will be entertaining to see how they spend their Fourth.

If the steamer Telephone continues to have the passenger list that she had down from Portland yesterday, the dividends at the end of the year will make the owners of the City of Frankford feel sick.

Five tons of deep sea fish came in Sunday on the steam schooner Harrison, consisting mostly of cod and groupers. Some of the catch was sold here and the balance went to the Portland markets.

Fresh fish and poultry at Welcome's Market, next to Foard & Stokes.

Meany is the leading tailor and pays the highest cash price for fur skins. For $2, a lot is delivered every week to the buyer in Hill's First addition.

Can't the two engine house dogs, Molly and Rescue, be kept tied up when the drivers are exercising their horses on the streets? It was all a lady could do lately to dodge the horses and dogs both.

W. S. Stitt, of Chicago; James Hillop, of Portland; Thomas A. McGowan, of San Francisco; A. N. Fessenden, of Townsend, Mass., and S. H. Cawston, of Portland, went up the river on the Telephone last night.

It was a beautiful afternoon yesterday, and the ladies were out shopping in full force. If some of them would choose their husbands as carefully as they do their bonnets, how much brighter their life might be.

If you want a first class photograph, see Crow, the Photographer, 638 Third street.

Thousands of mothers give their children Steadman's Soothing Powder during the teething period.

"What does the term 16 to 1 mean in relation to the coinage of silver, asks a patron. Why, silver coined in the ratio of 1 ounce of silver to one of gold. A gold dollar contains 25.5 grains, while a standard silver dollar has in it 16 times as much metal, or 212.5 grains.

The State of California called for San Francisco yesterday with the following freight from this port: $2,000 feet of lumber, 2,000 bundles shooks, 200 sacks oysters, 14 barrels salt salmon and 5 tons assorted household goods." She also had a large passenger list, quite a number of whom came ashore for an hour and looked over our city. The twin bears at P. J. Meany's attracted a couple of the visitors so long that they came near missing the boat.

The British bark Highland Home discharged 1,000 barrels of cement at the bonded warehouse yesterday. She leaves up this morning for Portland with the rest of her cargo.

Hill's First addition is located in the centre of the city. Lots are now selling in it for $2.

The last shipment of the 1894 styles of wall paper have arrived at B. F. Allen's—so don't wait for your's until the stock has been all panned over.

How would it do for all the kicking members of the different Astoria churches to start a new denomination and build a church to be called the Kickers' Tabernacle? Each denomination can easily contribute a few members for a starter.

The time has again come for the commencement of a new fishing season. It is to be hoped that it will be a successful one. It is reported, however, that most of the fish now in have gone above, so that the catches below are not likely to be very large at present.

Some one has said that the populists at a recent meeting resolved not to fuse—or in other words, have concluded to play their hand alone. It is always best for a person to sail under his true colors, whether he sinks or swims. The people will respect him more for it.

There is no risk taken by joining Hill's lot clubs. Everybody gets the full value of their money. Japanese novelties and fancy dry goods, can be had at half price, at the store of Wing Lee, next to Olsen's cigar store.

The society of the Young Men's Institute held an open meeting Sunday afternoon. It was well attended, and the audience that listened to the remarks of District Deputy Murphy on "Advice to Young Men" was well repaid. Mr. Murphy left on the evening boat Monday for Portland.

On Wednesday, tomorrow, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., at C. H. Cooper's, the ladies of Astoria can have the privilege of inspecting the greatest line of Parisian novelties in dress goods and silks ever shown in Astoria. The representative of Newburger, Reiss & Co. will be there. Special orders will be taken.

What's better eating than halibut? You can get them on the schooner Surprise, three pounds for 25 cents. The schooner is at the Telephone dock.

Service at St. Thomas-by-the-Sea, Skippanon, Tuesday evening, (April 19) at half-past seven, the Rev. Wm. S. Short, of Astoria, officiating. Those having mite boxes will please bring or send them at that time.

On Thursday, April 12, at 5 o'clock p. m., a supper will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of Grace (Episcopal) church, at Rescue hall. The entire receipts will be given to the Astoria Library. Price of supper, 25 cents. The public are asked to assist in making the supper a financial success.

Don't be too free in using gasoline in the spring cleaning of your lace curtains and other soiled fabrics about the house. Carefully used it is a good and effective article, but carelessly handled near excessive heat or flame it becomes a demon of destruction, and too much care cannot be exercised in its employment.

A six-horse power upright engine and boiler, almost new, for sale cheap. For particulars apply at this office.

Mr. Harry Martine, representing the Wiley B. Allen Co. of Portland, will be in town the next few days. Parties desiring their pianos put in first-class order, should leave orders with Griffin & Reed.

Pat Lawler, who, with Mr. McDonald kept a chicken foundry and fish market on Third street, had a grand cleaning sale Saturday night. They got the stock down to one lone rooster, and then the partnership dissolved. Pat is the surviving member of the firm. He does his own type-writing, buying, selling, and does his own thinking, generally.

Tonight, at half-past 7 o'clock, the different committees whom President Wise appointed to devise ways and means to entertain the delegates to the democratic state convention, will meet at the court house, and tell each other how much they have done and hear their president say "Well done, thou good and faithful servants."

Olsen has 29 brands of clear Havana cigars and he will give you a better cigar for 10 cents than you can get for 15 cents at any other place. 527 Third street.

Free, at Crow's Gallery, during the next fifteen days. We are going to boom and advertise our business by giving to every purchaser of one dozen cabinets a large size, 18x22, crayon portrait (bust), valued at $10.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our most sincere thanks to the many friends who so kindly assisted us during our late bereavement, upon the death of our little daughter.

MR. AND MRS. M. B. BOZORTH.

'TISN'T LIKELY

That so many ladies would make the same mistake, at the same place, about the same thing at the same time. So many ladies wouldn't have purchased the P. N. Consers last week of us at prices from 60 cents to $2.25 if they were not all we claim for them. We had to order more. What a splitter some stores would make if they could write down such facts.

Albert Dunbar,
Cor. 3rd & Main.

Some one has given Walter Ridehalgh the following recipe for breaking his mastiff of the habit of leaving his home on the hill. Here it is: Get some stranger to whip him good every time he meets him. The dog will then be afraid he will meet his chastiser and so stay at home. The dog weighs over 200 pounds. Where is the stranger that wants the job?

H. Ekstrom has fixed his prices for jewelry to suit the times, and the latest novelties can be secured at the cost of material used in the manufacture.

For a delicious plate of pure ice cream, go to C. B. Smith, the Ice Cream Dealer. Ice Cream Soda a specialty. Private parlors for ladies. 483 Third street.

A SORRY JOKE.

There's a man in Uppertown who can bay like a dog so naturally that his neighbors before they found it out would pray for clouds every clear night to cover the moon. The other night he got behind a friend's back fence and commenced his fun. He howled to wake the dead, and soon brought a score of missiles in his direction. He chuckled in his sleeve at the fun he was having, but he didn't know that one of the residents had got a clothes-prop and was carefully and quietly stealing up in his direction, and when he raised his head again over the fence and howled he did it so naturally that the clothes-prop never stopped until it laid him out nearly senseless.

He practices his accomplishment now in his own house, with closed doors.

All the patent medicines advertised in this paper, together with the choicest perfumery, and toilet articles, etc., can be bought at the lowest prices at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel, Astoria.

Don't go to Portland to buy your tickets for the "Old Country" and the East when you can get them for the same price at the Union Pacific office in this city, and thereby save your local fare to Portland.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Tongue Point Crossing, Buoy No. 2, red, first-class nun, has been removed into 12 feet of water, about 180 yards southwest by south from its old position, to mark the west edge of a shoal, which is making out to the westward. The bearings are: Beacon No. 1 N. E. 1-4 E. Tongue Point (east tangent), S. E. 1-2 E.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION GIFT.

At the close of the University Extension course there was left a balance of $18.80 in the hands of the committee in charge. This was by unanimous vote presented to the Public Library. The Library Association wish in this way to acknowledge its receipt, and to thank the members of the course, in general, and the committee in particular, for their liberality and encouragement.

SMOKE! SMOKE! SMOKE- SMOKE!
If you want any thing good to smoke, Key West, imported, or domestic, you must go to Chas. Olsen.

PROPOSALS.

Sealed bids will be received at this office for remodeling the Astorian building. Plans and specifications can be found on premises.

THE ASTORIAN.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that my wife, Sadie Danielson, has left my board and bed, and I hereby warn all persons that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her in my name.

JOHN DANIELSON.

A SAD PICTURE.

The next time you are in a melancholy mood, as you are almost certain to be if you become bilious or dyspeptic, picture to yourself the condition of a poor man who, without resources and with a family on his hands, finds himself on a sick bed. Gloom obscures his narrow horizon in every direction. Unable to do any work, without means, or friends capable of assisting him, with the possible prospect of continued ill-health; with rent, perhaps, unpaid and unpayable, the outlook for him is very gloomy indeed. How shortsighted, then, is the man of humble means who perceiving that his health and strength are failing takes no precaution to avert the oncoming evil. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a reliable, professionally recommended restorative of health and vigor, and a sure means of preventing the many disabling complaints which exposure, overwork, neglect and insufficient food produce. Malaria, rheumatism, kidney and liver complaint, dyspepsia and nervous disease always yield to it.
